STRASBURG CATHEDRAL.

There is a beautiful story told of the plan by which Strasburg Cathedral was made. The architect, Erwin von Steinback, who was given the commission to build it, was greatly troubled lest he should not get his plan sufficiently noble. He had a daughter named Sabine, who was skilful in drawing, and one night, after they had wept together over the plans, she said to her father: "Don't despair; God will help us." After she fell asleep she dreamed that a beautiful angel came, and when she had told her story, said: "You shall make the plan for the minister." The angel and Sabine then set to work, and soon the plan was done. When she awoke she uttered aloud scream, for there was a paper before her covered with wonderful drawing. Her father exclaimed: "Child, it was no dream. The angel really visited you, bringing the inspiration from heaven to help us." He built the cathedral after the plan, and it was so beautiful that the people believed the story. Do not angels help all good children?
