Hathaway against McLean.

That these determinations are decisive in the present case, as it is well known that the maker of a promissory note and the acceptor of a bill of exchange, are upon the same footing.

That in many of the cases it has been decided that the note was evidence without being declared upon, and the reasoning is stronger in favour of a plaintiff where his note, as in the present case, has been declared upon.

MCLEAN against CUMMING,

November 19.

Motion to stay proceedings upon a Judgment entered upon a cognovit—Actionem.

The rule of this court requiring the name of an attorney to be endorsed upon a cognovit does not apply where an attorney is plaintiff. An affidavit not considered as
