

Since the new Agreement concerns a field of provincial interest, Mr. Martin specified that the Federal government hoped to facilitate participation by any province wishing to avail itself of the provisions of the Agreement and would be willing to investigate the necessary course of action with the authorities concerned. (Text of the Agreement attached)