to shew that $2,500, or any part of the purchase money for the mill property was to be considered as being the value of the limit he was to receive with the mill; or that any sum was to be deducted from the price on that account.

2. As regards the claim for a further reduction in the price of the property on account of the alleged incompleteness of the mill, the documents on file in the Department clearly shew that the mill was sold as it stood without any stipulation as regards completeness; and there does not appear to be any grounds for your contention in that respect.

Wm. McLaren

2.