Recalling a Mailed Letter. Many times people would like to re-call a letter after it has been mailed. This can be done even if the letter has reached the postoffice of its destination. At every postoffice there are what are called "withdrawal blanks." On application they will be furnished, and when a deposit is made to cover the expense the postmaster will telegraph to the postmaster at the letter's destination asking that it be promptly returned. The applicant first signs this agreement: "It is hereby agreed that, if the letter is returned to me, I will protect you from any and all claims made against you for such return and will fully indemnify you for any loss you may sustain by reason of such ac-tion. tion. And I herewith deposit $- to cover all expenses incurred and will deliver to you the envelope of the letter returned." In many cases persons have made remittances to fraudulent parties or irresponsible firms, not learning their true character until after the letter had gone, and have succeeded in

A Quick Start. O. W. Nickerson and J. S. Baker were residents of Harwick. Captain Nickerson, as he was called, was a man of means and very shrewd. Joe was less fortunate. One day the captain met Joe and said, "Come over tonight."
Joe did so, and as soon as he entered the captain's home the captain took aim into a distant room, closed all the windows and doors securely and said: "Now, Joe, I will tell you the secret of getting rich and you can pay me Be saving, of course, and when you do make a bargain with any one be sure that no one hears you, and then If you get the worst of it or want to

TIPS AND TIPPING.

The Customary Exactions on Board the Atlantic Liners.

Do not take fright at what you may hear about excessive tips on steamers and in Europe. They are numerous, but need not be large. To scatter your money wildly in tips will mark you as a novice. All the servants will quickly spot you, pass the word around and fleece you. Tips vary. of course, in accordance with the grade of steamers, hotels and other accommodations. If you travel in a specially equipped floating palace you must expect to pay at least $25 for steamer tips. On reguiar first class stea ers, however, the following are customary and will be ample: Stateroom steward, $2.50; stateroom stewardess, $2.50; dining room steward, $2.50. These are obligatory. On the cheaper first class steamers they may be reduced to $1 each and be entirely dignified. It all depends on the boat. By talking with other pas-sengers you can readily learn the customary scale for your steamer. If you use the bathroom regularly, pay the bathroom steward $1; if less frequently this might be cut to 25 cents a bath. If you read books from the library, the steward a tip varying from $1 down to 25 cents, according to grade of steamer and frequency of his service to you. The deck steward's gratuity is a variable quantity; he has opportunity for getting tips from so many people that he fares better than inside stew ards who are restricted to a certain number; hence do not be uneasy about him. Give him what you think he has earned in waiting on you, according to relative service with the other

TRY THIS FOR YOUR COUGH

To relieve a cough or break up a cold in twenty four hours, the following simple formula, the ingredients of which can be obtained of any good pre scription druggist at small cost, is all that will be required: Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), one-half ounce; Glycer ine, two ounces; good Whisky, a half pint. Shake well and take in teaspoonful doses every four hours. The desired results can not be obtained unless the ingredients are pure. It is therefore better to purchase the ingredients separately and prepare the mixture yourself. Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) should be purchased in the original half-ounce vials, which druggists buy for dispensing. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case which protects the Oil from ex osure that will be required : Virgin Oil of which protects the Oil from ex osure to light.
