BY WM. GLAND BOURNE.

Oh, where, my long lost one, art then?

'Mid Aretic seas and wintry skice?

Deep, Polar night is on me now,
And hope, long wreehed, but mocks my cries:

I am like their from frozen plains
In the drear zone and sunless ning
My dying, lonely heart complains,
And chills in sorrow and despair,

Tell me, ye Northern winds! that sweep
Down from the rayless, dusky day—
Where ye have borne, and where ye keep,
My well belor'd within your sway;
Tell me, when next ye wildly bear
The ley message in your beath,
Of my belored! Oh, tell me where
Ye keep him on the sheres of death!

Tell me, ye Polar seas! that roll
From ice-bound shore to sunny isle—
Tell me, when next ye leave the Pole,
Where ye have chained my lord the while!
On the bleak Northern cliff I wait
With tear-pained eyes to see you come!
Will ye not tell me, ere too late!
Or will ye mock, while I am damb!

Tell me, oh tell me, mountain waves!
Whence have ye leaved and sprung to-day?
Have ye passed o'er there sleeping graves
'That ye rush wildly on your way?
Will ye sweep on and bear me too
Down to the caves within the deep?
Oh, bring some token to my view
'That ye my loved one safe will keep!

Canst thou not tell me, Polar Star! Where in the frozen waste he kneels?
And on the icy plains afar
His love to God and me reveals? Wilt thou not send one brighter ray To my lone heart and aching eye? Wilt thou not turn my night to day, And wake my spirit ere I dio?

Tell me, oh dreary North! for now
My soul is like thine Arctic zone;
Beneath the darkened skies! bow
Or ride the stormy sea alone!
Tell me of my beloved! for I
Know not a ray my lord without!
Oh! tell me, that I may not die
A sorrower on the sea of doubt!

A MONARCH'S DEATH.

Sad at heart with life, and weary—
Fature hopeless, cold and dreary,
Ever void of friendship's token,
In the world was he alone:
Bitter lot for suffering mortal;
Worse that he, with spirit broken,
Sat upon a kingly throne.

Youthful days a sunshine wearing, Beauteous bride his kingdom sharing, Every fairer hope besteaking Life for him wore robes of blva: While the bridal year was waning, She, with meekness ancomplaining, Brighter worlds of comfort seeking, Left a broken heart in this.

Lonely now—by all forsaken,
Fresh his early memories waken,
Ficturing her sweet face and figure
Through the mists of forty years;
Tenderly upon him smiling,
Fancy paints her, grief beguling,
Till the truth, in all its rigour,
Leaves him nought but fruitless ten

Busy thoughts his bosom thronging, Sudden rose a fearful longing As if there all hope was centered, Once more on her face to gaze; Quickly to the church he wended, Down the rugged steps descended, Silently the vault he entered, Tried the coffin-lid to raise.

Off it flew. How still within it
Lay that form; and for a minute
Life seemed in the coffin lying,
So unchanged the well-know:
Beautiful as sleep, yet calmer,
Canningly the skilled embalmer,
As for ever they were flying,
Sina-Yanah ins his fife. s for ever they were flying, Stay'd each tint that life ca

One last, lingering look is taken; And the aged monarch, shaken By the face that never alters Gazing on in youthful bloom Gazing on in youthful bloom,
That sad vision unavailing
Turns to leave, but vigour failing,
On the very threshold falters,
Finding there the welcome tomb.

Missed at length—in fruitless seeking
Pass the night, and morning breaking,
Everything their search delaying,
Till it chanced his steps were seen,—
Lifeless, in the vault they found him,
With the dead one's arms around him,
He had sought the besom, dying,
Where his love had ever been.

Darieties.

DEATH OF A MINER.—A curious instance of avarice on the gart of a man named Murdoch Manro, was discovered by his death which happened at Kelty lately. He came to live in Kelty about 88 years ago, and during the greater part of that time was employed as a labourer on the Blaindam estate, until a few weeks back, when from his enfeebled state of houlth, he was engaged in breaking road metal up till a few weeks of his death. He lived with a widow in Kelty, and on the occasion of his death. He lived with a work out of doors, when a neighbour happened to look in to enquire for Mardock, and it was discovered he was dead. Upon opening a chest, the first thing that presented itself was a bank cheque to the walne of £790 of the Bank of Scotland, Edinburgh, neatly folded in a piece of paper and sewed inside an old jacket. In the centre of the chest there were £213 in £1 and guinea notes, partly of the British Linen Company, and of the Bank of Scotland, of date 1812; and strewed along the bettom £24 in silver were found, rolled up in sums of 20s each, and some is 0\frac{1}{2} in copper cein—the whole amounting to no less a sum than £1,647 8s 0\frac{1}{2}d. He was not least suspected, of having money, but looked upon as one deserving chartry, so much so, that Sir Chas. Adam accidentally meeting with him a few weeks ago, gave him 2s. to relieve his apparent poverty.—Firehire Journal.

DO NOT NEGLECT IT.

Consumption can be and has been cured. in thousands of cases, by this only certain remedy, JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, and no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly Cure Consumption.

The most strongly marked and developed cases of Fulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated and the case so utterly hopeless, as to have been pronounced by Physicians and Griends, to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, have been cured by this wounderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as over. It is a compound of medications which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.

Its operation is mild, vet efficiency, it locens the pulsery which

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.

Its operation is mild, yet efficacious; it loosens the phlegm which creates so much difficulty, relieves the cough and assists nature to expel from the system all diseased matter by expectoration, producing a delightful change in the breathing and chest, and this, after the prescriptions of the very best medical men and the inventions of kind and sorrowing friends and Nurses, have failed to give the smallest relief to the Consumptive sufferer. THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE

THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE persons have been deceived repeatedly in buying medicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only palliatives, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for ulcerated lungs. It contains no deleterious Drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of blood, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night-aweats, &c. &c.

such as opitting of 8100d, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night-sweats, &c. &c.

About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for this medicine. but the publication of them looks too much like Quackery, [we will show them to any person, ealling at our office.] This medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried.

Caution.—This medicine is put up in a large bottle and you must find the name of Judson & Co., Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper around the bottle. All orders must be addressed to Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John St. New York.

COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT THE SKIN.

This dye may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIRLO a dark brown, and by repeating a second night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin will not colour it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no colouring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, Dr. COSSTOCK, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND STOMACH, WHEN IN A MOST HOPELESS STATE.

To Professor Holloway:
Sira,—Your valuable Fills have been the means, with God's blessing of restoring me to, a state of perfect health, and at a time when I thought I wan on the brink of the grave. I had consuled sourcal eminent Doctors, who, after doing what they considered my cane shapeles. I ought to say that I had been suffering from a Liver and Stomach complaint of long standing, which during the last two years got as much worse, that every one considered my cane in a last resource got a Box of your Fills, which soon gave relief, and by persevering in their use for some weeks, tagester with rubbing night and morning your Cintment over my chest and stomach and right side, I have by their means alone got completely cared, and to the astonishment of myself and every body a ha knows me.

To Professor Holloway.

Sin,—I beg to inform you that for nearly 5 years I hardly knew what it was to have a day's health, soffering from extreme weakness and debility, with constant nervous headaches, giddiness and sickness of the stomach, together with a great depression of pririts. I used to think that nothing could benefit me, as I had been to many medical men, some of whom, after doing all that was in their power, informed me that they considered that I had some spinal complaint beyond the reach of care, together with a very disordered state of the stomach and liver, making my case so complicated that nothing could be done for me. One day being unusually ill and in a dejected state, I saw your Pills advertised and resolved to give them a trial, more perhaps from curiosity than with a hope of being cured, however I soon found myself better by taking them—and so I went on persevering in their use for six months, when, I am happy to say they effected a perfect cure.

To Professor Holloway.

Sin,—I have the pleasure to inform you that many extraordinary cures of Asthma have been effected here by means of your Pills. One is that of a lady residing near the "Razorback," who after having for Twenty years been unable to make the slightest exertion, suffering very fearfully from shortness of breath, coughing and spitting, but is now, (to use her own expression) able to run up to the top of that mountain. Another case is that of Mr. Caton, Tailor, Hutchinson's buildings, Clarence-street, who was so dreadfully had that he was confined entirely to his bed-room or its mountae, prior to his commencing with your Pills, and attended regularly by his medical man, who pronounced hin to be in a djung state, yet he, likewise, to my knowledge, has been restor

To Professor Holloway.
Sin,—Various circumstances prevented the possibility of my thanking you before this time for your politeness in sending me your Pills as you did. I now take this opportunity of sending you an order for the amount and at the asme time to add, that your Pills have effected a cure of a disorder in my Liver and Stomach, which all the most eminent of the Faculty at home, and all over the Continent, had not been able to effect; no, not even the waters of Carlshad and Marienbad. I wish to have another the current of the Faculty at home, and all over the Continent, in case any of my family should ever require either. Your most obliged and obeclient Servant.
