IN THE WORLD OF LABOR

The aggregate value of all farm products in Saskatchewan during the year 1917 amounted to $361,264,518. The increase in the value of live stock in the province in 1917 over 1916 was $47,683,071, which brings the total value of farm products up to $409,047,589. This production is not surpassed by any agricultural country of the same population in the world.

The trouble that has existed between the Retail Clerks' Protective Association and the management of the big Spencer departmental store in Vancouver in regard to the discharge of members of the union has been satisfactorily settled. The firm will be good in future and no individual will be discriminated against for carrying the union card. The business agent of the Central Labor Body materially aided in adjusting the difficulty.

The annual financial report of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council for 1917 shows that the central labor body is in a prosperous position. The total receipts for the year amounted to $5,501,003, including $2,611,500 for per capita tax. The following donations were expended in strike donations. To the girls clerks of the Woolworth store, $2,567; Amalgamated Meat Cutters, $1,522,555; to Railway Storemen, $317. The total disbursements for the year were $4,769,866, leaving total cash balance in bank of $544,655.

Unless the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company decides to pay the coal cutters, loaders and shovellers in the Jubilee pit, Sidney, N.S., the rate of wages they formerly received $4.70 per day, there is a probability that all miners in the province will walk out to enforce the scale. Secretary James B. McLaughlin says that the Amalgamated Mine Workers are in earnest and are determined to have what is coming to them.

On the Canadian division of the Pere Marquette Railway the eight-hour day for trainmen has gone into effect. The new schedule dates back to January 1st, and the employes will receive back pay for the entire month. The reduction of passenger service to increase the facilities for moving freight has resulted in a number of crews having been transferred from Windsor to St. Thomas, among them many former residents of the Railway City.

As a result of the finding of the board appointed by the new Department of Labor, under the provisions of the Canadian Desputes Act last November in regard to the dispute between the C. N. R. and its maintenance of way employes on western lines in regard to a new wage schedule, the employes will now receive a substantial advance. The finding of the board was unanimous and reports in favor of an increase for foremen and skilled labor of 45 cents a day and from 35 to 40 cents for other classes of labor. Chief Justice T. G. Mathers was chairman of the board. Mr. J. T. Hays represented the company, and D. Campbell the employes. As the report was unanimous it will no doubt at once become effective.

The British Columbia Workmen's Compensation Act has now been in operation for a year, and the board of administration has just issued its first annual report. During the year 13,631 notices of injury were filed as provided for by law, and out of this number 210 proved fatal. The amount of revenue received from assessment of employers was $388,787.65. The amount paid out to beneficiaries under the act was $230,830.92. After paying cost of administration, etc., a balance of $276,939.57 was set aside towards meeting pension requirements from time to time, the major portion of which is invested in government bonds and war loan.

The Women's Labor League of Winnipeg is an exciting live institution and is doing splendid service in the cause of trades unionism among the working girls and working women of the Prairie City and incidentally among the well-to-do women as well. At a recent public meeting held, Ed. McGrath, secretary of the Manitoba Provincial Labor Bureau, who was one of the speakers, asserted that "the working girl should be extended at least as much consideration as the working horse or mule. Her remuneration should be sufficient to provide for her nourishing food, comfortable clothing and quarters, something that is denied hundreds of deserving hard working girls and women in Winnipeg to-day." In this respect Mr. McGrath urged upon every girl and woman who worked for a livelihood the necessity of organization; it was the only agency through which they might secure a living wage, reasonable hours of labor and self-respecting work conditions. He was followed by Mrs. E. M. Harrison of the Educational League, who gave an outline of the amendments that it was proposed to submit to the local legislature to secure legislation in favor of the women workers.

MARRIAGE IS CHALLENGED

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—In the suit of Mrs. D. Armour of Fort Coulonge, Pontiac county, Quebec, against the townships of Mansfield and Pontiac, for $10,000 damages through the death of her husband who was killed on a municipal road two years ago, an interesting point has been raised. At the conclusion of the examination of witnesses, Henry Aylie counsel for the townships, stated that the plaintiff had never been legally married to Armour. She had been married to his brother Archie Armour and after the decease of the latter she had been married to John D. Armour with special dispensation, all the parties being Roman Catholics. Mr. Aylie contended that the law formally prohibited marriage by the surviving husband with his late husband's brother and that while the Dominion Act removed the prohibition as to marriage with a deceased wife's sister, it did not do so as regards marriage with a deceased husband's brother. Mr. Aylie further contended that the bishop could not by dispensation, legalize a marriage which the law prohibited. This point is to be argued at Hull on Saturday morning.

and retard instead of help the work of production. The primitive methods of farming in vogue in China would be out of place in Canada, and the farmers do not want help they would have to lose valuable time to teach things. They claim they want coal cutters, loaders and shovellers in the Jubilee pit, Sidney, N.S., the rate of wages they formerly received $4.70 per day, there is a probability that all miners in the province will walk out to enforce the scale. Secretary James B. McLaughlin says that the Amalgamated Mine Workers are in earnest and are determined to have what is coming to them.

The migration of skilled farmers with ample capital behind them from the United States to settle on farm lands in Western Canada is going to contribute some to a larger production of grain and other farm products in Canada during the present year. Reports from Ottawa state that during the present month of January, over 800 farmers have come over the border to take up land in Canada—an unprecedented large number for this time of the year—and the prospects are that a large influx from Uncle Sam's domain will be evidenced from now on. The immense resources of the Dominion have been advertised world-wide as a result of the share Canada has taken in the world-war, and for years to come, wheat and foodstuffs will be king. The American farmer is aware of the prospects that in Canada to-day are to be found the most productive wheat and grain raising land in the world, and provides opportunities nowhere else existent in any part of the globe. During the last few years after the war, all indications point to an enormous influx of the farming element into the Canadian West.

MOUNT PLEASANT

(From our own Correspondent)
On Tuesday morning last the mercury fell to 26 degrees below zero, the worst cold dip we have experienced for many years. The frost penetrated many cellars and a great deal of valuable produce has been affected. Those who have escaped thus far had better take all necessary preparations to ensure this part of the food supply.

Private Frank Cook of the Royal Canadian Flying Corps, was visiting friends in the village this week. He has been at Camp Borden all summer perfecting himself in the difficult work of aviation, and will be able soon to qualify himself for a lieutenant. He will likely be ordered to Texas before long.

Some of the young people here are busy preparing for a play to be given before long in aid of the Red Cross. The inaugural meeting was held at "Brucefield," the home of Mrs. Morgan Harris.

The quarterly official board of the Methodist churches of Mt. Pleasant and Mt. Vernon met at the parsonage, Mt. Pleasant, in regular session on the afternoon of Feb. 4th. The Rev. Mr. Cole, pastor of the churches, occupied the chair. There was not so many of the officials present as usual owing to the state of the roads. After the regular business of the session had been passed upon, the board was called upon to consider a proposal to change the length of the pastoral term, submitted by the church at Mt. Pleasant. The question submitted to all of the official boards is: "Are you in favor of the continuance of the present term limit of the pastorals of a church?" The ballots cast showed the board had voted against any change. The quarterly sacramental service was held on Sunday last, great congregations being present. The sermon by the pastor was from the words of St. John's Gospel, "I have given you an example that ye should do as I have done to you," and was very suitable for this solemn service.

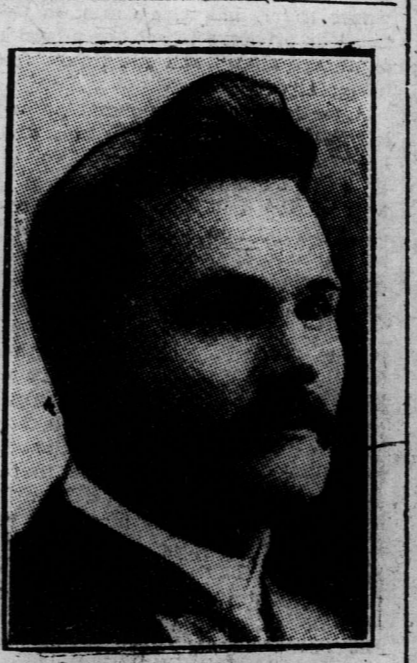

STRIKE CALLED OFF.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 8.—A five day strike of 1,000 motorcar and conductors of the United Railways, which demoralized traction transportation in this city was called off early to-day.

Patrick E. Gill, federal collector, said the terms of settlement called for a recognition of the union and the "open shop" with provision made that the question of wages, hours of employment and working conditions shall be determined at conference.
