papers here are warmly discussing the treaty entered into by England and Algeria.
The French press says that the treaty will result in a great increase in the number of troops which will be sent to Algeria, and that this will result in a great increase in the number of troops which will be sent to Algeria.

a deputation from the other side.

Photographing Bullets.

BIRMINGHAM, Dec. 6.—Prof. Fritsch, lecturing in the Museum of Ethnology to 200 military officers, stated that with the aid of electricity he had been able to photograph projectiles in transit. He exhibited photographs showing the air waves caused by the bullets, which form a regular record of the velocity with which they had traveled.
The apparatus used by the professor is the invention of a boy named Vernon, a resident of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Pere Hyacinthe's Views.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—Pere Hyacinthe, lecturing in a hall in support of the new movement to establish a Christian Apostolic Church, stated that the new church will not be hostile to existing churches. He declared that according to church statistics 30,000,000 out of the 38,000,000 French Catholics do not receive the sacrament of Eucharist and are consequently excommunicated. Pere Hyacinthe attributes the public indifference to the narrow views expounded by ministers.

respecting a buffer state between the

The communication states that the negotiations for a treaty are still in progress.

The Cabinet Came Apart.

ROME, Dec. 6.—Unexpected complications arose today in the cabinet, which Zanardelli finally completed yesterday.

The Premier, after vain efforts to restore harmony, went to King Humbert this afternoon with his resignation. He had found it impossible, he said, to form a cabinet which would work harmoniously and successfully.

The Gallery Fell.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The drill hall in Bristol was crowded this evening during the performance of a horse tamer. Shortly before the programme was to end the gallery, containing 200 persons, collapsed. All were carried down with it. Twelve persons were injured, five so severely that they must be taken to the hospital. Nobody received mortal wounds.

Miss Adele Grant's Engagement.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The announcement of the engagement between the American beauty of several seasons, Miss Adele Grant, and Lord Essex, is a fruitful topic of talk. As she has been the heroine of several transatlantic love affairs, she is well known in the "smart set" here, and it seems a satisfaction to her friends that her career as an unmarried belle is at an end so brilliantly. She is as pretty as ever, and Lord Essex, who not long ago came into the title, is a man of considerable fascination of manner. He is a widower, with one child—a son—whose health is decidedly delicate.

England's Great Heiress.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—England's greatest heiress is Miss Nellie Bass, a bright and pretty girl, very popular in society, and her recent engagement to a "Hiland lad," handsome Mr. Baillie, of Loch-port, is one of the "hot" topics of conversation. An amusing little story, very characteristic of Miss Bass' quick wit and pluck, was current during the past season.
Two young men were discussing her rather freely in a conservatory, on the night of a "smoker" ball, and she, sitting among the palms waiting while her last partner returned, said to the one who was speaking of her: "Well, she's a jolly girl, and she's got a lot of money; but she isn't——exactly Vere de Vere."

Cost of the British Coal Strike.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Statistics of the great strike of the English coal miners which ended a few days ago show that during the sixteen weeks of the strike the normal output of 63,000,000 tons dropped to 39,000, 000. Ordinarily 11,000,000 tons are exported and 49,000,000 tons consumed in England in the period mentioned, but during the strike only 8,750,000 tons were exported and 27,250,000 tons consumed.
The estimated loss to mine owners, iron masters, railways, etc., was £13,255,615.
The consumers paid in increased prices £1,767,000; miners, iron workers and other artisans lost £18,208,000. The total general loss is placed at £33,221,215. The workers rendered idle numbered 1,608,250, which meant 3,511,425 persons in destitute condition.

The Princess and Lord Rosebery.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The gossip regarding Lord Rosebery and the Princess of Wales second daughter is being handled about in the liveliest manner, and there is little doubt that the voice of the public, at all events, would give its consent. The princess, by the way, has a will of her own, and is rather fond of escaping from monotony and amusing herself in an original manner from time to time.

Not long ago, for instance, she obtained leave to visit an old preceptor (much loved by the royal family) who owns a quiet but pretty little place in the country.
Not one of the neighbors, gentlefolk though they were, had ever seen the young princess, whose photographs are scarcely to be seen in the papers, and she revealed in the "dark" of mis-quoting as "Miss Wells" during the length of her fortnight's visit. She played tennis and golf, drank 5 o'clock tea and dined with some of the daughters of the square, and the doctor just like any middle-class young lady. Her pleasant manners and readiness of a joke endeared her to every one. Nobody could dance and play tennis as she could, and she was a very popular guest. Her real identity was not known until after she had left, when it came out by accident, and great was the astonishment evoked.

Norfolk Patrons.

VICTORIA, Ont., Dec. 6.—The Patrons of Industry held a very large meeting in the of Toronto, for the latter. Stirling speeches were delivered by Messrs. Stratford, of Hamilton, and Currie, of Middlesex.

Another Lehigh Wreck.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 6.—Another wreck took place on the Wyoming division of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at Port Bowley this morning. Engine 240 going west with a train of freight cars crashed into three engines standing coupled together near Port Bowley depot. The freight cars were wrecked and the three engines badly damaged. One of the cylinders was sent sailing through the waiting-room of the depot.

forms.

ing was held in the opera house last night, penter, M.P.P. The chair was occupied by Wm. Sutton, president of the local Reform Association. Mr. Charlton dealt with Dominion issues and also paid particular attention to the platform of the Patrons of Industry, which, he said, was identical with that of the Liberal party.

The Michigan Central Railroad has built an ice house at Seaforth, Ont., which was destroyed by fire on Friday. It has a steel turret, with proper openings for the express guards to shoot through with the rifle at would-be train robbers. Several similar cars are in process of construction.

An ice house took place in Belleville last night on Sunday night, doing a great deal of damage. Several docks were injured, and two steam tugs and four or five schooners moored in the harbor for winter were carried out some distance from the

A RECORD-BREAKER.

Pronounced Success of the Fat Stock Show.

GUELPH, Dec. 6.—The Provincial Fat Stock Show, which opened in the city today, is a record-breaker. All the prominent stockmen in the Province are in the city. The entries exceed by one-third those of any previous exhibition. The display of poultry is particularly fine. In fact, expert judges say it is the best ever seen in the Dominion. The cattle entries are large, and while there are no very striking specimens of excellence the average quality is above former years. Sheep and swine entries are very large.

Terrible Accident in a Blenheim Stage Mill—Samuel Hammond Meets a Fearsome Fate.

BLENHIM, Ont., Dec. 6.—Samuel Hammond, aged 19, son of William Hammond, a stage driver, was killed at a noon to-day in the stage and heading mill of Mr. J. R.
Coates.

The accident was caused by the bursting of the wheel on the heading jointer machine. The wheel, which is four feet in diameter with several knives attached, was running at a high rate of speed. Hammond was in the act of passing to the opposite side when the wheel burst with terrible force, literally cutting the unfortunate man to pieces. One portion of the body has resulted in a great increase in sickness. A number of prominent professional and business men are down with the grip. Mr. McNiel, general passenger agent of the Canada Pacific, has been laid up for a week with it.

Lady Wolsey, wife of the British general, and her two sons, Samuel and David, leaving her $500,000 share of her husband's estate to three other daughters.
The disinherited children have been contesting the case in California courts and it is now said that the three daughters will secure the $500,000 and offer $250,000 to the three contestants to withdraw their suits. David and Samuel at once agreed to the offer and are awaiting advice from Lady Wolsey. It is said that when final decision is made David will keep his first promise and give his share to his sister, Lady Wolsey. Eugene Murphy, of New York, the eldest son, took no part in the family trouble. Fanny Murphy is said to be living in London with Miss Mugger, brother of the husband of her sister Nellie.

XVIII., and has been continued since

THE STRIKE OFF.

The Lehigh Valley Tie-Up Settled
by Arbitration.

Strikers to be Re-Employed Without Prejudice—The Company
Agreeable.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 6.—At 2:35 a.m. the Lehigh Valley strike was declared off.

RANTON, Pa., Dec. 6.—A dispatch received by the Lehigh Valley Railroad officials here this morning from General Manager Voorhees says: "Strike declared off; make no change in existing conditions." The decision, as reached by the New York and New Jersey State Board of Arbitration and agreed to by the Lehigh Valley President, Mr. Wilbur, provides that the strikers be taken back—as many as the company has room for—without prejudice to the said strikers because they quit work. The rules posted by Vice-President Voorhees, on Aug. 7, to be adhered to.

RETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 7.—The settlement of the strike on the Lehigh Valley is due wholly to the work of State boards of arbitration of New York and New Jersey. The Lehigh Valley officials and arbitrators had a friendly and satisfactory audience, and the amicable settlement was effected by the arbitrators' interference and a week with it.

Vice-President Hartshorn views the result as a victory for the company.

President Wilbur telephoned from Rethlehem to-day: "The men can claim it they quit work. The strike is a victory for them. We know that it is not."

Fever Epidemic.

spreading in the city, and the doctors are having their hands full attending to the patients. The number of the past few days has resulted in a great increase in sickness. A number of prominent pro-
the grip. Mr. McNiel, general passenger
up for a week with it.

Scarlet fever is also very prevalent, and the number of deaths among children is greatly above the average.
