

REGULATIONS FOR QUEEN'S COLLEGE.

CHAPTER I.

OF SESSIONS, AND ADMISSION AND ATTENDANCE OF STUDENTS.

1. The Session, or Academical year, shall commence on the First Wednesday in October, and end on the last Thursday of April. There shall be a recess at Christmas, and another at Easter. The duration of these to be fixed by the College Senate.

2. No one shall be entitled to rank as a Student who has not been matriculated; that is, whose name has not been placed on the Album or Register of the University by the Secretary of the Senate, and by their authority.

3. Every person applying to be matriculated for the first time, shall undergo an examination before the Senate,* and if the candidate does not display such a proficiency in these elementary subjects of examination, as to warrant the expectation that he will pursue his studies with success, it shall be competent for the Senate to refuse his admission. The Senatus shall have power to rank a Student, even at his first entrance, as a senior one, provided that he display such proficiency in the subjects of examination as shall fully warrant his being so ranked; such indulgence to be granted only in those cases where the Student exhibits a degree of proficiency decidedly above the average rate of intrants.

4. When a Student of a former year applies for matriculation, he shall be examined by the Senate on the studies of the previous Session or Sessions, and also in regard to the improvement he has made, during the vacation, by private study; and if it shall appear that he has been negligent, it shall be competent for the Senate to place him in the same situation, in regard to standing, which he held the previous session.

5. Every Student, at the time of his matriculation, shall subscribe a declaration of obedience to the authorities and laws of the University.

6. Every Student at the close of the Session, shall apply to the Professors, on whose instructions he has attended, for certificates attesting the regularity of his attendance, his proficiency and diligence. The nature of these certificates shall form an element in the judgment of the Senate as to the person's standing for that Session.

7. Any Student who shall have been absent from the classes during such time or times, in the course of one Session, as shall amount to

* The subjects of examination are at present, the first three Books of the Æneid of Virgil—the first three Books of Cæsar's Commentaries—Mair's Introduction—the Greek Grammar—and Arithmetic as far as Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, inclusive.
