HUMOROUS.

A young wo nan in Chicago who had lost her speech by a severe cold, had twenty offers of marriage in one week. "Give the devil his due," said a flghty orator. Then up rose a backwoodsman, and said, "He will take his due; don't you be afeard."

"I told her I'd never smoke another cigar," re said softly, "and I won't. A pipe's plenty good enough for me." And he gracefully drew a match over the leg of

A man, passing through a gateway in the dark, ran against a post. "I wish that post was in the lower regions!" was his angry remark. "Better wish it somewhere else," said a by-stander. "You might run against it again, you know."

A Scotch minister in one of his pare chial visits met a cow-boy, and asked what o'clock it was. "About twelve, sir," was the reply. "Well," remarked the minister, "I thought it was more." "It is never any more here," said the boy, "it just begins at one again."

A young lady graduate in a neighbor-ing college read an essay entitled "Em-ployment of Time." Her composition was based on the text, "Time wasted is existence; used, is life." The next day she purchased eight ounces of zephyr of different shades and commenced working a sky blue dog with sea a sky-blue dog with sea-green ears and a pink tail on a piece of yellow canvas. She expects to have it done by next Christmas. -Norristown Herald.

The Count de V., in the mildest tone, to his servant: "Joseph, you have been drinking my rum again, and you have drinking my rum again, and you have put water in it to make up the deficiency."

"I admit it, sir; but I swear I will drink no more of it." The Count de V., slightly elevated his shoulders: "You always exaggerate! I didn't ask you not to drink it; I only ask you not to put water in what's left. For really it isn't fair that you should drink rum pure and that I should drink rum and water."

A five year old son of a family the other day stood watching his baby brother, who was making a great noise over having his face washed. The little fellow at length lost his patience, and stamping his tiny foot said: "You think you have lots of trouble, but you don't know anything about it. Wait till you're big enough to get a lickin' and then you'll see—won't he, mamma?"

Last year a man patented a fan which, fastened to the back of a rocking-chair, was made to work by the motion of the chair. This year some one has patented a fan whose motive power is the sewing-machine; and next year we see no reason why a combined fan and fly-brush shall not be invented to be attached to board. why a combined fan and ny-brush shall not be invented, to be attached to boarding-house tables, and operated by the innate strength of the butter.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"And you will give me some sugar be-es," he asked.

He waited until she began pouring from the bottle, and then asked, "And you will give me ten cents, too?"

"Yes, of course."
"And you'll buy me a shoo-fly kite," he went on seeing his advantage.

"No kite, no ile," said he, as he stepped "Well, I'll buy you a kite," she replied, filling the spoon up.

"And a velocipede?"

"I'll think of it."

"You can't think no castor oil down

"And two hundred marbles?"

"Yes. Now take it down."

"And a coach-doog?"

"I can't promise that."

"All right; no dog, no ile."

"Well I'll ask your father."

"And you'll buy me a pony?"

"Oh! I couldn't do that. Now be a good boy and swallow it down."

"O yes! I'll swallow that stuff, I will," he said, as he clapped on his hat. "You may fool some other boy with a circus ticket or a lump of brown sugar, but it'll ticket or a lump of brown sugar, but it'll take a hundred dollar pony to trot that easter oil down my throat."

a concert a gentleman exclaimed: "What a nuisance?" as a young fop in front of him kept talking in a loud voice to a lady by his side. "Did you refer to me, sir?" threateningly demanded the youth ful swell. "Oh, no; I meant the musicians there, who keep up such a noise with their instruments that I can't hear your convergation," was the secretic and your conversation," was the sarcastic and prompt reply.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives — Stillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock — with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure.

Its ingredients are so skilfully combined, that the full alterative effect of each is assured, and while it is so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the confidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it, prove their experience of its usefulness.

Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sar-saparilla over every other alterative medicine.
