The funeral of the late Most Rev. Dr. Alexander took place at Armagh in the presence of a very large number of people. The Primate and the Bishop of Clogher and Down, together with a great company of the clergy, attended officially.

The following interesting item of news is taken from the Liverpool Diocesan Gazette anent the Cathedral: "During last month a visible sign of the splendid unity which is being developed out of the vast medley of mep. materials, and machinery on St. James's Mount came into being. The first of the main roof-arches of the choir was completed, and this part of the work has been steadily proceeded with. Meanwhile there is a curious disproportion between the steady progress in the stonework of the choir and the complete standstill in regard to the great transept which is to be part of the first portion of the main Cathedral building. The fact is, it is impossible to start on the transept until the plans and drawings for the new central tower are approved in detail, as these will have to settle how the transept is to be prepared for the tower to join on to it. Accordingly the date named a year ago, 1914, for the completion of this portion will probably have now to be pushed on a year or two, as such massive masonry cannot be hurried. A strenuous effort is to be made in the autumn to provide a substantial portion of the £78,000 needed for the completion of the part of the Cathedral now in hand."
