APICULTURE SHORT

O. A. C

Indexed

By F. Eric

This course was held January 9th to the 20th

Although only commenced the apiculture short course stay. From every standpoint just concluded was highly and well attended. There were fifty students present, from Ontario, and even Manitoba.

A glance at the program to make any member of the sure that there were no things in store. Through this proved to be the case, able lessons being learned.

Among our own brethren Provincial Apiarist, Mr. with his helpful and instructives, with Messrs. Sibbald also Mr. Byer, who, although taking one of the other could not refrain from visiting the culture course.

We also had several of some of the regular classes on various subjects relative to One day was also spent at the plant of the Ham & Nott of Brantford. The firm held a class, and after the inner part of the factory was visited, the idea of the manufacturing business was obtained.
