Mermaids and Beavers dunk Blue Eagles

By TOM BEST

After the start of what seemed

Sports Editor

to be another dismal season, the men's varsity basketball team, the Red Raiders, under the leadership beginning to show some promise.

Not only are they starting to play better ball against the team in the Atlantic conference but they have demonstrated that they are able to hold their own, and win, against some of the better teams in other conferences. Last weekend, they defeated the University of Quebec

of

coach Don Nelson, are

The UNB Mermaids and Beavers training and they showed considspent a wet but victorious weekend at the Sir Max Aitken Pool. They competed Friday against the hapless U de Moncton Blue Eagles leaving the pool that night with almost every point earned to their favor. The divers however, did encounter a little difficulty as U de M's top male diver slipped by Dale MacLean and Gary Kelly to a first place on the 3 meter board. That proved to be the only interesting contest of the competition.

Saturday's meet against Mt. on the part of the Mermaids while the Beavers were fairly confident. won by UNB. The Co-eds had beaten the Mermaids in their last encounter, Mermaids were out for revenge. They took their revenge by a large margin beating the Co-eds by a score of 62 to 33 while the Beavers trounced the Mounties 68 to 17.

come out of a very tough week of 2.40.3 in the 200 IM. Julie Johnson competitions. First place finishers in the weekend competition were numerous and included Kathy Gaul in both 100 and 50 freestyle, Julie Johnson in both 200 IM and 200 Back Randi Stangroom in 400 free, and Karen Stangroom in the 20 breast. Both the 400 Medley and 400 Free relays were won by the Mermaids. For the men's team, first place winners were: John Bennett in the 1500 Free, Paul Steeves in both erable strength in the weekend

the 200 Free and 200 Breast, John MacGillivary in both the 50 and Allison, as anticipated, provided a 100 Free, Rob Davis in both the little more competition. The day 200 IM and 200 Fly, lain Sinclair in dawned with a little nervousness the 200 Back, and Bill Emery in the 400 Free. Again both relays were

Kathy Gaul, Debbie Whittemore and Julie Johnson were the only by a very close score and the UNB swimmers who qualified for the CIAU Championships this weekend. Gaul's time of 29.3 in the 50 Free and 1.04.0 in the 100 Free will enable her to raise up in the CIAU rankings as well as qualify her for that meet. Debbie

Although the swimmers had Whittemore also qualified with a

Bears claw to the top

Last weekend, the UNB Black Bears wrestling team, under the tutelage of coach Jim Born won the prestigious St. Francis Xavier Open by defeating Dalhousie, Universite de Moncton and Acadia and tying St. F.X. despite the handicap of having to give four weight classes.

Top performers for the Bears were Gabriel El-Khoury and Phil Knox, each of whom had perfect 4-0 records. All of their wins were by pins

Dal, last year's conference champions, and tied St. F.X. Although X had a similar 3-0-1 record, the Bears were credited with the meet because they had won more matches by pins. Dan Berman, Mike Ballak, Perry Kukkomen, and Reid Barnett each finished third, second in their divisions while Roy Ballieaul took third. Rick Fray, plagued by knee injuries, finished the meet with a one and two record.

Born was pleased with the meet results saying the "We did quite qualified in the 100 back. There tough one for UNB. Friday night are still six more meets for the they compete against Acadia and rest of the UNB swimmers to Laval and Saturday against the qualify for the CIAU's and many of Dalhousie Tigers and Laval. them are only a few seconds off Acadia's women hold a decided the times that they need.

by 10 points."

Raiders play 500 ball

third place in the Quebec conference. He indicated that the Trent game was an easy one in

This coming weekend will be a maids as they were national champions last year while Acadia's mens team possesses quite a few strong swimmers. The team will be looking for strong fan advantage over the UNB Mer- support to cheer them on.

were up by six points at halftime Cheam played very steadily and and at one point we had 15 points controlled things in all of the on them. We went cold at the games. He also said that the rest wrong time and they had a couple of the team all made good of kids who got hot at the right contributions. time. It went right down to the The Raiders next conference final shot. Earlier in the year we tilts are at Dalhousie. Nelson feels played Fort Kent and they beat us that the team will have their hands full with those games "It won't be an easy task. We'll have to overcome their height advant--He said that the team played an excellent game against Trois age and if we do that we might be Rivieres, who currently hold down able to knock them off."

The next Raiders home game will be January 27 against the UPEI Panthers.

Bloomers

sink two

By JEFF IRWIN

Last weekend the Red Bloomers played two games against St. Mary's University from Halifax Nelson also singled out Mark here at UNB.

They won first game 87-46, and won second game 83-59. Most outstanding player in Coach Joyce Slipp's eyes was record of 20 rebounds against Fort Sylvis Blumenfield who scored 38 points in the two games. Sylvia was also voted Female Athlete of the Week.

This weekend the Red Bloomers are going to Halifax to play SMU Return equipment or else and Dalhousie. Joyce Slipp says that Dal will be UNB's stiffest

Allegations that t Department attempte an RCMP investige alleged kickbacks to t sive Conservative p considered unfounded to a judical inquiry matter. John Baxter, Justice in 1973 discourage an RCMP tion into PC party fin only because the believed such an ir would not uncover a The 117 page repo

Wednesday morning s Minister of Justice i concurred in the imp restriction on an ir into political contribu to the Progressive C party of New Brun reports says that Bax aware of any poss activities in connectio fund raising, when h meeting with senior other justice officials 1973, and therefore was not improper. B.J. Giroux assiste sioner of the RCMP charge of the i ordered investigating to look into any ar contributions before with Baxter.

which the outcome was never in at Trois Rivieres 92-79 and Trent doubt. "They were never close and University, 76-71, to win the we weren't worried. consolation of the Laval Invitational Tournament. Tom MacMillan was chosen as Nelson, said that he was one of the All-Stars of the pleased with the results. It was a tournament and scored in double good experience. Any time that figures in all four games with a you can go on the road and play high of 22 points. Nelson said that 500 ball you know that you must "he deserves a lot of credit".

be doing something right." The Raiders also played Bishop's to whom they lost 92-59 and University of Maine at Fort Kent. McGeachey, saying that he played They lost the Fort Kent game exceptionally well in the Fort Kent 79-77. Fort Kent went on to win and Trois Rivieres games. Mcthe tournament final beating host Geachy pulled down a season Laval, 78-62. "The Fort Kent game was a Kent.

He said that team captain Andy heartbreaker," said Nelson, "We

The meet was held as a series of dual meets between the various clubs represented. The Bears easily handled Acadia, UM and

OFF CAMPUS STUDENTS HOCKEY LEAGUE

Saturday, January 21, 1978 9:00 a.m. Pig Skins vs T. 2's 10:00 a.m. Co-op vs Humans 11:15 a.m. Pansies vs Gee-Gees

INTER CLASS HOCKEY LEAGUE Sunday, January 22, 1978 BLACK DIVISION 9:00 a.m. Bus 1 vs FE 2 10:00 a.m. CS 4 vs Geo 11:15 a.m. For 3 vs For 2

RED DIVISION

12:15 p.m. Law 3 vs For PG 5:00 p.m. PE 4 vs For 345 6:00 p.m. EE Grads vs Bus 4

GREEN DIVISION

7:15 p.m. Law 2 vs CE 3 8:15 p.m. BBA 8.vs Bus 3 9:30 p.m. ME 7 vs For 4 10:30 p.m. CE 4 vs PE 3

INTER RESIDENCE HOCKEY LEAGUE

Wednesday, January 25, 1978 10:00 p.m. Harrington vs Neill 11:00 p.m. Bridges vs Harrison Thursday, January 26, 1978 10:00 p.m. Aitken vs MacKenzie 11:00 p.m. Neville vs L.B.R.

well considering that we had to give up four classes. We had more pins than anyone else.

He said that the team will be bolstered in this weekend's meet against UM with the addition of Stevie Cudmore, who is currently out with an injury and by Big Bob Lockwood in the heavyweight spot. Born said that Lockwood has had limited wrestling experience but "he's a big kid who likes to work. It's a matter of teaching him a few techniques and then we should have a good wrestler on our hands.

Ping pong

There will be a Table Tennis Level I Coaching Clinic February 4 and 5 at the Nashwaaksis Junior High School sponsored by the New Brunswick Table Tennis Association.

No previous experience is necessary and the course should appeal to prospective teachers. Applicants should be prepared to do some gym work and some classroom work.

necessary to know how many will be in attendance. If you intend to participate, please contact Doug Jackson, 260 Woodbridge St. Fredericton or phone 454-5633. There will be a $10.00 entry fee.

To Whom It May Concern:

During the past months various teams in the intramural hockey league have had outstanding equipment on charge.

I must remind you that the equipment is there for all hockey removed from all scheduled league participants use free of league games. charge. Without this equipment many participants and thus teams would be unable to compete in this hockey program.

It is the team manager's responsibility to ensure that all equipment be accounted for after each game that they are involved with.

With the budget restraint now on it will be more difficult to repair practices. or expand on existing equipment. Since this response to these Barry Roberts charges has been slow, sterner

UNB swimmers tops

Several of the UNB swimmers are nationally ranked in the CIAU standings. Bruce Williams is rated ninth inthe 200 m back and the UNB team is eight in the 4×100 medley relay.

Kathy Gaul is ranked eighth in the 100' and tenth in the 50 freestyle events; Debbie White-competition. Last weekends wins gave the measures have to be imposed. Red Bloomers a record of 6 wins -Thus, all teams in question that no losses.

have equipment outstanding at this time must either replace or pay the outstanding bill by FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1978 or Freeski your remaining practice times will be cancelled and your team will be instruction

May I also remind you that you Free Ski Instruction is open to all must have at least 12 players on STU and UNB students, faculty and the ice during your practice staff. Instruction is being given by period. If this requirement is not qualified CSIA instructors at met you will be charged for the ice beginner, intermediate and adtime - $40.00. This amount must vanced levels. be apid before your next practice or next game or the same will Lessons are broken into two apply as above if this is not met week blocks which run Tuesday and you will be cancelled from and Wednesday from 6:30 to regularly scheduled games and 10.00 p.m.

> General registration will be on January 13 and Monday, January 16 all day at the Recreation on Intermural office. If you miss either Friday or Monday, late registration forms can be picked up at the Recreation and Intramural office or the Equipment Control office in the evening.

more sixth in the 200 butterfly and Lessons will be conducted at Buchanan and Silverwood Winter Park. There are 22 pairs of metal skiis and poles which can be signed out from the Equipment Room, L.B. Gym.

This is the opportunity of a life

Hatfi

comm

"It is now clear question that there interference by officials or by the justice, Mr. Baxte Creaghan" said Pre Hatfield at a new Wednesday. Hatfield was Liberal opposition I Higgins' accusation that the Departme attempted to thwo Investigation into backs to the party.

An inquiry by Minister Hughes in showed Higgins all unwarranted.

Last March Higgin royal commission in of his allegation department inter system of kickback would resign if su did not substantiat

Hatfield said it reasonable that the continue without prejudiced by the o its leader whose and reckless cond past year" was an judicial system and ed principles of fair political responsib nineth in the 200 free; Karen Stongroom is sixth in the 800 free and seventh in the 200 breaststroke; Ginny Bradley is rated eighth in the 200 free; and Randi Stangroom is ranked tenth in the 400 freestyle. The women's 4 x 100 freestyle relay is ranked ninth time. Get out and take advantage while the 4 x 100 medley relay is of it. rated tenth.

To receive the Level I Coaching Certification candidates must pass a Dept. of Youth examination and do some coaching. In order to make plans, it is