

350,000 people on the habitable globe are as well supplied with the facilities of elementary, secondary, and higher education, and that credit for this is largely due to our present Superintendent of Education and to the public and high school inspectors of the province.