years than one. The General Conference Weslevan Office and Book Room 125 GRANVILLE ST., HALIFAX. Provincial Wesleyan $2 00

Excellent Meduim for Advertising

ALL THE LATEST PUBLICATIONS and tial and legal termination,-the General all kinds of Methodist Books, constantly on sale

Provincial Weslevan.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY, 16, 1874. THE QUESTIONS ON UNION.

nate its sessions. We reprint to-day the President's letter. Considering all that is involved in the subject upon which our Quarterly Meetings are the action of our laity at this juncture. and space in the Abstainer ! We rejoice that the matter is in their hands for two reasons : Because it will forever ing over the pages of our anti-evil-babit con- Church, held in Brooklyn, could fail to be prevent any prejudice that our Conference temporary last week. But, we conclude now impressed with the high character of their is imperious-disposed to carry things with the article must have slidden in by stealth, a high hand. True, our annual gathering as liquor advertisements sometimes steal into gave evidence that remarkable harmony religious newspapers, or comical typographical obtains among the ministers in regard to blunders into fashionable magazines. Smokthe subject of Union-not a single vote ing is a habit, a useless habit, an evil habit. having been cast against it. But while We say this with perfect authority, because this fact ought to, and doubtless will, have we have the experience of many years to no little weight on the minds of our lay reflect upon. And tobacco intoxicates. The knowing that the fate of Union, so far as reaction. It affects the brain, exciting, beour Conference is concerned, rests with numbing, stupifying by turns; and we hold them without any limitations. Then, we that if it be wrong to affect the brain by mature deliberation in Committee, Confer- the breath, impairs digestion, wastes money.

ence and Quarterly meetings. In giving our opinion upon the Unio vote for which many minds are now qualifying themselves, any further than by turnishing information which is essential to an intelligent decision. Our personal views bearing on the necessity for a consolidated Methodism throughout the British Provinces have been before the readers of this paper from the commencement of the movement. We have formed these from observation and inference. Balancing the exclusively of ladies.

merits and demerits of similar connections recorded in history or occuring in modern times; arguing from what has been accom-

A CIRCUIT PLAN comes to us from Eng land. It is that of the Aylesbury Circuit plished by concentration of strength elsewhere to what ought reasonably to be hoped having fourteen preaching places and forty for by a union of our Methodistic forces, one preachers. At the head of these is we long ago concluded that our churches our old and beloved friend, Rev G. Butcher. Resolved, -" That the propos throughout the Dominion should be under Truly he has work on his hands at length one government, representative, respons- By this plan we see that Rev. J. Simpson ible and potent. That opinion has been -we presume our Brother of Block House confirmed by all we have witnessed during Mines—preached a missionary anniversary bounds, to afford them an opportunity of give the past twelve months. Men of mature sermon at Aylesbury on the 9th November ltivated minds, wide-reaching last. proval of the British Conference." observation, have spoken in conformation or approval of the main question acceeded given, and the time for holding the March METHODIST UNION. Quarterly Meetings being now at hand, it is to by the several courts before which the deemed proper thus to remind the Superintenunion scheme has been discussed up to the No. 8. The question of union has already an al dents of the several Circuits of the duty which present moment. most historic interest. Seventeen years has been devolved upon them. Will the Conference of E. B. America ago in the first St. John Conference, before It is their part to submit the scheme gain or lose by a union with the Methodist even confederation had been thought of, the Church of Canada? That is the form the subject was introduced by the Rev. Wm question assumes naturally amongst us at present; and it is one upon which each per-sented in a business like manner, and advocontained in the printed Minutes of Confer ence; and as the subject is one of great imson called to vote ought to have every opportunity of obtaining information. Our ference was not then prepared for any series bers of the Quarterly Meeting on this occaministers should be prepared to answer all ous discussion upon the subject. No doubt questions bearing on finance, discipline, to grave and solid members of that ecclesiastical assembly, which, to some of us attending such a meeting for the first time, bability of union with the New Connexion seemed so venerable and impressive, the of Canada must also be taken into account, proposal was looked upon as somewhat Utofor there can, apparently, be but one issue pian-a vision of the far distant future. ion on two points : in their case. Instead of a union between There were vested interests, funds aewly 1st. Is this scheme of union. as a whole a large body and a small one, we are to formed, and financial arrangements which worthy of our acceptance ?

with our strength.

peed not do very much work; it would re-quire, however, to give effect to the work quire and consolidation of the scattered and information. Yours, &c. done by the other Conferences in regard to divided forces of Methodism throughout the the new order of things. Every thing said Dominion? There may be some disadvanand done thus far in connection with Union. tages, and for a time there will be friction more or less; no plan is perfect; but the inauguration of the union scheme must con has been looking to one point as its essen-separate missions and the assumption of all discussed, should be able to explain them.

tribute greatly in the future to the prosper Conference. At all events we would not ity and progress of the work of God advise any authorities to take the responsiis the incorporation of Lav-Represent bility of deferring the meeting of the Gene- tion in the General Conference desirable? ral Conference. The "tinkering at the is the second question to be submitted to the judgment and decision of the official new constitution" it seems has begun al-members of our church. There surely can ready, and our voice is certainly in favour be no hesitation in regard to the answer in of leaving to General Conference that right which it alone can now exercise of saying when and where it shall begin and termi-Conference through the action of Commit-

At Lot 16 an effort is being made to erect tees. In British Methodism this influence church. One friend has given a lot of is very strong and decided ; and yet we canland and $100. And an additional $100 has SMOKING .- The Abstainer rather approves not look upon or listen to those noble laymen heen collected. The Brother is happy in now asked to give a decision, its importance of it. " If a man likes smoking, let him have who take a prominent part in committee the work, and encouraged by tokens of the cannot well be over-estimated. For all all he wants of it in every room in the house." work without feeling that their presence on divine presence. The field is wide and future time our history is to be affected by to says " Kate Crotchet," and her crotchets he floors of the Conference would be an much work to be done. acquisition to the supreme Council of the MANCHESTER .- Rev. T. D. Hart. in his Church. No one attending the last Gen-At least that was our impression on glanc-Quarterly Reports, furnished some interesteral Conference of the Methodist Episcopa ing facts, among which we note: A Tea

Meeting held at Manchester; sum realized $132; object, the removal of debt on lay representatives. They were alike distinguished for ability, for moderation, and field, the receipts of which were $44. for lovalty to all constitutional principles. This was supplicated by sixty dollars The union scheme to be submitted to the raised through the efforts of Capt. Key. March meeting, and needing only for its With these amounts, and a small sum on consummation this vote, makes provision hand, they hope to finish the Bayfield for an equal representation of ministers Church, and open it with free sittings and and laymen in the General Conference. It will be an advanced step in our history, and one that we shall rejoice to not weary in well-doing, realized about the Methodist Churches of this city, would brethren, they have the satisfaction of sensation is first exhilirant, followed by a have taken, when every minister at the Con-

P. S -To attempt correction of typeare grateful that the decision is to be drinking liquor from a goblet, it is equally so graphical errors is not pleasant; and where, are grateful that the decision is to be drinking liquor from a goblet, it is equally so as in the Wesleyan, a high average ex-reached, not hurriedly or within the precincts of a single court, but by the judge- through a tube. Both habits are injurious. it is superflous. In the ninth line of my ment of every man within our church bonds The one imbrutes, maddens, impoverishes; last communication, out working instead of capable of giving a vote, and after the most the other exhausts the constitution, poisons out looking would have conveyed the sense. But the only correction desired is when the error would mislead. It was not my in-There are a thousand excuses accepted for tention to say, at the close of the article.

smoking where none will be admitted for that the union and consolidation of Method-Scheme, we have no desire to influence a drinking. But any one surrounded as we ist bodies for the sake of a denominational are every day by boys who smoke and chew. influence and power, that would compel the respectful attention of Legislature, when and grow pale by the process, piepa ing themuestions of vital interest were under conselves for more active stimulants and a prederation, was the only aspect of Methodist mature grave, may be pardoned for writing union to be kept before us. The statemen on this subject with just a spark of indignaintended was, that this is only one aspect, rarely alluded to in conference disc ion because of the manner in which this habit but of great importance. is petted and fondled throughout Society. N. B. As we wish a true verdict upor the above, we beg that the jury be composed Correspondence.

> To the Ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Chu DEAR BRETHREN, -At our last Conferen

Wasunion between the Conference of E. B. Ameri-ca and the Canada Conterence shall be submitted to the ensuing March Quarterly Meetings of the respective Circuits within the Conference

SCHEME OF UNION.

1. L.

ing an expression of their judgment upon the heme, in the event of its receiving the apSUPERINTENDENT.

OUR HOME MISSION.

to your readers, I beg to submit a few more decision. It will be seen from a perusal of items, gathered from letters lately received this address, that the great Liberal Leader through the promptness and courtsey of the is prepared to advance in the direction of the President :-- occupied by Bro. C. Nicklin. There are our preaching places, two of which have appeal to the country.

opened since the arrival of Bro. N. Probably two more will be taken up soon. daughter of the Emperor of Russia. wedding took place at St. Petersburg, in the rites of the Greek Church and immediately after the Dean of Westminster married then in accordance with the usages of the Church of England. There was a considerable display of honors paid to the event in the larger towns of England, and principally at the great Naval Stations. The more imposing Parsonage; also a Tea Meeting at Bay arrival of the Bridal party, an event expected in about four or five weeks. Jan. 26 1874

(For the Provincial Weslevan.)

MR. EDITOR :- As the WESLEYAN reachfree of debt. The ladies of Manchester, es a large number of families belonging to on a grand scale. Here is an account of have taken, when every minister at the Con-ference shall find a lay brother at his side. J. L. J. L. other improvements, have added to the to the question of Education in the public comfort of their minister. A better sys- schools of Halifax, to the meeting to be tem of working the finances has been held in Temperance Hall on Friday, Feb.

adopted with encouraging success. The 20th. loss of our church at Port Mulgrave by the The intention of those who have moved August gale is seriously felt. The congre- in this matter is to secure such Legislative gation now worship in the public school change as would, by means of Trustees house. The following incident shows the chosen by the citizens, on account of fitness desire felt by some to hear the word for that special work, place the public preached : "After one of our services, a schools of the city under direct supervision man came forward to enquire when I next and control, and would, it is believed, con-preached at Bayfield. He had come with tribute greatly to their efficiency. his daughter twelve miles to hear preaching It is only proposed by this action that day, and expected to travel fifteen to place the public schools of Halifax on attend the House of God on next Sablevel with the rest of the Province.

It will be unnecessary on a subje SHEET HARBOR.-Bro. Shepherdson gives such great importance to bespeak a large a report of his labors in tabular form. It attendance at the meeting. It is not in all our young Missionaries in reporting the There will be no religious questions to deterwork done. This Mission extends on the mine. The meeting will be purely for JOHN LATHERN.

CHARLOTTETOWN.

MR. EDITOR.-The work of God in con nection with the Prince Street Church in think the above record is a sufficient evi- was then intimated it was likely to do. tentive worshipers, while others have had draw seats. to return to their homes for the want of suitable accommodation within its walls: and in each of the services newly awakened persons have presented themselves at the

The morning papers of Saturday took the by Mrs. Trewin ; and on the evening I THE Northwestern has a couple of pointnation by surprise, announcing an immediate preached there 6 or 7 persons stood up to issolution of the Imperial Parliament. Mr. request the prayers of the congregation. ed paragraphs about Reviva's Metholists have often been criticised for heir revival system, and very many have funched at the unintelligent comments of these who caught not the scirit of the system. Papists, too, have sneared at us, but Papista are wise and are ready to rename and then doot all useful hints. They hold " missions which as far as applied, and with nec ssary adaptations to their theology, do good work for them. It may be well therefore just now to remind our friends who are now engaged in successful revival efforts in various parts of the country that the Roman Cath Church has begun to copy them in order to BEAR RIVER .- My Dear Bro.-Our propagate Romanistic converts with greater rapidity. We all remember the Romanist friends at Bear River have just been shew. ing their love and attachment to their revival which took place last summer at Par-Minister and his family. First, the young ay-le-Monial in France where thousands of people of the village got up a Surprise devout Catholics renewed their vows, and Party, and after spending a very pleasant | where many converts were made to the church evening at the Parsonage, presented Mrs. Somewhat similar revivals are in progress at and Miss Barratt with some $22 cash; various points in this country. For instance, then, a few evenings afterwards, the mem- a Chicago Roman Catholic organ noted last bers of our Church and cougregation (i. e., week that Rev. Father Damen of the Jesuit the greater part) paid a visit to the Par- church of the Holy Family in this city had sonage had a joyous time, and presented organized a "mission their Minister with about $74 in cash and church which continued some two weeks. goods, and Mrs. Barratt with $10 cash, three sermons being preached daily, all athus making the total sum of $106.

C. H. PAISLEY.

Circuit Intelligence.

ended by immense throngs. The Roman atho ic paper states that at the conclusion of he special services forty-five hundred people ' approached '' the bo y communion ; ten con erts were made, etc., Father Damen, with several helpers, purposes to institute these revival " miss ons " in several cities of the East Thus it will be seen that the most sagacious enemies of Protestantism have commenced to use the very means which have been so suc-

Our Canadian brethren build churches cessful in spreading the cause of true Christi anity throughout the world. one which almost rivals the Metropolitan :

The new Wesleyan Church at Stratford CIVILIZATION and Christianity have not is a neat building in Gothic style, the mavet completed their work. A belief in terial being white brick. The main body witcheraft survives and works its mischief. ot the church is 50 feet wide by 90 feet long, with an addition in the rear for ves- even on our own continent. This story is ries and orchestra of 15 feet deep by 40 really pitiable :-

Yours very truly, G. M. BARRATT.

Miscellaneous.

OUR EXCHANGES.

feet wide. There are four aisles in the An old Indian woman was, according to church, giving three tiers of pews, which the New York Herald, stoned to death in are furnished with bronzed metallic ends, Pine Nut Valuey, Nevada, for witchcraft. exactly similar to those in the Metropolitan Her name was Az sup-pee-ah-wy-pah, and at Toronto, with draw seats for the aisles she was accused of causing the death of complete, these give increased accommo- many of her relations by her dark arts. dation to the extent of 130 sittings. There No one could dream of her without being s an end gallery capable of seating 150 [afflicted by either sickness or death. Her persons. In the rear of the minister's ves- son-in-law died from the effects of such a try are two class rooms and the stairway dream five years ago, and but for the enading to the singers' gallery. The base- treaties of a few of her personal friends, ment is of thick stone walls and extends she would then have been hurled from the the entire length of the whole structure. top of a lofty cliff. A year ago a young The principal room is 50 by 80 feet, and is niece of a distinguished warrior of ased as a lecture and sabbath school room. tribe died from the effects of her witcheraft, It is pewed with reversible seats capable of and she would have been then and there accommodating 350 persons, and has plat- despatched by the warriors of distinction form, desks and book cases. The remain but that she sought safety in flight. Anoder of the basement under the main build- ther Indian died at Pyramid Lake from her ing is laid off in two large rooms, used for fatal influence, and an attempt was made bible and infant classes, and separated from to capture and kill her, but she soon eluded the main room by sliding doors. That part the pursuit of the enraged warriors with of the basement under the vestries contains singular activity. The matter was then tatwo rooms and the stairway. One of these ken up in the grand council in Pine Nut rooms is furnished with cooking stove, Valley, and the result was the appointment this city, about which I wrote you a few dishes and all the conveniences for tea of a large detail to stone her to death lines last week, is still progressing, as it meetings, and the others answer an excel- which was soon done by the unfortunate lent purpose for storing fuel. The church woman being placed in the centre of a ring Every night since the date of the note is warmed by means of three hot air fur- formed by the detail armed with stones. to, our large School Room has naces in the basement. It is estimated to At first her husband felt somewhat annoy been filled to its utmost capacity with at- seat 800 persons without the use of the ed, and threatened to " clean out the whole tribe," but on the circumstance being more fully explained to him, he became convin-Here is a little compensation for that ced of the necessity of the step, and joined which causes no little sorrow to Christians, with the other relations of the deceased in expressing satisfaction with the deed

All the world has read of Mr. Tupper's cuit (

Home Old M

cord

mon jo O th

harvest but the scends

joy wh of the looks 1 pany o claims gotten Ever receive

interes

" who

every f

from t ther w

cried a danger

having

now st

come l

ber did know r

is pass

-happy t you la calcula the We

and the book t

sons, w ings fo

profess sin thre

As

meetin

peniter

associa

Men o

suppose of their

bench

Crowd

in our space I

meetin

prayer

awake

Ch'to

PR

Brunswi

Kaye St

Charles

Beech & Grafton

Dartmo

Mount I

THE

thing u SUMP1

many p only per cold in satisfy t a stamp & CO.,

naming

It Co

skill in Policy '

did in tor the idan's (of the would h

Oth

will tu

strai cho: He and that

tion he Club write

the

the

Sir (

and

politi leadi

seem fessio

('orm whie

serva

was

know

whiel

tribut

every " Lor " Litt Besid

politi views

date f

the c althou

candio

toac

above

been who h

was, c

the po turns

remar ouly co by a te

nomin

the gre

quired

before

the pe

engra

onto.

York.

MR

that p

яге ен

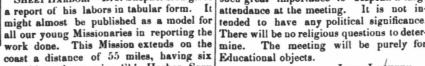

rectue

our hasten

Reape

disrupt preaching places, viz : Ship Harbor, Spry Bay, Tangier, Sheet Harbor, Salmon River and Moses River. Over this ground the preacher travels every three weeks. From November 17 to December 14 he preached nineteen sermons, held six Bible Classes, gave oue lecture, made seventy-seven pas toral visits. Our dear young Brother says : 'I am determined to do my best," and dence that he is in labors abundant. The prospect is good on this new Mission. Yours, &c., S. F. HUESTIS.

OUR ENGLISH LETTER.

Gladstone makes known this decision in a Mr. Trewin visits the Quebec side, and letter to his old constituency of Greenwich, ministers with unflagging zeal to the setseeking for re-election He declares his con- tlers scattered along the coast. Had it not fidence in the wisdom and success of the been for our Home Mission Fund this Cirgreat and important measuress which the cuit would have been still unoccupied by iberal Government have carried, and hopes us, and some of our most attached mem-MR. EDITOR, - As intelligence from that the County when appealed to, will sus- bers and adherents left uncared for. Home Missions appears to give satisfaction tain them in the measures which yet await Bathurst, Feb. 3, 1874.

isement of the agricultural labourer by assimilating the county franchise to that FIFTEEN POINT, P. E. I.-This Mission of the Boroughs and also the abolition of the income Taxes ; two capital points on which to

The Queen's second son the Duke of Elin burgh was married on last Friday to the The midst of great rejoicing and with immense display and pomp. The ceremony appears first to have been performed according to the

emonstrations are held in reserve until the transfers, missions, &c. And the fullest proa large body and a small one, we are to might be seriously affected. The matter contemplate the union of three bodies—the was shelved at once. The time clearly had two smaller ones being of considerable pro- not yet come for the inauguration of a union portions as compared with that which is scheme. But to some minds, not yet acprincipal in numbers and strength. Though this latter consideration is not associated with our subject of Union direct, yet it will From the beginning there has been a connot readily be forgotten in preparing for a genial element in the Conference and it decision.

financial aspects of the Union Scheme.

OUR FIRST GENERAL CONFERENCE.-The Germany, the new Dominion of Canada have Guardian furnishes an editorial on this subbeen amongst the distinguishing features of ject, which we publish in another place. Siminational change. Union in the Church has lar opinions with those therein expressed had received a strong impetus from the movements of Presbyterian Bodies in different been uttered by some of our own more thoughtful Ministers some time ago. There is some parts of the world. The subject has been mooted in various branches of British Me-thodism and some preliminaries discussed force in the objections made to an early session of the General Conference : but there are After some abortive attempts, and the failarguments which may well be advanced ure of more than one special deputation, a against the delay suggested by the Guardian In our judgement a General Conference is absolutely necessary in order to give formal etfeet to the Union. There are not, nor can there be, any authorities, officials, committees, xecutive, until the General Conference shall pronounce upon their appointment. The machinery must first be set in motion, or what becomes of Missions, Publishing concerns, to great constitutional changes, with the ut-Colleges &c. &c. They cannot remain un- most cordiality concurred in the arrangeder the direction of the existing Conferences, ment. as these will have been dissolved; nor can seeing that there is no actual appointing ready been done in the two Western Conpower until General Conference shall meet.

election of clerical delegates immediately after rence of our own official members is needed our ensuing Conference. Representatives ment. suitable for such trusts are always on the surface. and a delay of twelve months would scheme as a whole. Is it admissable? The make little difference in regard to the mate- practical bearing of the question would rehaving a year's experience before meeting ought we to adopt a scheme, which by pro for legislation :- what great advantage is vision for several annual Conferences and a of bodies so similar to our own in many simplifies our organziation, and is capable respects, that most of our difficulties may be anticipated Indeed up of adaptation to an expansive and widely ex-tended growth? Ought we to attempt cenbe anticipated. Indeed, our new constitu-tralization, and by that means secure more tion is to be based principally upon historic vigorous action, in education, in the diffuevidence, and any new phases of ecclesias- sion of literature aud in the prosecution of tical condition for which the constitution

2nd. Is the incorporation of Lay Representation in the General Conference desirable or Eot ?

genial element in the Conference and it to the President of the Conference who, with has been constantly gaining force. It has as little delay as possible, will make knows and formidable facts pleaded earnestly for Next week we will glance briefly at the grown with our growth and strengthened the result through the columns of the PRO this moderate instalment of justice to the VINCIAL WESLEYAN During the years between the spirit of Praying that in all our deliberations the the age has been moving in the direction of Union. Italian unity, the consolidation of

I am, Dear Brethren Yours very truly, CHARLES STEWART. Sackville, N.B., Jan. 24, 1874. LIGHT NEEDED IN REGARD TO

UNION SCHEME.

MR. EDITOR,—It has occurred to me that a few points in the scheme of union, ter themselves in the National Church. upon which our Quarterly meetings are There was a fair sprinkling of Church genscheme of union, drafted by the Montreal Committee, under the wise and skilf al presidency of Dr. Punshon, has, with some mportant modification, passed the Conferoon to pronounce, ought to have some light try and Clergy from the surrounding counence of Canada, the New Connexion Conference, and our own Conference of Eastern uminaries of our Conference. British America. After a thorough exam-1st. What number of Representatives us.

ination of a movement likely to form a new will each Quarterly meeting be allowed to formed of our Nonconformist adherents, era in Colonial Methodism, the British Conference, cautious and conservative in regard

According to the intimation of the Presi they be controlled by executive Committees, dent, the scheme is to be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings. This has aldent, the scheme is to be submitted to the ferences, and the majority in favor has been There can be no confusion caused by the overwhelmingly large. Only the concur to the consummation of this great move The vote is first to be taken upon th

The approval so contemplated having been Public Meetings-Woman's Suffrage, and Anti-Rit. appointed forms, requesting the prayers of of them saying that it ought to have been Church property to unhallowed uses. Says ualistic—The Dissolution of Parliament—Mar-riage of the Duke of Edinburgh. gious liberty and peace which an intelli- the N. W. Advocate : done long ago.

DEAR MR. EDITOR,-We have had dur- gent faith in the "blood of the Cross" is The mills of the gods grind slowly, but ing the past week, two rather exciting Meetings held in this Town, and as they may be regarded as average specimens of the maximum speciment of the truly penitent. they grind exceeding small. Wesleyans preach the Gospel in Rome, The Northwestern is printed on the site of the old the many being held in all parts of the within the space of one hour and twenty

It is their part to submit the some as it is country, a brief description of this may not minutes, of the might of Jesus to save. now a Methodist Church occupies the exact wiser than when it commenced. It may was agreed upon at Fredericton, and as it is country, a brief description of this may not These with for excentions, was agreed able of the old hall of the Monterman at the many description of the might of Jesus to save. These, with few exceptions, were among site of the old hall of the Montezumas in tion of duty, affection, patience; but to mobe uninteresting. The first was held under the auspices of an Association which is busily at work, to made to secure a full attendance of the mem-bars of the Outstanding on this core. The province of the mem-hors of the Outstanding on this core. The province of the mem-bars of the Outstanding on this core. And on Sunday morn-Methodism in the new world. On the province of the most function of the outstanding of t A Bill in accordance with the views of this ing, in the Sacramental Service, there was 25th day of December, 1873, there was His name has always excited a satirical The plan is to be submitted for the consid-eration of the Lay representatives of our Church, and for the expression of their opin-eration of the expression of their opin-church and should be the solution of the expression of their opin-the submitted for the consid-into the House of Commons by Mr. Jacob Bright and although it has received as many at 200 votes it has not yet passed, but meets the solution of the tokens of the tokens of the broken body and shed blood. A bin in accordance with the views of this as a ways excited a saturcal Association has been repeatedly introduced a large number present who for the first dedicated in the city of Mexico a house of smile; and the danger is lest the satire be

" that all might eatch the flame, All partake the glorious bliss."

DALHOUSIE CIRCUIT.

Yours, &c .

F. SMALLWOOD.

I am, with considerable opposition of a very for-midable character. The meeting held a few evenings ago was largely attended, the with the fifty before reported will greatly chief attraction being the addresses of two angment the number of the Saviour's folof the Montezumas. ladies from London. Whatever may have lowers in this locality. But as yet there is

been the previous feelings of the audience, no appearance of the blessed influence subit was evident that the speeches of the fair siding, for it has already reached, and made Delegates carried every thing in their favor, its impression on, scores of all grades and On each of these questions a vote of the and made the meeting a success. They classes, who night after night are seeking

Meeting sh uld be taken, and as soon after as spoke with great calmness and self-compothe liberty of the children of Godpracticable the decision ought to be forwarded sure, in well selected and forcible terms, to the President of the Conference who, with fairly grappling with the alleged difficulties

Charlottetown, Feb. 4, 1874. women-folk of England. This was my first opportunity of listening to ladies Head of the Church may manifestly guide real culture and ability, while speaking upon the great political problems of the day, and the impressions made upon me was on the whole decidedly favorable, and tended to the demolition of some of my housie Circuit will not be uninteresting to silly people will catch at that bait. standing views and impressions in relation the readers of the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN. We find the foregoing in the Western to such advocacy of public questions. The On Friday, Jan. 23rd, I left Bathurst with Ohristian Advocate, and reproduce it with result of the meeting was the adoption of a sleety rain driving in my face, and drove our broadest endorsement. That the Chrisa Petition to Parliament, and Memorials to the Members of the Town. The second meeting was Anti-Ritualstic, inished the remaining 40 miles to Campand intended to expose and denounce the the congregation on each occasion being thrown upon them by the official or other try, but our dignified Archdeacon, his Cler- in marked contrast, as to numbers, with taken decided exceptions. But it is going gy and Curates, were all conspicuous by that to which I preached in the same a little too far for the Union's people to set elect to the annual District meeting? So who turned out in strength, and listened miles distant, but a furious storm, with the good qualities as a newspaper need not be far as Sub. Sec. 2 of section 5 of the scheme, with much apparent interest to the thorough thermometer at 26 ° below zero, made it repeated, but as a religious paper it is enas printed in the Minutes of Conference is exposure and unmitigated castigation dealt impossible for me to travel; but on Tuesday tirely out of harmony with the religious concerned, each may send two or ten. Is out by the Lecturer, a Clergyman of some evening I reached Armstrong's Brook, views and experiences of "the people called his part of the scheme to be interpreted in eminence, upon the heads of those whom where I preached to a good congregation, Methodists." The three ruling minds of the light of the 8th. Preliminary agree- they cannot silence, who will not be shamed and returned to Bathurst next day. The the concern are Mr. Beecher, whom every ment between the Canada and the New into quietness and retirement, and who de-Connection Conferences? which reads as fy all threats of expulsion. There was a visit, over a year since, was very gratify-fessed free-religionist and supporter of Mr.

number of laymen (to be appointed as may be determined), such laymen to have the right of taking part in all proceedings except in the ex-amination of ministerial character." when properly understood, minister to the Church, which is now beginning to look could scarcely anywhere else find less trustsuch extravagant claims for the National they propose to expend a further amount rial of which General Conference would be composed. Then as to the importance of rial character excepted), what will he or an opportunity for reply or questioning, and midst. All this is, in great part, due to fane public. The dose of that sort of thing they go there to do? Is it intended that the final move was to memoralize Her Ma. the faithful exertions of Rev. W. Trewin, administered in the shape of "Cart-THE Montreal Witness gives a fine photothey go there to do? Is it intended that the main move was to meanmand some re who was sent last summer by the Chair- wright's Biography," some years ago, graph of Mr. Jenkins, and adds this record to be gained by this? We have the history quadrennial General Conference, greatly the place in the annual District meeting pressive measure to Parliament. Of course man to labour on this neglected Circuit, ought to suffice for a generation. In the of his life : -now occupied by the Circuit Stewards, or we all voted for this preeminently safe re- and who has heartily co-operated with the name of Methodism we decline "all right, MR. EDWARD JENKINS, M. P.-Mr. will these, not necessarily Circuit Stewards, or solution, and also joined in the ringing y. M. C. Association and other workers in title, and interest " in "The Circuit Rider," Edward Jenkins is a son of Rev. Dr. perform the work formerly done by the cheers which were called for in Her Maperform the work formerly done by the cheers which were called for in the rate in the Lord's Vineyard. In Dalhousie the now appearing serially in the Cheistian Jenkins, Minister of St. Paul's Uniren in the State of a representative or representatives to the ediction the audience retired, after being reminded that expenses had been incurred General Conference? These are points for the model of the Hell and the lighting A sion of literature and in the prosecution of General Conference r inesse are points that our laymen are likely to touch when for the use of the Hall and the lighting. A vice has been held in Bro. Windsor's house. do Methodists possessed of real self-respect cation at the High School and McGil does not provide, or which executive ar-raugement cannot meet, would be disposed of to far better effect after a lapse of four awakening in connection with services held heroic times. when his strong English proclivities con-

Proverbial Philosophy ;" and all the world, when it has done so, found itself no whisky bought Chicago opera-house, and wiser than when it commenced. It may failed to make these familiar moral platiportance, every practicable effort should be confer upon all unmarried ladies, and wi- of great joy to those who had been long We have accounts of one of the most tudes endurable. Notwithstanding, Mr. pension of £120 a-year from the Civil List.

SAYS an exchange :-- and the afternoon by Rev. Dr. Ramirez. expense: we do not grudge him historical records, on the site of the palace

THE Montreal Daily Witness reports this bold but justifiable expression by one of out THE Advocates are repudiating honor Ministers in Ottawa. Few are aware that which the Christian Union would thrust the country is taxed for keeping a bar-room upon Methodists. The protest is sufficiently in the Parliamentary building at head quarstrong :--ters. It is time Christians felt upon this The Christian Union advertises subject :--Methodist papers, ours included, that

At the Sunday afternoon Temperance Methodist people ought to subscribe for the Meeting yesterday, the Rev. Mr. Hunter said Union, because it is publishing a Methodist novel. When Methodism's said he had not observed that any of the canberioc age " grows so dim, and the didates on the hustings had been pledged to Church becomes so poor in incident that it support a prohibitory liquor law. The ques-must embellish its barren history with fic- tion, he thought, had never come up, everytion, or caricature it for the sake of exciting thing having been subordinated to mere po litical exigencies. He thought, however, that DEAR MR. EDITOR,-Perhaps a short ac- an interest, it will be time to drop her own count of a visit recently made to the Dal- papers and take other people's. None but the present Government would countenance he petition of the people He referred to the House of Commons saloon as a burning shame to the Legislature, and frusted that the new Government at the outset would cause it to be abolished - Globe

-Rev. E N. Hitchcok, pastor of the American chapel, Paris, writes to the Knan. belton. which is at present the head of the unwilling to do or say anything that might Dalhousie Circuit. On Sunday morning I seem unkind or unneighborly toward our gelist a touching eulogy of Emile F. Cook, one of the French delegates to the alliance preached in Campbelton, and in the after- friends of the Union, we have freely remeeting at New York. Mr. Cook was one of noon delivered a home missionary address, cognized their good points, and passed the saved from the wreck of the Ville dn silently over others to which we might have Havre, only to be attacked with lung fever. ending in dangerous pulmonary symptoms, their absence. The audience was mainly formed of our Nonconformist adherents, day I intended to preach in Dalhousie, 16 Methodists. That it has some decidely as the result of the fatigue and excitement incident to his exciting rescue. Mr. Hitch cock mentions the following touching incident: 'The first time I called upon my brother after his safe arrival in Paris, I saw the telegram that brought the good news to Madame Cook. 'There it is.' she said to me. pointing at the same time to a slip of paper pinned to the wall of the sitting-room, that her eyes might any instant revisit it,-- ' the

2nd. If the person or persons, elected by Church as "the pillar and ground of truth," in fitting up the interior. What was, how-in fitting up the interior. What was, how-seem to somebody that Methodists are won-wife and seven children for a visit to the the Quarterly meeting is not to be allowed that we concluded there was little to hope ever, even more gratifying was the evident derfully covetous of notoriety for their south of France, in search of restoration of which the living presence of my friendtwice brought back from the opening gates -would awaken." Mr. Cook leaves his

