ST. THOMAS FANS HAPPY SAINTS TRIUMPH IN FIRST Could Have Tied It Up in the Ninth

But London Expected That, and Manager Cocash's Team Will See That It Does Not Occur Again-"Glad" Graney and Umpire Smith Responsible for London's Loss.

St. Thomas, Sept. 3.—St. Thomas is rejoicing tonight. St. Thomas is lant. The London Tecumsehs might have been able to finish one step above them in the Canadian League ladder, but when it comes to a showdown, the aggregation ruled over by "Daq Stewart is a classier outfit, and it is going to win this post-season series That is what they are saying in St. Thomas this evening, and we wiser ones from London are letting them say it. It does not hurt, and besides there is going to be a cruel awakening before the week is out. Yes, St. Thomas will be wearing sackcloth before the week is ended, and then it will be London's turn to smile.

BEWARE, ST. THOMAS.

They are celebrating the Saints' triumph this evening, and the very gutters are colleged by They have forgotten that old saw about "He who laughs last, laughs best." They have forgotten everything except that the Stewart clan copped the first game of the post-season series by the score of 5 to 0. They have even forgotten that today's game was only the first one of the series, and not the last, but let them have a good time while they can. It won't last long, and then it will be London's turn to lift off the joy lid.

"Coke" Gilhooley and Linneburn, and it was Co-cash's own errors in the outfield which gave St. Thomas the game. "Coke" missed two easy little flies in the fourth inning after two were out, and these were responsible for two of the runs. Some weird umpiring by Charlie Smith, who is about the worst in the business, was responsible for the other runs. This man Smith could not umpire a dog fight and do it in a fair and impartial manner. If he knew that one of the dogs came from St. Thomas he would hand that dog all the decisions and proclaim it a winner even though the other canine had it by the throat and was taking every inch by the throat and throat and the touch the fourth to King. LONDON C.R.A. HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

Mr. J. K. H. Pope Resigns as President and Is Succeeded by Capt. Miller, of St. Thomas.

The sixth annual meting of the London Civilian Rifle Association was held at the McClary Manufacturing Company's plant on Wellington street yesterday afternoon, and if enthusiasm counts for anything, their annual shoot on Sept. 25 will be a great suc-

of their popular president, Mr. J. K. H. Pope, who has held the position for the past six years, and who is succeedvice-president, ed by the energetic Capt. R. J. Miller, St. Thomas.

Capt. Miller's right-hand man as vice-president will be Capt, Miller, of the Dungannon Association, whose team made such a good showing at Toronto last month, and who are expected to show up well at London. Several important changes were made in the bylaws.

One of these governing team entries was under discussion when a letter was received from Mr. Gordon, Woodstock, asking, on behalf of Oxford County, to reduce the number of men on each team to five.

The suggestion was unanimously adopted, and the entrance fee teams reduced to $5, with a fee of $2 for each team over one from each association. The number of team prizes was increased, as were also the tyros' and trophy matches.

The matches, which were up till this year confined to a few counties, will hereafter be open to any civilian rifle association in Ontario, and as the executive and officers are all chosen from associations outside of London the resident and his assistants look for oyal support in their efforts to build up Wolselev Baracks are the best markers and register keeper that can be obtained. "Glad" Grancy was the star of the game. Without him the Saints would able to play in the London-St. Thomas not have had a lookin. He has recovered from his injury and is in good Ottawa last week.

The St. Thomas fans jollied Sammy Smith all through the contest, but it was a harmless sort of roasting. In the sixth when Sammy doubled to right, he was given a great hand, and the crowd was anxious to see him score. It was a big bad throw to Bierbauer. Ernie was too anxious to get the ball down to the base disappointment when he was left on the gold champion of the United States, was defeated 2 up and 1 in the first round of match play today by C. G. Waldo, of Brooklawn. The former British champion was off his game and lost all the

English Champion Loses His Title at Wheaton-Heat Was Too Much for Him. . Wheaton, Ill., Sept. 3.-H. H. Hilton,

Hilton fought gallantly for his title and left the links almost in tears. It was a nerve-racking struggle. Waldo was only three up on the twelfth green, but the British crack never get his head above

"Gee, I wouldn't like to have to do that again," said Waldo. Friends and strangers crowded around Waldo with praises and congratulations. Hilton, after grasping Waldo's hand, Hitton, after grasping Waldo's hand, dolefully tried his last putt over and walked away. He mopped his face and eyes with his handkerchief.
