Let us turn from this vender of obscene literature, who offends Christians by professing Christianity, to a real soldier of the cross, to a man who is ready to go where duty calls him. His name is Rev. W. D. McKinnon, the Catholic charles in of the Elret Call. the Catholic chaplain of the First Cali-fornia volunteers. This is what he said before starting with his regiment for the Philippines: "As for myself, I must say that the many fervent 'God bless yous' I heard as we marched along will ever encourage me in the performance of my duties, no matter how difficult those duties may be. I consider it the proudest privilege my life to be permitted to go along with those brave boys, and, no matter what fortune may befall them, and no matter what creed they may profess, I will be with them to give them what ever consolation, comfort and assistance I can. In volunteering to go with tris expedition, I do not consider I have done anything but my duty, and there is not a priest in the archdiocese but is ready, if necessary, to do the same thing. Our church teaches us patriot ism, and we, the exponents of the doc trine of that church, are always ready to exemplify this teaching. To love a country like ours is an easy matter. To it, after God, we are indebted for everything we possess, and for it we must be ever ready to make any sacrifice. The cause for which we are now fighting is a holy one, and one in which every citizen of our fair land should be ready, if necessary, to take

Here we have the sentiments of a Christian patriot, a devout follower of the cross and a loyal son of the Holy See. On the other hand, we have the sentiments of a foul mouthed, unclean person, who, as the Herald said editorially, "hardly rises to the dignity of bigot." This outcast of the Protestan This outcast of the Protestant ministry, who is unable to secure a permanent pulpit because of his black guardism, wants to have the public believe that this is a religious war, and that Catholics and Protestants are arrayed against each other, while all the world knows there are no more loyal soldiers in the American army and navy than the Catholics.

MR. MORLEY'S RENEWAL OF

Preston, England, Catholic News. Mr. John Morley's pronouncement on the Home Rule question and on the re-ciprocal obligations of the Irish and Liberal Parties will do a world of good to both sides. There were some Liber als who were beginning to ask why they should adhere to Home Rule and what good it had ever brought them. Mr. Morley reminded these people that the Liberal Party had declared for the Liberal Party had declared for Home Rule because it believed in the justice of it, but that, even judged by the lower standard of mere expediency, by the lower standard of mere expediency in the lower standard of mere expediency in the it was by aid of the Irish vote the Liberals managed to put through the Parish Councils Bill and the Radical Budget. The list is capable of exten-

On our own side, there have not been wanting carpers who were quick to express the suspicion that the Liberals were growing cool on Home Rule and would in the long run play false to their professions. Mr. Moriey's speech is at once a rebuke to such doubters and an assurance to those whose knowledge of political affairs tends to show them that there is no future for Liberalism apart from Home

The Liberal party has many times been baffled but never worsted in its fight for applied justice to the people who constitute its special care. the moment the party is in the trough of the wave of political power, but it is clear to all that it cannot remain there. Lord Salisbury, varying the metaphor, has declared that the law of the pendu lum is the established rule of English politics. It needs no lynx to see how the pendulum is swinging, and when next it registers the return of the Lib-erals to power, Mr. Morley's speech shows that it will have heralded the speedy connsummation of Irish Home Government.

THE OLD SPIRIT REVEALED,

N. Y. Freeman's Journal. The Catholic bishops of Ireland have very properly resented and protested against the insult as well as gross in-justice to the Irish Catholic clergy, contained in the clause of the new Local Government bill which excludes all clergymen from eligibility to membership of county or district councils Of course, the clause is directed main ly against the Catholic clergy. The framers of the bill would be glad to admit the Protestant clergy, but as they could hardly propose so outrageous a thing as the admission of the latter and the exclusion of the clergy of the mass of the people, they resolved to exclude all, as the only way of accomplishing their object of keeping out the Catholic priests. There can be no doubt as to the spirit and motive of this bit of THE CATHOLIC SUMMER SCHOOL. British policy in the government of Ireland. The Catholic bishops put the right construction upon it in the following resolution passed by them at their recent meeting in Maynooth College:

"Resolved, that the Bishops of Ireland unanimously renew the protest made by their Standing Committee against the denial of the ordinary rights of citizenship to the Catholic clergy of Ireland, as proposed by the Local Government Bill now before Catholic clergy of Ireland, as proposed to Local Government Bill now before Parliament.

"We have been no strangers to such disabilities in the past, but surely it is a strange thing that a so-called Unionist Government, untaught by the history of the penal days, can find no better means of reconciling the Irish people with the British Government in Ireland than by re-enacting civil disabilities against the Catholic clergy—for it is really against them that the disability now proposed to be enacted had been designed. The times have changed, but the old spirit still reveals itself, the spirit of jealousy and distrust of the Catholic priesthood.

"We protest against the clause; we ask our representatives in Parliament to oppose it to the last. If they fail, this protest will remain to justify the clergy in exercising that influence outside the local councils, which the law will not permit them to exercise as members of those bodies."

"The old spirit still reveals itself." Of course it does, for it is still there— the spirit of Protestant ascendancy the spirit manifested in almost every department of Irish government—the spirit of the old, but still not discarded motto—"No Papists need apply."

In England, this spirit is beginning to die out. Clergymen—Catholic or Protestant—are not excluded from the English local councils. But Protestant ascendancy is one of the British garrisons in Ireland, which must be maintained in the interests of British rule. How could it be maintained if Catholics and especially priests got their full rights as citizens? No such thing as this can or will be in Ireland so long as British rule is there

POPE'S LATEST ENCYCLICAL.

The Pope has issued an encyclical to the Scottish people, the terms of which are significant in view of the recent reports that the thoughts of His Holiness are absorbed with his death. He says that in his stress he addresses them because he sees that his last days are approaching, and in the most olemn terms recalls the services of dead Scotch heroes in the Church and beseeches the people to return to their ancient faith. The encyclical conveys ancient faith. to the people the apostolic blessing.

DIOCESE OF HAMILTON.

BISHOP DOWLING'S ANNIVERSARY—ANNOUNCE MENT OF HIS INTENTION TO REMAIN IN THE DIOCESE OF HAMILTON AND HIS WISH TO BE BURIED AMONG HIS OWN PRIESTS AND PEOPLE.

On Sunday, August 7, Bishop Dowling assisted at High Mass at St. Mary's cathedral for the purpose of celebrating the thirty-fourth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, After the recitation of the litany and other prayers of thanksgiving he invited the congregation o join with him in prayers for the repose of the soul of the late Archbishop Waish of Torono. His Lordship also availed himself of the occasion to deny the reports in circulation about his removal or promotion, saying that was his heartfelt wish and prayer to live and labor and die in the discharge of his duties in the diocase of Hamilton; and, furthermore, that it was his wish to be buried under the shadow of the chancel of the chapel of the Holy Scpulchre in their beautiful cemetery, to rest midst his beloved priests and people. Amongst those of the clergy from Hamilton diocese who attended the funeral of the late Archbisop were the following: Rt. Rev. Mgr. Heenan, V. G., of Dundas; Right Rev. Mgr. Heenan, V. G., of Dundas; Right Rev. Mgr. Heenan, V. G., of Dundas; Right Rev. Mgr. Heenan, V. Hamilton; Very Rev. Dean O Connell, of Mt. Forest; Rev. Fathers Fennessy and Spetz of St. Jerome's college, Berlin; Rev. Fathers Brady, Hinchey, O'Reilly and Mahony of Hamilton; Buckley, C. S. B., of Owen Sound; Slavin of Galt; Cosgrove, of Elora; Haley, Macton Crinton, Dunnville; Burke, Oakville; Kelly, Walkerton.

In the order of seniority, Bishop Downing of Dr. Walsh as Archbishop of Toronto. Bishop lowling is now the senior Roman Catholic prelate of Ontario.

Not only on account of seniority, but also by reason of superior ability and energy, should the right of Bishop Dowling to wear the pallium be recognized. Of all the Bishops of the diocese of Hamilton he has proved himself to be the best administrator. The affairs of the diocese have never been so well managed as they now are. The parishes of the diocese have never been is used a satisfactory condition as they now are. Under no former Bishop have so many great and good projects for the promotion of the Church's interests in this diocese been begun and completed as there have been under Bishop Dowling. His energy and zeal have extended to all parts of the field committed to his care, and have been communicated to all the clergy under him. Here sults of that energy and zeal in the repairing of the cathedral at great cost, the erection of the handsome presbytery of St. Mary's, the acquirement of a new episcopal residence, the building of two new churches, the establishment of St. Joseph's hospital. It is not for the Herald to dwell upon the spiritual aspect of Bishop Dowling's incumbency, but it is the fact that he, is universally regarded by the members of his own flock as a faithful shepherd.

The elevation of Bishop Dowling to the archiepiscopate would be regarded in Hamilton as a valued citizen, his fellow citizens would be gratified over the cause of his departure.

TROUT CREEK PICNIC. On Tuesday, 2nd inst., a very successful pi e was held on the beautiful grounds attache the church of the Sacred Heart, Tro reek. The early trains from both direction to the church of the Sacred Heart, Trout Creek. The early trains from both directions brought a very large contingent from North Bay and other places. The weather was all that could be desired. Everybody appeared to enjoy themselves. An excellent programme of sports was one of the principal features of the day. The North Bay band was on the grounds and discoursed most excellent music. The task of supplying refreshments for so large a crowd was no easy one, but as usual the ladies of the parish provided an abundance of the good things of life-served in a manner that gave general satisfaction.

I congratulate the 'pastor, Rev. A. F. Kelly and his parishioners, on the success of the picnic, which will, it is thought, realize a considerable sum which will enable him to lesson the debtjon the church. Besides Father Kelly, the following elergymen were present. F. Collins, P. P., Bracebridge; Rev. T. F. Fleming, Bracebridge; Rev. J. Collins, C. S. B. Sandwich, and Rev. C. J. Phelan, Lindsay, August 5, 1898.

CONDOLENCE.

Among the resolutions of condolence forwarded to the Very Rev. Administrator of Toronto in reference to the Archbishop's death, that of the Irish National party cabled from London is particularly touching, on account of the interest always displayed by His Grace in the cause of Ireland. It is as follows:

"On behalf of the Irish National party, we send an expression of deep, heartfelt sorrow for the death of Archbishop Walsh. His death is an irreparable loss to the Irish cause and party of which he was so loyal and generous a friend.

Before this steady and rapid growth of knowledge, faith and God were receding. It was indeed a marvel to us to know that in the advancement of the Church and ner knowledge, God ruled all and our faith in Him was paramount. The old French provero, "Perfection is the death of good;" Ruskin's comment on the fact that the world had just learned to talk and speak; and the mechanical illustrations of Railways of electricity; Desraell's remark to "Rubyour back up against the walls of the University", was better than not to do so—and the Bishop added, "Rubyour onse up against the book shelves of the Library", ever all aptly quoted by the Right Rev. Bishop, and he retired amid rousing applause.

THE WAR.

We announced last week that Spain had received an answer from President McKinley regarding the terms on which beace between the two powers can be arranged. The proposition was not laid before the Queen Regential Saturday, when it was resoived to accept the conditions offered, and the answer to this effect is being prepared. It may arrive in Washington at any moment. It is expected that Spain will declare that the war was forced in accepting the conditions imposed. Some modifications will be alse asked by Spain in regard to the Cuban debt. It is doubtful whether or not trees will be conceded by the United States, but it is taken for granted that peace will be signed in a few days.

The condition of the Philippine Islands will be decided later on by a commission of Spaniards and Americans, which will meet at Paris to arrange these and other details.

It is feared in Madrid, that the announcement that peace has been concluded will be followed by a Carlist insurrection. It has been positively stated that a Carlist leader has declared that the Carlist will rise if Spain loses her colonies, and it is said also that they have now pienty of money, which was not the case a short time ago. This story may be taken with salt, as it is connected with the apparently ridiculous assertion that the money has been given "by rich priests of the Philippines who live a life of inxury and license, and have at their back a capital of forty million dollars, which they are using to promote the Carlists are showing great activity, and one report has it that an English firm has received an order for twenty thousand rifles, and two million rounds of cartridges to be delivered in Switzerland.

This story may also be received with reserve, as the firm having such an order would scarce ly hus speak of it openly, to put the Swiss Government to mote it at once to a healthy northern point in the United States to save it from disaster's army has been so badly smitten by yellow fever that he has called upon the Government to move it at come.

THE WAR.

From the Calendar of St. Patrick's church, Ottawa, we learn that the results of the Entrance examination so fur as St. Patrick schools are concerned are as a whole highly creditable. more tian 39 per cent of the total number of candidates were successful. The boys, however, were not so formate as the girls. There were cloven candidates, six of whom passed. One boy who had excellent chances was forced to withdraw from the examination on account of sickness, and three of the remainder although deemed weak in some their own expressed desire, all candidates; Girls — Muriel Benoit, Kate Burns, Mary Jollins, Holen Hickson, Emma Kelly, Bertha Gennedy, Margaret Mshoney, Blanche Maily, Anna Pumple, Lulu Rowan, Kate Maily, Anna Pumple, Lulu Rowan, Kate David Halpin, Matthew Brennan, Jarris, John Tobin, Hector Benoit, Boys — David Halpin, Matthew Brennan, Philip Harris, John Tobin, Hector Benoît, Thomas Higgerty.

Still more gratifying are the results of the Public School Leaving Examination which was this year unusually difficult. Fourteen girls from the Separate schools wrote and thirteen passed. St. Patrick's parish may well be proud of its girls, not one of whom failed. Their names are: Ella Binks, Catherine Brennan, Rachol Dewar, Lena Gilnooly, Agnes Mahoney and Anna Sims.

WEDDING BELLS. POWER-HARCOURT.

POWER-HARCOURT.

A very presty event took piace at St. John's church, Arthur, at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning. July 27, when one of our fairest young ladies, Miss Nellie Harcourt, daughter of Mr. Thos. Harcourt, of Peel Township, was united in marriage to Mr. John F. Power, science master in the High School, at Simoce, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father O'Leary. The bride, attired in a pretty gown of silk organdie, over mauve, entered the church on the arm of her father, and was assisted by her sister. Miss Luzzie Harcourt, while the groom was assisted by Mr. James Power of Gueiph. After the ceremony, the bridal party drove to the residence of Mr. T. Harcourt, where a number of friends had assembled. Congratulations were then extended to Mr. and Mrs. Power, and the wedding breakfast was served, after which the young couple took the early train for their honeymoon trip to Sault Ste Marie and Chicago, by way of the Lukes, carrying with them the best wishes of their numerous friends.

A SISTER'S HELP

Brought Renewed Health to a Despondent Brother.

HEALTH HAD FAILED AND MEDICINES SEEMED TO DO HIM NO GOOD — WHERE OTHERS HAD FAILED, DR. WILLIAMS' PINE PILLS MET WITH GREAT SUCCESS.

Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.

Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.:

Gentlemen—A few years ago my system became thoroughly run down. My blood was in a frightful condition; medical treatment did no good. I surfeired myself with advertised medicines, but with equally poor results. I was finally incapacitated from work, became thoroughly despondent, and gave up hope of living much longer. While in this condition I visited my father's home near Tara. A sister, then and now living in Toronto, was also visiting at the parental home. Her husband had been made healthy through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and she urged me to try them. Tired of trying medicines, I laughed at the proposition. However, later on she provided me with some of the pills and begged me to take them. I did so, and before I had used two boxes I was on the road to restored health. I am commending their good qualities almost every day I live because I feel so grateful for my restoration, and I have concluded to write you this letter whelly in the interest of suffering humanity. I am carrying on business in Owen Sound as a carriage maker. This town has been my home for twenty-eight years and any one enclosing a reply 3 cent stamp can receive a personal indorsation of the foregoing. This much to satisfy those who cannot be blamed for doubting after taking so many other preparations without being benefitted. You may do just as you like with this letter. I am satisfied that but for Dr. Williams Pink Pills I would not be able to attend to my business to day. Perhaps I would not have been alive.

Yours very sincerely,
