

who may attempt to interfere with him in the discharge of his duties.

The Indian Agent at Lorette has been instructed to impress upon the Indians the necessity of acquiescing in the judgments of the Court and the Agent himself has been directed to render the Surveyor any assistance he may require.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient

H. Hauhouquet

Deputy Supt. General of Indian Affairs.