BILLIARDS.

M.G.C.A. AND C.E.I. ARRANGE TOURNAMENT.

A joint meeting of the M.G.C.A. and C.E.I. Billiard Committees, was held in the C.E.I. rooms last night; for the purpose of making arrangements for the proposed annual inter-club billiard tournament. After a lengthy discussion on the matter, it was decided to hold the series, commencing on Jan. 15th, next. It was also decided to select fifteen players from each club for competition, instead of twelve, as last year. A suitable trophy will be awarded, the rules for which will be drawn up later. In the meantime, the players of the respective Clubs intend to practice hard for the coming tournament, and with two months to make the necessary preparations, a lively series of games will eventually follow.

POT POURRI.

Battling Siki will enter the movies. His first starring film will be entitled "Abanthe Makes the Head Grow Softer."

The human fish sighted in South American waters is probably the same guy who tried to get rich betting on wrestling matches.

The Referee who gave 3 decisions at once in Georgia fight was almost mobbed by fans. Showing how little some folks appreciate generosity. The gentleman who claims there is no such thing as a perfect cow probably has never seen Zybsko in action.

PRO-HOCKEY GOSSIP.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—St. Patrick Hockey Club officers have adopted a new policy for building up their team. They summoned all their regulars—Nolan, Dye, Roach, Andrews, Corbeau, and Stuart—to a banquet and said: "We need another forward, and another defence man, who will we get?" The players named the amateurs they would like to see on the team, and the club scouts loaded up their fountain pens and started out. The team will assemble for practice Dec. 3rd, and will likely play Edmonton an exhibition game here December 8th.

Great BLANKET Sale

Cold Nights are coming Keep warm with a pair of our All-Wool Blankets

Much of our little day is night; a great portion of our life is passed in bed recovering from the world's harsh treatment.

Let those bed-time hours be spent in honest rest instead of weary tossing and chilly clutching at evasive bed clothes. Blankets have a lot to do with the way our nights are spent.

If they are good Wool Blankets, they promote warmth, healthy sleeps and a pleasant refreshing awakening. To appreciate the worth of OUR BLANKETS, you must know that only pure warm wool goes into them.
