A Father's Vengeance.

A Father's Venigeshoe.

Detreot, Feb. 10.—Late on Thursday evening young man named Freeman, residing at Roxand, 14 miles north of Charlotte, was shot in the head by John Day, with whose daughter he had been trying to elope. Freeman had been forbidden the house, and at last determined to elope with Miss Day. Her father hearing of it, followed them on horseback, and overtaking them, shot Freeman in the forehead with a rifle, causing a serious wound, from which he will probably die.
