Messrs. Richards and Williams, assisted by Mr. Gairye, are reopening on a grand scale, "The Duncan Cafe," and are deserving of all our patronage. By patronage we mean to go there to eat and drink whatever we want and then leave, so someone else can do the same; not to eat, then lean over the counter or table and go to sleep or carry on a loud conversation with someone else three or four tables away, to the disgust of other customers eating in the dining room. Mr. Gairye had signs on the restaurant encouraging you to make yourself at home, but some customers took advantage and made themselves too much at home and by so doing made other people stay away. Now, if you can't help the business to grow larger, don't stand in the way of others who would like to help it; you don't have to eat and run, exactly, but eat and get out of the way so someone else can eat in comfort, as well as you.

Well, did you attend the concert and dance at Orange Hall last Thursday evening? If you did not, you certainly missed a treat. The costumes, etc., were gorgeous and all members participating acted their parts to perfection. You talk about jokes—there were all kinds to be seen and heard. Now that kind of entertainment is worthy of your patronage.

The B. M. E. Church Conference furnished to the Toronto public some of the finest sermons ever heard in this city at any time. Bishop Vernon of Detroit led with a sermon which was a masterpiece and held an appreciative audience spellbound for the entire discourse. Then Bishop McClellan, who preached of feeding multitudes with two fishes and five loaves, brought out points on that sermon that were so plain that the smallest child could make a literal translation of it and understand it, and last but not least, Bishop Johnson, preaching on what hell really is, entertained his audience for fully an hour and thirty minutes without hearing a sigh or a snore. It was one wonderful week of praising God in the Highest. Would that we could get more of them here to help tide over the rough spots. Don't think I mean we don't have any good sermons at our three churches; not that, but new blood instilled into any affair helps to bring it out more and more. Then there was Rev. Atkins, of Philadelphia who preached at the Baptist church last Sunday night week and his sermon was wonderful and his delivery was even more wonderful. So, you see, we have much to be thankful for.

Our boys began their work at the University this week and we wish them all the success in the world to help them finish their respective courses.

Poor jazz music, it certainly dies many times. Every time you pick up the paper you see where some artist or imaginary artist or great musical organization has dealt it a death blow. It must have died at least one million times in the last three years, yet you can't walk on the street without hearing it. You can go to a show, party picnic, boat ride, and you can sometimes hear it in the church. I wonder how long it will take to kill it really and truly, the way they are going now. The latest organization to kill it was the Coldstream Guards who say it is dead in Canada. I wonder what part of Canada they visited to miss Mr. Jazz; don't you?

The Home Service Association is getting ready to assist in the fall drive for funds to help tide over those unfortunates who have failed to provide for the coming winter. Now, when these people come to you, asking you to give something to help in this drive, don't feel that you are immune from those conditions which some others are in; help until it hurts. Some day you may need help yourself and it will give you comfort to know that even though you are receiving help, at some other time in your days you have helped someone else.

Mr. George D. Winn, of Buffalo, wishes to announce the marriage of his youngest brother, Frederick Thomas Winn, and Miss Ethel Jordan, of Toronto, Ont., which occurred in Buffalo on Monday, Sept. 13th, 1926, Rev. S. O. B. Johnson, of Buffalo, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Winn will reside in Toronto at 479 Queen St. W.

On Thursday, Sept. 9, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Harris, of 410 Queen St. W., entertained in honor of their guests, Mrs. and Miss Cain of Buffalo, N.Y. Although the affair was arranged on the spur of the moment, it proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Several members of the Jonquil Club were present to meet Mrs. and Miss Cain and they succeeded in making the evening a most enjoyable one.

"The Mikado of Japan" was presented by the Jonquil Art Club last Friday evening at Orange Hall. It proved to be one of the most successful plays ever staged in Toronto, both from a standpoint of talent and finance. One who knows summed up the situation in the following way: "David Belasco was right when he said that the future stage must look to the negro race for its talent." The net proceeds were $150.00.
