CANADIANS AT ST. JULIEN

added quite simply, "I wrote my own life off." But the line never wavered.
"When one man fell another took his place, and, with a final shout, the survivors of the two battalions flung themselves into the wood. The German garrison was completely demoralized, and the impetuous advance of the Canadians did not cease until they reached the far side of the wood and entrenched themselves there in the position so dearly gained. They had, however, the disappointment of finding that the guns had been destroyed by the enemy, and later in the same night, a most formidable concentration of artillery fire, sweeping the wood as a tropical storm sweeps the leaves from the trees of a forest, made it impossible for them to hold the position for which they had sacrificed so much.

"Within a few hours of this attack, the 10th Canadian Battalion was again ordered to advance by Lieut.-Colonel Boyle, late a rancher in the neighborhood of Calgary. The assault was made upon a German trench which was being hastily constructed with in two hundred yards of the Battalion's right front. Machine gun and rifle fire opened upon the Battalion at the moment the charge was begun, and Colonel Boyle fell almost instantly with his left thigh pierced in five places. Major MacLaren, his second in command, was also wounded at this time. The Colonel's wounds were dressed, and he was carried to the first-aid station, and from there was

CHILDHOOD CONSTIPATION.

Mrs. Andrew G. Lund, Hughenden, Alta., writes: "Two of my babies were very much troubled with constipation and I tried several remedies without success. A neighbor advised me to try Baby's Own Tablets, and they were so satisfactory that now I would use nothing else." The Tablets never fail to cure constipation, and they may be given to the youngest child with perfect safety.
They are sold by medicine dealers, or by mail, at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Spring reminders of rheumatism removed to the field hospital, where he died shortly afterwards without regaining consciousness. Major Mac-Laren, already wounded, was killed by a shell while on his way to the hospital. The command of the 10th passed to Major Ormond, who was wounded. Major Guthrie, a lawyer from Fredericton, N. B., a member of the local Parliament, and a very resolute soldier, then took command of the Battalion.

"The fighting continued without intermission all through the night of April 22-23, and to those who observed the indications that the attack was being pushed with ever-growing strength, it hardly seemed possible that the Canadians, fighting in positions so difficult to defend, and so little the subject of choice, could maintain their resistance for any long period.

"Reinforcements of British troops, commanded by Colonel Geddes, began to arrive in the gap early on Friday morning. The grenadier company of a battalion of the Northumberland Fusiliers, numbering two officers and 120 men, who were on their way to rejoin their division after eight days of trench fighting at Hill 60, encountered Colonel Geddes' force, and joined it.

"At 6 a.m. on Friday, the 2nd Canadian Brigade was still intact, but the 3rd Canadian Brigade, on the left, was bent back upon St. Julien. It became apparent that the left became more and more involved, and a powerful German attempt to outflank it developed rapidly. The consequences, if it had been broken or outflanked, need not be insisted upon. It was therefore decided, formidable as the attempt undoubtedly was, to try to give relief by a counter-attack upon the first line of German trenches, now far, far advanced from those originally occupied by the French. The attack was carried out at 6:30 a.m. by the 1st (Ontario) Battalion and the 4th Battalion of the 1st Brigade, under Brigadier-General Mercer, acting with Geddes' detachment. The 4th was in advance, and the 1st in support, under the covering fire of the 1st Canadian Artillery Brigade.

"It is safe to say that the youngest private in the ranks, as he set his teeth for the advance, knew the task in front of him, and all that rested on its success. It did not seem that any human being could live in the shower of shot and shell which began to play upon the advancing troops. They suffered terrible casualties. For a short time every man seemed to fall, but the attack was pressed ever closer and closer. The 4th Canadian Battalion at one moment came under a particularly withering fire. For a moment, not more, it wavered. Its most gallant commanding officer, Lieut.-Colonel Birchall, coolly and cheerfully rallied his men, and at the very moment when his example had infected them, fell dead at the head of his battalion. With a hoarse cry of anger they sprang forward (for, indeed, they loved him), as if to avenge his death.

"The astonishing attack which followed, pushed home in the face of direct frontal fire, made in broad daylight by battalions whose names should live for ever in the memories of soldiers, was carried to the first line of the German trenches. After a hand-to-hand struggle, the last German who resisted was bayoneted, and the trench was won.

"The measure of our success may be taken when it is pointed out that this trench represented, in the German advance, the apex in the breach which the enemy had made in the original line of the Allies, and that it was two and a half miles south of that line. This charge, made by men who looked death indifferently in the face—for no man who took part in it could think that he was likely to live—saved, and that was much, the Canadian left. But it did more.

"Up to the point where the assailants conquered, or died, it secured and maintained during the most critical moment of all, the integrity of the Allied line. For the trench was not only taken—it was held thereafter against all comers, and in the teeth of every conceivable projectile, until the night of Sunday, April 23th, when all that remained of the war-broken but victorious battalions was relieved by fresh troops."

THE KAISER'S GOD AND OURS.

"God is with us," say the Germans,
"With us to the very end;
"We are all His chosen people,
"And our cause He will defend."
Woe to all the Christian nations If our God is with the one Whom we all, in righteous accents, Call the "God-forsaken Hun."

If our God be with the Germans, Then has Christ's death gone for nought—Throw away your Holy Bible, Vain are Christian battles fought;
"God" and "Christ" are simply by-words;
All the world is lost indeed, If our God is with the Germans When they trample "faith" and "creed."

Murdered babies, outraged maidens, Mutilated, form and face, Show, according to the Germans, God's amazing, saving grace.
Desecrated family altar, Violated womanhood,
Are the things our Christ did sanction When He shed his precious blood.

God of old, hear us! Your children, We believe, have faith in You; Well we know You do not sanction Anything the Germans do.
"Inasmuch as ye have done it," Unto one, the least of these,"
Is the creed that we would follow—Prayerfully, on bended knee.

Hear us, then, Ye Mighty Master, We will crush the German crown, Who has used Your name so vilely, Who has cast Your precepts down.
We will fight 'til all is finished, 'Til we crush this godless foe; Then we'll sing with hearty voice, "Praise "God from Whom all blessings flow."

PREMIER "PERFECT" SILOS

Great care is taken in selecting the stock for our Premier "Perfect" Silos, the material used being No. 1 Norway Pine.
All lumber used in our silos is thoroughly seasoned and after the staves are machined they are not dipped in some patent stain, which wears off and is of little or no use, but are treated with a special preservative and coated with the best weather-proof paint obtainable.

The possession of a Silo enables the farmer to keep more cattle and so increase his revenue. If you want to increase your herd and your profits

BUY A SILO

As long as a farmer is without a silo he is curtailing the profits

Production and Thrift

"CANADA from her abundance can help supply the Empire's needs, and this must be a comforting thought for those upon whom the heavy burden of directing the Empire's affairs has been laid. Gain or no gain the course before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made, and I believe this to be especially true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which must be particularly affected in this vast struggle. Stress and strain may yet be in store for us all before this tragic conflict is over, but not one of us doubts the issue, and Canadians will do their duty in the highest sense of that great word."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

"MODERN war is made by resources, by money, by foodstuffs, as well as by men and by munitions. While war is our first business, it is the imperative duty of every man in Canada to produce all that he can, to work doubly hard while our soldiers are in the trenches, in order that the resources of the country may not only be conserved, but increased, for the great struggle that lies before us. 'Work and Save' is a good motto for War-time."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

THE CALL OF EMPIRE COMES AGAIN IN 1916

TO CANADIAN FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, FRUIT GROWERS, GARDENERS

WHAT IS NEEDED? THESE IN PARTICULAR—

WHEAT, OATS, HAY,
BEEF, PORK, BACON,
CHEESE, EGGS, BUTTER, POULTRY,

CANNED FRUITS, FRUIT JAMS, SUGAR, HONEY, WOOL, FLAX FIBRE, BEANS, PEAS, DRIED VEGETABLES

We must feed ourselves, feed our soldiers, and help feed the Allies. The need is greater in 1916 than it was in 1915. The difficulties are greater, the task is heavier, the need is more urgent, the call to patriotism is louder—therefore be thrifty and produce to the limit.

"THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK FOR 1916" is now in the press. To be had from The Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.
