MR. CHARLES LANGLIER'S CASE.

His Petition to Have the Matter Cone Before the Grand Jury Denied.

QUEBEG, Oct. 18.—Mr. Charles Lunglier presented a petition to the court to-day stating he has been informed that an indictment for malieasance in office has been placed before the grand jury and taken away without any reason, and he asked that the grand jury be not discharged but his case be submitted to them, but the judge declared that he could not do anything in the matter and the a discharged the jury.

The foreman of the jury then called the
