

big with terror ; — just as in a celebrated picture of Jean Paul Richter, which is so painted that when viewed at a distance it seems surrounded with floating clouds, but when examined closely, those clouds resolve themselves into angelic faces. Thus faith, in a spiritual mind, discovers not only the harmlessness of trials, but discerns them in all the beauty of their true character, as messengers of love. Hence it endures them in undisturbed peace. Does it sur-

also
in v
of
res
me
is f
ab
Jee
Go
de