DUFF DINED.

The Winner of the Gilchrist Haored.

A Pleasant Meeting and Some Appropriate

The graduates and friends of the University gathered together in the college hall on Weduesday evening last to banquet the winner of the Gilchrist Scholarship. The complimentary supper given to Mr. A. W. Duff, the calchrist Scholar for 1884, was the head of the table, and was supported on his right by Mr. Duff, and the Chief Superintendent of Education, Mr. Crocket, and on his left by the President of the University, Dr. Jack, and Mayor Fenety, A. W. Teed B. A. '84; W. C. Cushing, B. A. '84; and J. Bridges, B. A. '84, occupied the Vice chairs about the table. The following is a list of

The Others Present. Messrs Arthur W. Teed, W. Francis Ganong. Harry D. McManus, Howard D. Fritz, Robert Nicholson, Frank L. Kinney, Willard H. Good-speed, Chas. G. Hall, J. E. Dever, M. A. Quig-ley, J. R. Dunn and J. W. Bailey. Mr. Scovil Nealis who is absent on a fishing tour is the only member of the class who was not pres-The banqueters numbered about 70 in all. Among the number was J. Douglas Hazen, Registrar of the University, Principal Mullin, Dr. Currie, W. Wilson, B. A. barrister. Rev'ds. A. J. Mowatt and F. D. Crawley W. Bliss Carman M. A., G. R. Parkin, M. A., W. Bliss Carman M. A., W. C. Crockett M. A., James A. Johnson M. A., B. C. Foster B. A., F. H. Hoyt B. A., Bedford Phillips B. A., P. E. Cliff B. A., of the Gleaner, and Mr. H. of $600 will be given to be competed for. A. Cropley of the Capital and a large number of the students of the University Mr. James Lemont proposed

The First Toast of the Evening to Her Majesty the Queen, when "God save the Queen" was sung in a hearty manner. Mr. J. R. Dunn proposed the toast to his Excellency the Governor General and Mr. W. Bridges the toast to His Honor the Prof. Bridges upon rising to propose the toast to Mr. Duff, the Gilchrist scholar of '84,

The standin was greeted with a round of applause. The Professor stated that he had known Mr. Duff for a number of years. When he first became acquainted with him he (Mr. Duff) was in the junior department of the St. John Gram-mar school, and not quite so important a person as he was this evening. The toast was drunk in a hearty manner and "For he's a jolly good fellow" made the old College halls ring once more with the hearty and inspiriting melodies by which the halls have so long been haunted.

moments of his life. He could not conceive. ways look back upon it with the greatest pleasure. If he had added any glory to the untarnished name of the University, if he had succeeded in any way of adding to the sful career of his Alma Mater, he felt that he had in some measure repaid the great debt which he owed to her. (Appla the University, and its many graduates, for was always treated by them. He wished to previous occasion that every one of his class University, the Alumni Society. (Applause) the table would unite their interest with that with regard to the Gilchrist scholarshin that he was sorry that the scholarship, as previ-ously awarded, was to be discontinued; but asated for, and he sincerely hoped tha as the end of another year he would have the ### privilege of grasping the hand of a man fro (Applause). He once more thanked them ushered to his seat amid great applause. Mr. Wilson next proposed the toast Alma Mater, making some interesting remarks. The old song "Nunc est Bibendum Fratres was sung in a spirited manner as the toast Faculty. Dr. Jack in reply stated that he ers of the Senate were present, owing to the hasty manner in which the occasihad been gotten up. He felt extremely glad my boys" (laughter) around the festal board. There were more than a 1,000 applicants at the London University, and he felt proud that a N. B. University man should take the first place. Drs. Bailey and Harrison and

Prof. Rivet also replied.

Mayor Fenety stated that he had been requested to propose a toast for the Alumni Society, which was responded to by Mr.

Mr. W. F. Ganong in a very neat and appropriate address referred to the great advantages attained by the common school system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system which he said was second to no other system. country. He proposed a toast to the Board of Education and coupling with it the name of Chief Superintendent Crocket. Mr.

The toast to the Press was proposed by W. Fenety and H. A. Cropley. Mr. Parkin prop ponded to by Mr. J. R. Dunn. After th National Anthem, the banquet was brought to an end a few minutes before one o'clock.

At the sale of the Dowling Wharf Wednes day Mr. Hazen bid $91. Mr. Woodward bid $91.25, and it is said that Mr. Wetmore, autioneer, announced the bid, but afterwards when Mr. Hazen told him not to accept a fractional bid, knocked the property down to Mr. Hazen. Under these circumstance Mr. Woodward thinks he has been wronged and the facts as stated, if they are corn would som to invalidate the sale to Mr. Hazen and leave the matter just where it stood before the lease was knocked down. We not so sure that any citizen might no to him. What right has any auction down to a lower bidder? If Mr. Woodward made a bona fide bid in the hearing of the auctioneer and his bid was ever so little in advance of Mr. Hazen's, it should have been taken. If not, why not? An Aceident. Presbyterian Church fell from a staging on Wednesday morning, a distance of 30 feet breaking one of his legs and otherwise in-juring him. He is attended by Dr. Currie.

Mr. Geo. Cummings while carelessly hand ling a revolver the other day, was shot in the hand, and hadly injured.

Moosepath Park Fall Races. About three hundred persons attended class, for a purse of $150—Thomas Clerk's "Mambrino Charter," C. J. Ward's "Tom Morris' and C. W. Bell's "Clipp," The first heat was won by "Clipp" in 2:56, "Tom" second and "Charter" third. The second heat was also won by "Clipp" in 2.59, "Tom" second and "Charter" dis-taneed. The final heat between "Clipp" "Dean Swift" and King Bros.' "General." class condition.

Purse of $100 for 2:50 horses.

Same Day and Rrack. Purse of $200 for 2:32 horses. Mile best three in five .-

The Fredericton Brass Band had fine nothing other than Hermitage, on Friday aftern

Fred Cougle; 3rd, Writing Companion, Jas. 100 Yards Dash.-1st, Pair Vases, Hugh Calder; 2nd, Briar Pipe in case, R. Boone; ord, Silk Handkerchief, Pte Finian.

Running High Jump.—1st, Pair hand painted Easels, Estey Cliff; 2nd, Sett of lewelry, R. Boone.

ing Broad Jump.-1st, Pair Sleeve Buttons, R. Boone; 2nd, Briar Pipe, Estey Air Gun .- 1st, Writing Desk, L. Buchanan nd, Cabinet Frame, W end, Cabinet Frame, W. Sutherland.
Potato Race.—1st Pocket Knife Norman

Edgecombe; 2nd, Neck Tie; Charles Biggs; 3rd, Whisk and Holder, Andrew Ritchie. Putting Shot.—Ist, Slipper Pocket, W. E. Seery; 2nd, Corner Bracket, Roy McDonald. The foot ball match between civilians and

. The St. John C. & A. Club held their irst annual sports on Friday. The 100 yds. E. H. Tarnbull, formerly of the University, won the one mile bicycle race. Running high jump won by W. Steward, 4tt. 7ins

Opening of the University.

The University was opened at 12 o'clock Thursday. Sixteen students presented them-selves for the matriculation examination The result of the matriculation examination was made known at 1 o'clock Saturday HEL Smith, W A Kerr, W K Hatt, W N Hand, JW Wetmore, CW Nevers, MH s Parlee, AWK Akerly, FG Colter, and E

Mr. Harrison, who is a son of Dr. Harrison leads the class with 792 points. The followumberland; Mr. Grimmer, for Charlotte, Mr. Parlee, for Kings. The first five mentioned made each over 700 points. The regular course of lectures commences on Monday ng Circle of the Free Baptist Church of sale on the afternoon of Thursday last. pleasant time was spent. Rev. J. F. Rend. very large and appreciative audien Over $40 was realized and this with the proceeds of the sales amounted to quite a arge sum, which will be appropriated to-

The Railway Bridges. The abutments for the new railway bridge across the Nashwaak are now completed, and the stringers reach over half the ditance. The bridge will be completed in another week. Tracklaying is completed to this bridge. The bridge over the Penniac is also nearly finished. The piers of this bridge were completed Thursday evening. The 71st. Challenge Cup. The challenge cup presented by the 71st. Batt., and now held by the St. John Fusiliers will be competed for this year at the Drury Range St. John, on Wednesday Oct. 1st.

Police News. SATURDAY.

Four drunks reported at the Police Court. Two of whom paid their fine of $5., and the other two went to jail.

Thursday, October 30th has been fixed for ### the opening of the fall meeting at Moose- Has the Glory of these Garments Departed?

PETTICOATS.

What the Dress Reform Sisterhood Propose as a Substitute.

Shall petticoats go? This momentous question is agitating the minds of sundry widows, numerous maiden ladies of uncertain age, several married women, and an indefinite number of creatures of more or less loveliness and of a marriageable age. Down in this staid and sober community the people don't seem to take much interest in the question of dress reform, and whether the skirt shall be The three heats were won by "Lady Bashaw" divided, or genuine trousers shall be worn The three heats were won by "Lady Blash w"

There was a much larger attendance on the second day. The track was in a first class condition.

The track was in a first class condition. remember to have seen at least

One Genuine Bloomer the Rational Dress Reform Association England has come to this country on a

The following are the highest scores:

Space Ball.

Owing to the Inspection on Tuesday next, the Infantry School team have notified the City Amateurs that they will be unable to play them on Monday next. The game will probably be played on Wednesday or Saturday following.

CITY AMATEURS.—Pitcher, Chas. William—n; catcher, J. H. Tabor; 1st b., A. hum; 2ad b., Frank Haviland, 3rd h.; short step, S. Libbey:

An even in the most favorable weather they are a tax and trial to both strength and temper; but when they have to encounter they are not award trial to both strength and temper; but when they have to encounter they are not award trial to both strength and temper; but when they have to encounter they are to encounter they are not award trial to both strength and temper; but when they have to encounter they are to encounter they have to encounter they are they are to encounter they are to encounter they are J. W. Bridges the toast to His Honor the Lieut. Governor. Mr, Jack stated that he had received a note from the Lieut. Governor the Lieut. Governor that regretting very much his inability to attend.

Adams; right field, Ed, Steeves; centre field, and depending from the waist is very trying; and depending from the waist is very trying; and depending from the waist is very trying; and came to this conclusion at last: that then of salaries is "treaddle."

The grand aggregate a prize presented by and came to this conclusion at last: that while this was not a good matrimonial mar-weather for their athletic sports at the Hermitage, on Friday afternoon. The affair with some sort of a mongrel arrangement for prizes. Hermitage, on Friday afternoon. The affair was quite largely at lended and proved successful. The band dispensed music during the afternoon, and although the sports were the order of the day, dancing was indulged in at intervals until the evening. All the competitions we keenly contested by the pattern books of the new reformation is as follows:—Short cropped hair with the following result:—

Ladies' Archery.—Ist, Silver Card Receiver, Miss

With some sort of a mongrel arrangement for the body; but not even the most enthusiastic among them expect to reach this point for some time yet. A model costume, as represented by the pattern books of the new reformation is as follows:—Short cropped hair with the following result:—

Ladies' Archery.—Ist, Silver Card Receiver, Miss

With some sort of a mongrel arrangement for the body; but not even the most enthusiastic among them expect to reach this point for some time yet. A model costume, as represented by the pattern books of the new reformation is as follows:—Short cropped hair with the following result:—

Ladies' Archery.—Ist, Silver Card Receiver, Miss

With some sort of a mongrel arrangement for the body; but not even the most enthusiastic among them expect to reach this point for some time yet. A model costume, as represented by the pattern books of the new reformation is as follows:—Short cropped hair with the deal of worry and trouble would be saved.

I read the Cupital now and then—the this morning, and a reporter from The GleAnternoon, and a reporter from The GleAnternoon, and a reporter from The GleAnternoon and the wretched stage appliances came away at miding the well satisfied with the evening's the work and pay up, what an immense deal of worry and trouble would be saved.

I read the Cupital now and then—the the wide work and pay up, what an immense deal of worry and trouble would be saved.

I read the Cupital now and then—the wide work and pay up, what an immense deal of worry and trouble would be saved.

I read the Cupital now and then—the wide and as w

A Bit of the Stocking

shows above the neat slipper which pletes the costume. Now this looks very natty on the right sort of a girl; but it is al dress" looks to the outward eye as fol-lows:—A loose robe falls from the collar to within about ten inches from the ground and neat tronsers are seen below. It is said to be very graceful. Another is loose waisted and short skirted, coming only to the iers was won by the latter. The prizes will be observed that the point in all these costumes is to avoid pressure on the waist.

The bodice, as the whole of the Upper Part of the Busines: nay be called, is to fit as loosely as a man's waistcoat. The trousers are to be cut so as to cause their weight to be borne upon the hips. THE GLEANER gives promine ing movements of the day, for it really appears probable that Mrs. King's converts will have the courage of their or something very much like them. Speaking of this lady the Montreal corresponden of the Toronto Globe says:of the Toronto Globe says:—

I may also remark that she is a lady of large means, who devotes very considerable sums to the promotion of her reforming schemes. She told me a few days ago that many ladies of Montreal have seriously taken up the rational dress, and that her success as a missionary in Canada has been gratifying. By next year a good many Canadian women will probably be wearing no petticoats, corsets, and literal trought.

An Exhilerating Thought.

plete if it stopped here. There are lots of sweet for anything in a neat pair of trousers and an apology for a skirt, and it may be shod with broad low slippers, with an easy bodice above and snug trousers below, the woman of the period, sans corsets or petticoats, goes forth conquering and to conquer. lectured in the evening on "Anecdoets and their moral" which was listened to by a at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, who by the way would probably like to come here and give a lecture.

Side, after which the critic read his report.

The subject for the next evening is, "Re-

Exentsion to St John.

The Odd Fellows had one of the prettiest days of the whole season for their excursion to St. John. The excursion train reached Carleton station at 10 o'clock, making the trip in exactly three hours time. A number of the excursionists arrived home in the regular evening train, but the main body ne by special, arriving at one o'clock.

Entertained by his Friends. The Attorney General, while at Newcastle was royally entertained by his political friends. They gave him an excursion up th give him a public dinner had his duties no called him home,

Mr. Enoch Chestaut, who has been seriou of Mr. Andrew Rainsford, above the city has so far recovered as to be able to into town.

His Honor the Chief Justice left Friday on a three months trip to England. vote in the Repeal of the Scott Act in the County of York.

He has richly earned his holiday and everyone will join us in wishing him a safe voyage.

THE RIFLE.

Annual Competition of the York County Bifle Association, The annual rifle competition of York Coun-Town. light and a bad side wind prevented high scoring. There was the largest number of Some Things that Some People Talk About competitors present for many years, mainly owing to the presence of so many from the Infantry School corps. The first competition was for the P. R. A. medal and $50, ranges 200, 500, 600 yds., seven rounds at each. The following is the scores of the prize winners in this competition a high degree of proficiency and also dis-play much excellent taste, both in their selections and the way in which they rendprize winners in this competition:—

FREDERICTON N. B., SPTEMBER 24, 1884.

Points.

Lieut Smith, 71st Batt, P. R. A medal and 84-76

Lieut Pinder, 71st Batt, 84. 76

Sergt Winter, 71st Batt, 84. 76

Sergt Winter, 71st Batt, 84. 76

Corp. RoAlpine, 71st Batt, 84. 76

Pre Curtin, 1.8 Corps, 83. 68

Pre Curtin, 1.8 Corps, 83. 66

Pre W. E. Miller, Reserve, 83. 66

Pre W. E. Miller, Reserve, 83. 66

Pre Curtin, 1.8 Corps, 83. 66

Pre Curtin, 1.8 Corps, 82. 65

Lieut Perkins, 71st Batt, 82. 59. 65

Lieut Perkins, 71st Batt, 82. 59. 59

Lieut Perkins, 71st Batt, 82. 59. 59

Lieut Perkins, 71st Batt, 82. 59. 54

Perezet Swinney, 1.8 Corps, 82. 56

Pre Cougle, 1.8 Corps, 81. 59. 54

Bergt Prindle, 71st Batt, 81. 59. 54

Bergt Powler, 1.8 Corps, 81. 59. 52

Pre Walker, 1.8 Corps, 81. 54

Pre Grant, 1.8 Corps, 81. 46

Pre Grant, 1.8 Corps, 81. 46

Latte Second commetition, ranges 400 and crusade against petticoats. And this is the iconoclastic manner in which she assails the number of cash prizes, and various kind of garment so long associated with female grace | prizes presented by the merchants of F.eder-"They are," says Mrs. King, "directly union this competition which was won by Pte. Burtt of the Infantry School with $2 in cash.

ers may be given. The ultimate aim of the movement is to get the female form into

Mrs. Ross; 2nd, Silver Card Receiver, Miss Mrs. Ross; 2nd, Silver Card Receiver, Miss Mrs. Ross; 2nd, Silver Card Receiver, Mrs. Samoru sconception of the title role, and point out defects and compare him disadvantageously with the great impersonators of the unhappy Dane, we must on the whole pronounce his work on seeing him for the first time, could not are fulfilling the conditions of their law to fire until it was about over. He did not hear the alarm. He said it was the first fire until it was about over. He did not hear would be quite sufficient.

The Grammar Schools have no doubt been missed in ten gold not the clever young Gilchrist scholar Mr. Duff: 2-34 An ordinary observer, on seeing him for the first time, could not are fulfilling the conditions of their law to fire until it was about over. He did not hear the alarm. He said it was the first fire until it was about over. He did not hear would be quite sufficient.

The Grammar Schools have no doubt been missed in ten said it was the first fire he had been made to him in reference to the dedition of the title role, and point out defects and compared in fire until it was about over. He did not hear the alarm. He said it was about over. He did not hear the alarm. He said it was the first fire until it was about over. He did not hear the alarm. He said it was the first fire until it was about over. He did not hear the alarm. He said it was the first fire until it was about over. He did not hear the alarm. He said it was the first fire until it was about over. He did not and some frilling peeps from beneath them. So much for the body and arms, now for the legs, for women who wear trousers must confess to legs. Well these are clad as far down as the knees with a pair of trousers, made like any other trousers. At the knees who are proved to the sand into his pocket, while being told that 3rd, Silk Handkerchief, Pte Finian.

Three Jumps.—1st, Cigar Holder (full,) Hugh Calder; 2nd, Toilet Rack, Estey Cliff.
Running High Jump.—1st, Pair hand mainted Easels. Estey Cliff. 2nd. Sett of to whom ghosts had become monotonous, but when he got into the spirit of the play sociated Alumni and Principal of the Fredhe acquitted himself well, though the consistency of his representation is We should recommend probably too much to expect substantial ghost or pitch his voice in some other key, matrons or slim spinsters to be over anxious

ed. Mr. Tupper, as the King, was disagreeable at first, but he improved as the play proceeded. Mr. Bokee afforded considerable sement as Polonius, but he was hardly Shakespeare's Polonius. The minor parts diggers were excellent. Miss Foster, who knees, and below are buttoned gaiters; beneath, it is said, are genuine trousers and no neath, it is said, are genuine trousers and no tion, but in her mad scene was powerful and tion, but in her mad scene was powerful and too. tries to pitch her yoice a la Mary Anderson, mark, who said he did not like Hamlet beeasy-a little too easy perhaps, but the position of stage royalties to rant is so com-mon that the reverse tendency can be readily overlooked. The whole company is fairly well balanced, much better in fact than the generality of travelling companies. They a good house to-night when a grand double bill, consisting of the Merchant of Venice and A Happy Pair with be put on.

acted as an orchestra. We would like to speak well of their share of the evening's Normal School Debating Society. The weekly meeting of the "Normal School Young Men's Debating Society" was held last evening. There was not a very large number of the members present' owing of this story is that it is true. to the play in the City Hall, which a number of them attended. The chairman for the evening was. Mr Wm J Mahony, Mr S. McKnight having resigned that position. Mr Barry acted as critic. A vote of thanks was passed to Mr Harry McManus for his services rendered to the Society by acting as folks in Fredericton who would look just too Treasurer, his term of office having expired. The question, "Resolved that a man is hap-pier in pursuit than in possession," was then that they will wish to illustrate to their discussed. Mr. Jeremiah Deacon opened the Merchant of Venice to night. You had betfriends and neighbors what the world will affirmative side, followed by Messrs. Mc- ter do it. look like when the dress reform has reached its climax, and capped with a soft felt hat, rris, after which Mr Mc-Intyre gave a lengthy and stirring speech. ed in the office here, that cannot be justified The debate was then closed by the leader of if the postal clerks or the trains are at fault, the affirmative, Mr Deacon, who brought on they ought to be looked after. his side some excellent arguments. The > and members for the different sides chosen are, Mr Leverett Belyea for the affirmative, and Mr F Ferris for the negative. Mr A Le party of young men, and though he must be Morris was appointed chairman, and Mr Wm J Mahony critic for the next meeting. The meeting then adjourned.

The well-known and popular comedian Mr. Murray, after an absence of five years, will re-appear in Fredericton next Tuesday Constable Hook," supported by a strong company under the management of Mr. Chas. E. Cook. The Murray season is to be of four Wednesday evening, Rip Van Winkle: Thursday, Solon Shingle and The Chimney Corner; Friday, Mr. Murray's dramatization of Dicken Oliver Twist, called London By Night." Mr. Murray always has a good season. Comedy is what Freder icton people like, and the season promises to

CHIT-CHAT.

Notes from a Man about the on the Streets. I thought the Band played very well on droll fellow he was, to be sure, and how funny his English was. "You blow de brass,"

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

When I was down listening to the band thrown upon the slender column of the back bone, it is doubtful whether it is not still more injurious. Clearly the peticoat must go."

The mursery aggregate prize was also won by Pte Curtin of the Infanty School with 91 points. This prize was given by Mayor 6.00 go."

But the fair reader may ask: "II w shall I 5.574 go."

But the fair reader may ask: "II w shall I 5.574 go."

After the competition was over the presentation of prizes took place. Lt. Marsh but the different suggestions of the reformacy and and came to this conclusion at last: that while this was not a good matrimonial market, still a girl, who is willing to marry a man who takes off his coat to earn his living, and is capable of taking charge of her own household, need not remain any longer than she wishes upon the list of spinsters.

After the competition was over the presentation of prizes took place. Lt. Marsh but the different suggestions of the reformacy of the sum of the week, to the city Mayor Gordon, Lt. Col.

Marsh, and adjutant Hazen presented the prizes.

Tomlet.

to be saved? "Well sale in, a good deal of practical Christianity in this, and it is the fundamental principle of commercial prosperity. In the committed, that I know of, is that he did not and, when needed. I am not quite sur-If ever the need of improvements in the Fredericton Stage could be demonstrated, they certainly were last night. I thought it spoke volumes for the players that they got through their parts without getting into

Speaking of the play, most of the vill appreciate the point of the fellow's re-

So many Quotations in it. I thought that the audience showed a fair appreciation of the acting and of the author' meaning as interpreted by Mr. Stafford and Miss Foster, and that the large gathering of intelligent people speaks volumes for good taste of my fellow townspeople. I heard a story the other day which I my

ell. A young lady from Queensbury was stopping at the Royal Hotel. She was look ing out the window and suddenly called the landlady to her in great haste. "Comquick," she said "I have something to show ou." "What is it?" queried the landlady. "Why, here is a soldier loose" said the young lady, pointing to a rather dudish N. C. O. of the I. S. C. "Why" said the landlady "that's nothing." "Isn't it" asked Miss Innocence, "why I thought they always kept them in their pen." The great beauty

What is the use of having an Avenue if a The colored gentlemen will repeat their grand cake walk on Wednesday evening next, in their own lodge rooms. Although this has been called a very rainy season, water in the river since mid has been unusually low. If you can as well as not take until 5 o'clock. If the mail remains unsor

They say on the street that Mr. Ten has gone to Ottawa to prevent Mr. Snowball from getting the Indiantown Branch contract, or failing that, to get a share in the

I wonder if Col. Mannsell will ever grov any older. He played at lawn-tennis with a old enough almost to be father of any of them, he was the most active man on the ground. Long may he keep his vigor, for fine, noble fellow he is. The men of the Military School are best of any that has ever been used in this proving in their marching, and I notice city. It was manufactured in St. John by imber of very soldierly looking fellow among them. Some of them are very awkward looking yet, and have a good deal to learn about how to wear a uniform. I notice by the way, that a red coat has as much at traction to girls of a certain class when worn by one of the Infantry School Corps as i used to have when worn by one of

What a pity it is that a few young black guards should be allowed to spoil the plea sure of a whole excursion party. The conduct of some roughs on the Oddfellows' ex cursion is said to have been most abominable on was won by St. John by one single expect their excursions to retain their hither-

I am a lover of the beautiful_that's why write for THE GLEANER-and I can enjoy as much as any one clse a wide strip of green shaded with handsome maples, with the river flowing peacefully in front. But I am not so sure whether the city is going to make much by driving D. F. George's business to the other side of the river. It may mean that several ratepayers will leave the city and our city store keepers will lose some customers. It will also mean the loss to the city of the revenue from the vessels Thursday night. Considering that the musicians are all men who work for their on the other side of the ledger we have the barn owned by Mr. Thos. Ross, on King the aid of another man, threshed out 91 fanny his English was. "You blow de brass," he would exclaim indignantity to a blundering trombone player. "You don't knowse into that the Teachers are all dissatisfied with the recent changes in the School Law. Froth always appears on the surface, and a good musician and under his tuition the 22nd Band gave the citizens of Fredericton splendid music. And speaking of music, is not that art at rather a low ebb in this Celestaic City? Said a musical professor to me the other day: "The popular taste Seems to be Degenerating, and good vocalists are getting scarcer year by year." Tis true, "tis pity, and pity "is, "tis true.

Sum—I see it is apparently taken for grantitute that the Teachers are all dissatisfied with the recent changes in the School Law. Froth always appears on the surface, and a good musician and under his tuition the 22nd Band gave the citizens of Fredericton splendid music. And speaking of music, is not that art at rather a low ebb in this Celestaic City? Said a musical professor to me the other day: "The popular taste Seems to be Degenerating, and good vocalists are getting scarcer year by year." Tis true, "tis pity, and pity "is, "tis true.

Sum a good nusician and under his tuition the 22nd Band gave the citizens of Fredericton splendid music. And speaking of music, is not that art at rather a low ebb in this Celestaic City? Said a musical professor to me the other day: "The popular taste was in the standing some of or 8 tons of hay, was also soon wrapped in flames and burned to the ground. The fire also caught in the large all the twin cottages owned by Mrs. McLeod and between the fire and the streams of water that were poured in the upper stories, the two country generally, and particularly by the country generally, and particularly by the Teacher or anything else.

How do you all know that the Superior Schools will be a failure? I see no reason that in every possible place under the law there will not be a Superior School. There are to be about 60 of them I think. The salaries of the Teachers will be about $500 a year, and in some cases much more. These schools will be filled in many cases by College graduates, and will give the superior School will give the superior School and superior School superi ericton High School, to speak of any young cessor. Be men—be gentlemen first, if senseman. The only offence which Mr. Duff has less partisans afterward. More if needed

my Latin but I will Fredericton, Sept. 18, 1884.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 16th, 1884. To the Editor of THE GLEANER : Sin-Will you kindly allow me space agricultural societies, farmers and others to keep our province prominently before in-tending emigrants in the old world.

One of the best means for doing this is by facilities are afforded through the Canadian agencies at London, Liverpool, Glasgow, Belfast, Dublin, &c., for the purpose. The ed that the samples should be collected. I am forced to appeal to the farmers for con-tributions as I have no authority to expend forward samples of corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, peas, beans, buckwheat, timothy and clover seed, &c., to my address, I will have them at once forwarded to each of the agen-cies. With the samples of grain I would also originated. ask them to send collections of the grain in the car and head, showing length of stalk, to a good advantage. I can also make good beets, pumpkins, squash, &c. If the agri-cultural societies in the various districts ender the greatest service to the country. of the agency general of the province in Liverpool, England, and trust shortly to open one in London also, where I shall be pleased to give prompt attention to all matters con nected with immigration, the export trade of the province, &c. Settlers in the province who have had a successful experience will be rendering a service to their old countrymen by writing me accounts of their experience which I will endeavor to have published.

An Excellent Idea.

My Liverpool address is 24 Chapel walk or 15 Water street. All samples of grain, etc., must be ad-IRA CORNWALL, JR.

Agent General Province of New Brunswick Chubb's Corner, St. John, A New Coach for the Queen Hotel. Another new and handsome coach has been added to the fine stock of carriages at the ### Price & Shaw and was brought to Fredericto on Tuesday last.

Off for Ottawa. Mr. G. F. Gregory left for Ottawa on Friday morning to argue the constition ality of the Dominion License Act. Mr. Gregory will represent New Brunswick, and ### Attempted Suicide.

Wednesday Mrs. Walker, of Marysville, wl was visiting Mr. W. Lipsett, residing on Regent Street in this city, attempted suicide

THE FIRE.

A few minutes before 5 o'clock Saturday

Mr. Hartt formerly resided at Fredericton.

trolled, and soon spread to the house adjoining owned also by Mr. Ross, and occupied by him on the lower flat, and the upper story by Mr. Thos. McCormack. The barn By the way speaking of Pappe, what a Teacher Thinks of the plaints Against the Law.

What a Teacher Thinks of the plaints Against the Law.

Story by Mr. 1108. McCormack lost was burned to the ground, and the house completely destroped. Mr. McCormack lost sented with a donation on the 25th inst. Fo the Editor of The Gleaner, a valuable horse which was burned to death in the barn. The fire next caught in Tracy meeting house.

tremedo into the letter R as the natty Sergeant can. And he is capital drill too and looks a soldier every inch of him.

When I was down listening to the local.

When I was down listening to the local.

the Government will protect them.

There seems a desire to place the Chief the citizens who attached the hose to the Superintendent in a false position. While hydrant did so improperly, and it was blown nips, 46 to 50 cts per bushel; beets, 50 to 60 the Chief is old enough to take care of himself I as one teacher protest against the unself I as one teacher suggestions he made to the Fire Committee He thought a good fire alarm would be beneficial, but it would cost a good deal; and if ficial, but it would cost a good deal; and if the city felt able to go to any additional ex-bushel. Apples sell from $1 to $2 per barrel.

pense they had better lay it out in paying the Plums, $2 50 to $3.50 per bushel Assistant Engineer Hatt says there was no five minutes after the alarm was given. He appeared very indignant that any suggestion should be made as to any tardiness on the part of the Department. Enquiries from those who were present when the fire origi-

Mr. Hatt was not Present ntil after the fire had made consider headway, and could not possibly know of showing the products of the country. Ample his own knowledge when the water was got not deny that there was very great delay and they say that the reason was that a branch have for exhibition at agricultural and other shows throughout Great Britain and the continent, where they are shown as the products of New Brunswick. All that is required that the samples should be collected. It seemed to know what had become of the branch pipe. As a matter of fact the water was first thrown on the burning barn from the hose without any pipe whatever. It is the opinion of all who were present, when class advanced their money, as they claimed the fire was first observed, that had water been promptly at hand the flames would have been confined to the place where they quaintances now lament the loss of a dollar

On Wednesday the ladies of Bear Island and vicinity intend holding a tea meeting at Bear Island, in the new union meeting house, now in course of erection, to raise would take the matter in hand it would in-sure securing the best specimens and thereby will be new and attractive. Two free ferries besides a number of graduates. The queswill be run to accommodate persons living tion whether or not "E on the opposite side of the river, from the hours of 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. One boat hours of 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. One boat hours of 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. One boat hours of 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. One boat hours of 10 a. m. Until 2 p. m. One boat hours of 10 a. m. Until 2 p. m. One boat hours of the subject of debate at next meeting.

Mr. Ed. B. oderick was appointed chairman at the close of the meeting. from Hog Island over. The Rev. J. E. of the debate. At the close of the meeting Reud will lecture in the evening, subject, "Who is The King." Speeches will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Cameron, Rev. Mr. Tupper, and others. Admission to tea, 40 ct Lecture, 10 cts. Children under 12 years

Mr. Cook, agent of the Murray Comedy

Co., is at the Queen. J. W. Bridges, B. A., has left home tor Edinburgh where he intends taking a lain nedical course. M. A. Quigley, B. A. will leave on Tues day next, for Atchinson, Kansas, where he has obtained a fine position in a drug store.

Charles Everett has returned home from his tour to the Upper Provinces. He will That Cake Walk.

No sooner had a large and mixed crowd gathered at the Temperance Hall on Tues-day evening, than some mischievous boys went in for some fun. Cayenne pepper was the city. sprinkled profusely over-the hot stoves. The lights were put out and there was war and

Bound for Foreign Lands,

Messrs. Havelock Vanwart, Herman Hagerman and E. Morran of Rear Island left town to-day, for Michigan. Mr. W. A Burden and others of the same place also The friendly game of lawn tennis that was played on the Officers' square on Wednesday against a repetition of this conduct, if they es, but was prevented by Miss Lipsett. Mrs. dolph Yerxa of this city will also left for matinee on Saturday. Tickets for the

A very interesting event, in which Mr. has. Hartt, of Biddelord, Me., and Miss A Disastrous Fire on King Lavina Duplisea, of Tracy Station, we chief participants, took place at the residence of the bride's father, Tracey Station, on the bride's father, tracey Station, on the bride's father, tracey Station, on the bride's father the Dangerous Delay and the Reasons Given the Flying Yankee for the West. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends barn owned by Mr. Thos. Ross, on King street, next above the new Royal Gazelle bushels of buckwheat with flails, last Friday, living and that "blowing de brass," as Bandmaster Pappe used to say, is only a recreation with them, they certainly have reached improved appearance, in an a-sthetic sense, of the river bank. It may be all right; but tions the advected by Mr. 1nos. Ross, on king improved appearance, in an a-sthetic sense, of the river bank. It may be all right; but tions with them, they certainly have reached when I was down listening to the band the other night the number of escortless females struck me as remarkakle. They walked along by twos and threes, chatting away at a great rate. Being of a philosophical turn of mind, I located myself against a telegraph pole and endeavored to puzzle out what proportion of the throng of fair ones would find husbands in this city. Then I thought of the young men whom they may reasonably be **Expected to Marry.**

Buen Very Generous, for the law fixes the government allowance of a first class male teacher at $110 and it is need to make $135. The ranking system in its incomes would find husbands in this city. Then I thought of the young men whom they may reasonably be

**Expected to Marry.**

Buen Very Generous, for the law fixes the government allowance of a first class male teacher at $110 and it is next below where the fire broke out escaped with slight scorching. Mr. W. T. H. Fenety who resides on the opposite side of the street from the fire, entertained the firement at provading the fire is unknown but there are suspicions of incendiarism. Mr. Ross account of education. So all about reduction in the expenditure on account of education. So all about reduction is the province of the fire.

Been Very Generous, for the law fixes the government allowance of a first class male teacher at $110 and it is next below where the fire broke out escaped with slight scorching. Mr. W. T. H. Fenety who resides on the opposite side of the street from the fire, entertained the firement at broadfast.

The origin of the fire is unknown but there are suspicions of incendiarism. Mr. Ross account of education. So all about reduction in his yard shortly before the fire.

Mrs. Meehan states that she was aroused the full the occurants have sustained severe losses. The nearly all the occurants have sustained severe losses. The reduction; J. C. Johnston, S. John; W. C. II Grimmer, St. Stephen; John Berry, Fredericton; H. The origin of the fire is unknown but there are suspicions of incendiarism. Mr.

The past few days have been very favor-

Mr. Harry H. Tibbits, the popular Station repaired to the Railway Station, on Tuesday last, to welcome that very popular gentleman and his bride on their return from their bridal tour through the New England

Andover, Sept. 20, 1884.

Fredericton Market. · The farmers are busy in the harvest field, bringing from $5 to $6. The proper way to sheafs or bundles. Hay brings $8 and $10

The quotations of last week prevail this lamb, 7 to 9 cts; pork, 9 to 10 cts; butter, 18 to 20 cts; (packed) and 22 to 24 cts in rolls eggs, 20 cts per dozen; chickens, 60 to 65 cts per pair; hay, $11 to $12; apples, $1 to $2 per barrel. Oats are plentiful and bring 38 ### to 40 cts a bushel.

The two Frenchmen who came to this city a week or so ago for the purpose of teaching University L. and D. Society. The Literary and Debating Society met on Saturday evening for the election of officers. Mr. A. B. Boyer was chosen President by a large majority. Mr. T. Murchie was elected Vice-Pres., and Mr. J. D. Harrison, Secrethe Freshman class were initiated into the ### Central Railway. The surveying party consisting of 14 mer now a short distance above Belle Isle Creek, and about 8 miles from Norton where the survey was begun. The party are making Arrival of Cups. The Merchants cup of London, won by # ais tour to the Upper Provinces. He will Shaughnessey won at the same place, have probably represent a Hamilton firm in the the New Brunswick team at Ottawa, and the McDougal Challenge cup won by Sergt. O'-

Mr. Woodward has received his first lot of White Sewing Machines. They are un-

The ever popular comedian Murray will be here on Wednesday and will open a season of four nights with Constable Hook. He is

Owing to the fact that no gas could be ob-Walker has been slightly insane for some Boston yesterday, where he has received evening performance were given to those