RETURNS TO BROCKVILLE.

After an absence from home for over 30 years the Brockville and Elizabethtown Agricultural Fair has decided to do as the prodigal, whose history is given in the great book, when he arrived at the wise conclusion to arise in his manhood and return to his father's house where there was plenty to guarantee comfert. The public vote was taken on the question of Unionville or Brockville on Monday last. The statutes define the qualification of voters to be two years standing as a member. Under it the possible vote was 122. Of this number only 50 embraced the golden privilege and of that number 49 voted Brockville, only one vote being cast for Unionville. But little interest was manifested as to holding it when it was known that the

On Wednesday lat, E. A. Geiger and Marsh Ripley let Newboro in skiff to mark out the course for the cance route on the Rideau, Beverley and Charleston laces by putting compass points and white paint spots to mark the course mere clear along those points and outlets where tourists are most puzzeled and sometimes ge lost alt gether in the maze of islands and bays. They spent a most enjoy able time sailing on the lakes, reaching Lyndhurst at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening and Codar Park hotel Thurs day afternoon at 4 o'clock, remaining there untill Fridey morning when they drove to Athens and took the train, Mr. Geiger going to Brockville and Mr. Ripley to Elgin. The route is cor ectly described on margin of the f ent on application.

Sup't Griger, of the B. & W. Ry. is receiving man applications daily for his new guide of the lakes, and with the im: oved hotel accomplation at Portland, Newboro Chaffe.'s Locks. Jones' Falls and Charleston Lake, the oute is becoming very popular.

The Giant's Organ.
One of the most interesting feature of the Giant's causeway is "the giant's Spring organ." This huge "instrument" consists of a group of pillars of various lengths set apart on the side of the main cliff. The larger columns being in the center and the smaller ones tapering off on either side after the fashion of organ pipes admirably sustain the idea which the name "giant's organ'

Odd Drinking Cups. When every man got drunk and was proud of it in olden days, much ingenu-ity was expended in the construction of queer and elaborate drinking vessels, and many such are yet to be found in museums, especially in Ger-
