

THE Canadian Courier
THE NATIONAL WEEKLY

Vol. 8

Toronto, October 1, 1910

No. 18

QUEEN'S OWN RIFLES IN LONDON

Not since the Troops came home from the South African War, has there been such cheering in London Streets, as when the Queen's Own Rifles marched twelve miles through the Metropolis of the Empire. Our photograph shows the Canadian Regiment passing along Holborn Viaduct.