The building, owned by A. McMeans, was also insured. Mr. Nelson had a narrow escape, being overcome by smoke in trying to save his books. The Birchall Case.

WOODSTOCK, Aug. 21.—As the time approaches for the trial of J. Rex Birchall, the murder of F. C. Bewell, the case is well in body and calm, if not in mind. He eats and sleeps well, and takes a lively interest in all that goes on within the restricted circle of his daily life. He takes delight in exercising his talent for pen and ink drawing, and he has his room literally decorated with the products of his art. The use of force is a subject of general speculation, and those who favor Birchall's side seem to feel confident of the result of the trial, basing their confidence apparently upon the tone of the people engaged in the defense. One thing is pretty clear, however, there will be no attempt to prove an alibi and the case will go upon the merits of the evidence collected by the two sides.

Not only is it all the necessary money ready, but the site at both ends can be secured just the place where the bridge would be most convenient to all of the railroads.

The high bridge now under consideration contemplates but two piers in the river: neither being in the direct channel and of aerial span between them, 140 feet above the water. This bridge is of sufficient height to clear the masts of any vessel on the lakes, with one or two exceptions.

ALL VANDERBILT LINES.

K. of L. Men To Be Ordered Out on All Systems.

Very Unsatisfactory Conference with Vice-President Webb.

Assaults on Employees—The Big Strike Increasing in Magnitude—Port Huron Freight Handlers Want an Increase.

Vice-President Webb said he did not doubt the Supreme Council of the Federation would call out the men, but he was of opinion that the number who would respond would not be so great after all.

It is understood the leaders of the Knights are working on a statement to the public, which will be given out late in the day.

CALLED ON MR. WEBB.

New York, Aug. 20.—Mr. Powderly and Mr. Devin, of the Executive Board of the K. of L., called on Vice-President Webb at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Webb was with Mr. Devin, and the four gentlemen had an interview, which lasted twenty minutes. At the conclusion Mr. Powderly told the reporters what had transpired. Mr. Devin asked Mr. Webb if he would consent to an investigation of the causes surrounding the discharge of the fifteen men. Mr. Webb answered that there was nothing to investigate; that the railway company were managing the road, and he did not see why their actions should be questioned. Mr. Devin then asked him if he did not owe the public and the employees of the road any duty regarding its management, and Mr. Webb did not reply. Mr. Devin then said there was no use in further discussing the question, as the railway company had declared themselves in favor of an independent course. Mr. Toney then said that Master Workman Lee was primarily responsible for the strike. Mr. Devin asked Mr. Toney if he would waive the question of Mr. Lee's action and consider the discharge of the other men. Messrs. Toney and Webb refused, and that ended the conference.

AN APPEAL TO THE EMPLOYEES.

New York, Aug. 20.—General Master Workman Powderly will to-morrow issue an appeal to all true K. of L. in the employ of the Central Hudson Railway and upon the Vanderbilt connecting lines. In the document he will state the causes for the strike and the efforts made to obtain a peaceful settlement of the intention of the Executive Board of the K. of L. to prosecute the freight handlers at the shops of the Port Huron and Duluth line of steamers are on a strike. They demand an increase of 5 cents an hour.

NOTES OF THE BIG STRIKE.

Chas. Oswald, a young New York Central brakeman, was seen alive sitting on the bridge at Spuytenwyld this afternoon. When the train rolled into the yard at Seventy-fifth street at 5 p.m., he lay dead on his car with a dent as if made by a brick behind the ear.

A reporter at 11 p. m. roused Messrs. Webb and Voorhis from their beds at the Grand Central depot. They granted him a short interview, and then he returned to his room. When told that a general strike over the whole system would be declared to-night or in the morning, and that the strike meant all employees but the engineers, Mr. Webb appeared somewhat startled. Neither he or Mr. Voorhis made any comment thereon.

Mr. Powderly to-night said that in his appeal to the mechanics and the employees of the Central Hudson system and connecting lines he will call upon them to stop work at once. In the Grand Central depot are employed 75 firemen and the same number of switchmen, supposed to be there to provide for any emergency.

ONE MORE REPORT.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Aug. 21.—As a result of yesterday's conference at Buffalo with the other railroad operatives, Commissioner Donovan goes to New York to-day to make one more effort with the Central Railroad authorities for an amicable settlement of the existing controversy.

LATEST FROM THE STRIKE.

New York, Aug. 21.—Mr. Sargeant said this morning that a meeting of the Federation would be held at Terre Haute, where the result would be a strike on the whole Vanderbilt system would be ordered, as he and three associates had induced the members of the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor. He thoroughly believed the Supreme Council of the Federation would sustain it. He said last night in adhering so firmly to the stand he had taken rendered the action they had taken necessary. Mr. Webb's arbitrary methods aimed to "incubate" make it useless to deal with him.

Mr. Powderly sent word to the reporters this morning that he would have nothing to say for several days.

General Manager Toney took a north bound train this morning. He declined to state where he was going.
