MIDDLESEX COUNTY COUNCIL. Important Motion Wade by Mr. R. Bos-ton, M.P.—Education Questions— House of Refuge Matters.

The County Council resumed busine The County Council resumed business this afternoon at 2 o'clock. It was moved by R. Boston, M.P., seconded by James Gilmour, that in the opinion of this council provisions should be made for the holding of weekly sittings of a judge of the High Court of Justice at London; that such sittings would result in great benefit to the public and would reduce the cost of litigation in actions in sittington the members of the Ontario Legislature be petitioned by this council to enact such legislation as may be necessary to provide for the holding of such weekly sittings. Referred to the petitioning committee.

tion for $800 as county grant to the Collegiate Institute, was referred to the finance committee.

R. M. McElheran submitted an account of $365 29, the amount due from the county to the city for Model School expenses in 1890, 1891 and 1892. Referred to the finance committee.

Col. John Macbeth asked for some minor repairs to his office in the court house. Referred to jail committee.

City Clerk Kingston inclosed a resolution adopted by the City Council asking the County Council to join them in the erection of a bridge over the Wharncliffe road at the limit of London West.

W. Scarrow moved, and John Platt seconded, that the clerk notify the city that the county was ready to join with them in the construction of the bridge.

The matter was referred to the board.

The council went into committee of the whole on the report of the house of refuge committee. The report recommended (1st) that needy persons be admitted from the county of Lambton to the House of Refuge at Strathroy. Considerable discussion resulted in this clause being struck out. The clause regarding the heating and ventilation of this institution was under consideration when it was decided to refer the whole report back to the committee.

Adjourned until 1 o'clock to-day.

Acommittee of the County Council in spected a bridge over the Thames, on the 5th concession of London township. They found that a deposit of gravel on the west bank was diverting the stream over towards the other end of the bridge, and that it would not take long to drive the water over into a completely new channel and leave the bridge spanning dry land. The committee will recommend that joint action be taken, and that a five-foot channel be cut through the gravel for a distance of 100 feet.

The Dominion Government Asked to Test the Popular Vote,

The Board of Works met last evening, Ald, Garratt (chairman). Dreaney, Coo. Shaw and Thomas Jones, Secretary Bell and City Engineer Graydon being present. The city engineer wanted the bylaw regulating boulevards amended. He cited cases where he claimed streets had been ruined by the removal of sidewalks. He will report on the desired changes.

The London Retail Grocers' Association asked for the use of Queen's Park on either July 26 or Aug. 2, for their annual pionic. Inspector Bell's request for a desk was granted.

A request to a sidewelk on Brydges street was referred to the engineer.

The Board of Health recommended the use of North's gully traps. Referred to the engineer.

The Board of Health recommended the use of North's gully traps. Referred to the engineer recommended the purchase of a road scraper. Filed.

Tenders were then epened for permanent camp buildings. F. J. Reid's tender was for $4,897, made up as follows: Thirty-eight kitchen covers, $570; 8 men's latrines, $216; 6 efficers' latrines, $126; 2 officers' stables, $310; 1 stable (30 stalls) for artillery horses, $675; 2 stables (90 stalls) for avalry, $3,900. Tambling & Jones' tender was tor $3,650, and Peter Tole's for $2,975. The estimates allowed only $1,500.

The engineer recommended the purchase of a request of last session was held in the old legislative building in Toronto last September. Whereas, Canadians have shown by their despecies of nearly a century their ability for self-government; therefore, be it resolved that this congress petition the canadian Parliament to take the necessary means to secure the establishment and recognition of the independence of Canada. The mover was Mr. St. Pierre, of the staff of Le Canadian, Mr. Tarte's paper, and his French-Canadian colleagues cheered his speech.

Next came Mr. R. Glockling, who moved that the resolution lie on the table until next session of the congress, and that it be an instruction to the secretary to have copies of the same forwarded to this congress for discussion, they to be instructed to have a vote taken in their respective bodies, and to return the result of the same.

Mr. A. F. Jury moved as a substitute

"That owing to the great conflict ef opinion as to the political future of this country, this congress petition the Dominion Government to submit to a popular vote the following questions:

"The maintenance of our present colonial status, imperial federation, Canadian independence, political union with the United States."

This substitute was adouted but the pendence, political union with the United States."

This substitute was adopted, but the secretary was instructed to forward all the motions to the local bodies, so that a vote might be taken upon them. All this was explained by President T. W. Banton at the Trades Council after routine business, and before the debate began.

Mr. D. J. O'Donoghue declared that all the council should do was to pass upon the question as to whether the Dominion Government should be asked to take a popular vote upon the three questions.

Mr. R. Glockling said the members should discuss the merits of the propositions, not merely as to whether the vote of the people should be taken. There was some debate on this, and to place the question properly before the members Mr. Charles March, seconded by Mr. R. Glockling, moved that the council indorse the amendment.

Mr. H. T. Benson, speaking for the builders'laborers, said his union was of the opinion that wage-carners would be not one whit better under either independence or political union than at present.

whit better under either independence or political union than at present.

Mr. F. C. Cribben, speaking for the Shoemakers' Union, moved that "this council is of the opinion that while the present wage system obtains it is immaterial to wage-earners as to which form of government prevails," In support of this Mr. Cribben said the destiny of Canada is not a live issue with wage-workers, and that they suffer equally under a monarchy or a republic. The question was one which should not be introduced into labor bodies any more than religion. This motion of Mr. Cribben's was seconded by Mr. Walter Birnell.

Mr. O'Donoghue strongly objected to the narrow-minded tyranny of men who, because they opposed annexation or independence, wished to prevent an expression of the popular will.
