Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter (not dated) relative to the Indian John Martin; and in reply I have to inform you that you should testify Martin in writing that his right to land on the Reserve is not recognized by the Department; and that if he removes any more timber he will be prosecuted; and that he must cease to interfere in Band matters.

I am,

Sir,
 your obedient servant.
