THE TEA-KETTLE'S SONG

When the winter casts its mantle o'er the landscape pure and white, And the sunlight flecks the foldings with its jewels blinding bright, Over all the sleeping valleys where the rural people dwell, There's a peaceful touch of evening, something like a tender spell.

Then it is that things forgotten steal from out their veiled retreat, Bringing with them songs of gladness in a rhythm, oh, so sweet, Songs which long ago were hallowed, songs which once the welkin rang, But the one I hold divinely is the song the kettle sang.

Soft and low, far in the distance, sweet that old tea-kettle sings, What a wealth of pleasant memories of the by gone days it brings; Like a vast warm bosom glowing in the sunset world of light, Sweet, infused with cheerful message, I can hear it sing to night.

Rest ye weary from your labors in the cheerful cottage bright, Is the song that old tea kettle sings for us afar to-night; Sweet the carol of the white throats at the early birth of spring, But it's joy at every season just to hear the kettle sing.

On the wood-stove in the kitchen I can see the curling steam, And the form of her who loves me with her mother face abeam; I can smell the supper's savor, see the old red table spread, I can hear the call of welcome making all the household glad.

'Tis a kindly song of welcome from the dear old-fashioned home, Calling to the friends and neighbors bidding one and all to come; There I see the loved ones beckon from that humble hearth of bliss, And there comes a tender longing just to taste their greeting kiss.

—Crawf. C. Slack.

SAVE THIS ANYWAY

Here is a simple home made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood (and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

MILK MEETING

On Monday evening, Dec. 2nd the patrons of the Union Valley Cheese Factory met at the home of Mr. Oliver Hayes. The first meeting in this locality was held in this pleasant residence in February, '89, and this has been the rendezvous for such meetings ever since.

The meeting was animated, amusing, all in harmony, a social visit. Reports were received and adopted unanimously. Intelligent comments were made by several patrons. Finally, Instructor A. Wilson said: that the time had come when farmers and cheese makers must take more and better care of milk and cheese. Union Valley was built up to date and would compare favorably in every detail with any other factory in his district. Its sanitary condition was superior, everything about the premises sweet and clean. Patrons ought to call a meeting, unite and consider the great advantages of a proper cold storage, which among other things, safe guards the patrons from many of the fluctuations in price. They should not mind their neighbors' reports of high averages, as in such cases the cheese maker had something to make that average from. He would say this to any and all patrons. "When you know you have a well-informed, honorable man, stay by him," Mr. Topping, he said, was high up in the range and that the patrons had received as much from the watchful attention of Mr. W. C. Hayes as they would from any salesman in a season when there was a great shortage in the fall flow. Salesman for 1908—Richard Kelley. Treasurer—W. M. Topping. There was no one more pleased with the above arrangement than Mr. W. C. Hayes. The meeting closed with a general good feeling.

Aches and Pains

You know by experience that the aches and pains of rheumatism are not permanent, but only temporarily, relieved by external remedies.

Then why not use an internal remedy—Hood's Sarsaparilla, which corrects the acidity of the blood on which rheumatism depends and cures the disease!

This medicine has done more for the rheumatic than any other medicine in the world.

WILL KISSING BE PROHIBITED

The Osculatory Process Denounced by Scientists as Extremely Dangerous—How the Danger Can be Removed.

A keen discussion is being carried on by some of the best scientists as to the danger and "crime" of kissing, led by Dr. Somers, Health Officer of Atlantic City, and Dr. Nalpas, of the Medical Faculty of Paris. They charge the kiss with spreading grippe, scarlet fever, measles, mumps, whooping cough, typhoid fever, diphtheria, erysipelas, meningitis, tuberculosis, and many infectious skin diseases. They suggest legislation on the subject, and the posting of notices in railway stations, street cars and other public places, but they say it would be useless to post them on verandas, in cosy corners, porches, shady nooks, or moonlit lawns. They also propose compulsory legislation for methods of disinfection of the mouth and purifying the breath, especially with a view to the protection of the innocent babies who are particularly subject to infection. The greatest and most effective purifier and germ destroyer known to medical science for the mouth, throat and breath, as well as for the blood, stomach and lungs, is Psychine, that triumph of the medical world that is attracting almost universal attention because of the wonderful results attending its use. One of its recent triumphs is told as a matter of experience in the following brief statement:

Dr. Slocum Co. I am sending you photo and testimonial here-with for your great remedy PSYCHINE. Your remedies did wonders for me. I was about 22 or 23 years of age when I took PSYCHINE. The doctor had given me up as an incurable consumptive. My lungs and every organ on the body were terribly diseased and wasted. Friends and neighbors thought I'd never get better. But PSYCHINE saved me. My lungs have never bothered me since, and Psychine is a permanent cure.

MRS. LIZZIE GARSDIE,

59 Bathurst St., London, Ont. Psychine, pronounced Si-keen, is admitted to be the most wonderful of all disease and germ-destroying agencies. For building up the run-down system and curing all forms of stomach troubles and diseases of the chest, throat and lungs or head, it is simply unapproachable. It is a reliable home treatment. For sale at all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, 179 King Street West, Toronto.
