Annual Camp of London District Salvation Army.

The Daily Doings at Woodland Park-The Officers Present—A Big Time for Sunday Next.

The camp meeting under the auspices of the Salvation Army of the London District has been going on since Monday last at Woodland Park, about 300 yards below the cemetery on the bank of the river. The cemetery on the bank of the river. The situation, is a splendid one for camping, being one of those picturesque thickly wooded spots of which men shut up in dingy offices, stores and shops, think longingly on a hot and dusty day. The trip down the river on the steamers is a pleasant one, the banks and wooded stretches looking fresh and green under the influence of the recent rains and subsequent sunshine. Arriving at Woodland dock a short walk to the right brings the visitor to

The Crop Outlook.

St. Paul, Minn., July 6.—According to reports received by the Northern Pacific and the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railroads, the wheat crop in Minnesota, South Dakota, and North Dakota, although not as encouraging as early indications led farmers to hope, is being considerably improved by good rains within the last three or four days. It will hardly be an average crop, but is by no means a failure in any district.

A Canadian Killed in Oregon.

Astoria, Ore., July 4.—John Boldt, a fisherman from Gloucester, Mass., and John W. Lucas, a Canadian, quarreled over some salmon on Tuesday. They agreed to settle their dispute with bare knuckles. After fighting seven rounds Lucas was "knocked out" by a blow which broke his jaw. When he regained consciousness he expressed his willingness to continue the contest with either pistols or knives. Boldt preferred pistols, and they took positions twenty paces apart. Four shots were exchanged. One of the bullets lodged in Boldt's forehead, breaking the bone, and another in Lucas' neck. Lucas' wound proved fatal. Boldt was arrested.

Crop Prospects in the States.
CHICAGO, July 8.—The Farmers' Review reports that the hay crop of the present season will fall somewhat below the average, particularly in Minnesota and Dakota, drought being the cause. With respect to this and most other staple crops there is now every prospect that Kansas will prove the banner State of 1889. Corn in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota is below the average. The condition continues favorable in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Iowa Kentucky, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. With the exception of Indiana, Minnesota and Dakota the prospects for cats in all the States covered by the reports are very flattering. In Dakota half a crop only, and in the two other States menti oned 12 per cent. below the average, All other States report a high perceatage of condition, and the yield ought to prove heavy. All the States report more or less destruction to corn pasture and garden truck from wire army and cut worms, but it is not probable that the loss from this cause will be greater than usual.
