This is what the great Edmund Burke says of the duty of a Representative. We want Mr. Snowball and his friends to read it:—

"It is the duty of your parliamentary representative to sacrifice his repose and his pleasures to yours, and above all, to prefer in ALL CASES YOUR INTEREST TO HIS OWN."

SIX FOR THE GOVERNMENT—THE SECOND FOR THE GRITS.

The Reformers have been successful in a small way in Carleton County, New Brunswick. They have elected a farmer from that county, one David Irvine who says, "he does not care so much for party as good Government; but that if he have any leaning to party, perhaps he would give the Opposition the preference."

large number of them never heard of the new law, while many of those who did "at one time hear about it," have now quite forgotten the fact.

In the name of goodness, blot out this miserable "regulation" farce if it cannot be enforced, and rid the country of the burthen of paying the inspectors. This, however, is only one sample of Inland Revenue management in this province and elsewhere.

THE PEOPLE'S SAVINGS.

From the Public Accounts we learn that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, the year when the dread N. P. was in operation, and when according to Mr. Snowball's prophecies the poor people of New Brunswick were to be utterly ruined the same poor people increased their deposits in the Savings Bank throughout the Province

From $1,705,781.80 To $1,911,948.25 An increase of $206,166.45

Now coming to the "Prophet of Ills" own county, poor Northumberland, we have the following exhibit: Balance due depositors 30 June 1879, Chatham and Newcastle, $210,714.90. On 30th June 1880, $230,627.07. An increase of $19,912.17.

We point to the above figures and ask our readers to study them. The N. P. was in full operation, yet the deposits in the Savings Banks in this Province exceeded the withdrawals by over $200,000, and in Northumberland by nearly $20,000.

INSULT TO INJURY. The Moncton Times and the Advocate were both mistaken when they said our Chatham had secured a Government grant.

The Moncton Times and the Advocate were both mistaken when they said our Chatham had secured a Government grant. It has secured nothing. Like all the rest of the county the past session, it was never thought about at Ottawa.

Lucy Stone denounces President Garfield's inaugural address because it is "eloquent for the rights of three millions of colored men," but "dumb for the rights of twenty millions of women."

Advices from Alaska state that a tribe of Indians at Hoonchoo recently burned two of their number at the stake for some unknown offence.

Ex-Sheriff White, and Mr. Taylor are stamping Sunbury. The election takes place on Wednesday next.

The Governor General soon starts up the Saskatchewan. He will go as far as Edmonton.

The Local Government have just created forty-nine J. P.'s!

Give the Grits two out of six and they howl for joy.

EDITORIAL GLEANINGS.

We ordered back numbers of the Canadian Monthly, and make extracts here and there which may prove of some interest.

In the October number we find "A Love Idyl" by C. P. M.—Charles Pelham Mulvaney, we presume. Without the initials at all we could have found the author, from the sweetness of the poem, and the beauty of its movement.

This is not Beaconsfield Eudymion; but it is the shepherd Eudymion whom the goddess Diana used to come from heaven to see as he tended his flocks.
