HYMANS, A. M. C., HUSSARS BOTH LONDON RINKS WON CITY LEAGUE GAMES OUT OF THE RUNNING

Meds Were Beaten Out in the Last Period in First Game-Orients Beaten by Army Meds and Seventh Succumbed to Hussars.

Three splendid exhibitions of hockey were witnessed by a large crowd at the Simcoe rink last evening, the six City League teams participating. Despite the mild weather, Manager Winder provided a splendid sheet of ice, and the first two makes were particularly fast. By the time the third game was played, the ice had become sticky, but the third game was only a trifle less speedy than the other two.

Hymans broke into the victory column when they outlasted the Meds in the second half of the first game, and won out by the close score of 3 to 2. The A. M. C. team ran up a score on the Orients in the second game, winning by 1 to 1, and the First Hussars outclassed the Seventh Regiment in the good-night contest by the score of 8 to 1.

HYMANS 3. MEDS 2.

The Meds were a trifle handicapped in the first contest by the fact that they were playing six men against the Hyman team's seven. However, the six-man were playing six men against the Hyman team's seven. However, the six-man were leading by the score of 2 to 0.

Penalties for minor offences were numerous in the second period, the ice becoming sticky and the checking hard. Soon after the start of the half, Wilson notched Hyman's first goal, and a little later came back and repeated the trick notched Hyman's first goal, and shortly before the end of the game Brown This put new life into the tanners, and shortly before the end of the game Brown the Hyman teritory but were unable to beat Patten.

'Nig' Wilson, Parkinson and McRoberts played a good game for the winners, "Nig' Wilson, Parkinson and McRoberts played a good game for the winners, while Lecky, Martin and Acheson were the best for the students. Sinclair and Acheson were responsible for the Meds' two scores.

McKay drew first blood, and a minute later duplicated the feat. Lankin ran in the third for the A. M. C. team, and just before half-time Callahan scored the Orient's only east. the third for the A. M. C. team, and job Orient's only goal.

In the second half, the A. M. C. team got the combination working, and they were not on the fence so much as in the first period. Buchanan was shifted to were not on the fence so much as in the forward line. The A. M. C. ran cover-point and Chantler took his place on the forward line. The A. M. C. ran six more goals and held the Orients scoreless during the half. In six more goals and held the Orients scoreless during the same was fairly clean. Although numerous penalties were a number of hard checks and trips, and as Owing to the heavy fee there were a number of hard checks and trips, and as Owing to the heavy ice there were a number of hard checks and trips, and as Referee Carrothers will not stand for anything that even looks like rough work, he paraded a few of the players to the boards. However, in the second half the teams realized they had to play the game, so that the penalty timekeeper had a easier time of it in that period.

IcKay, Lankin and McGeoch were the stars of the winners, while Hagerman, McKay, Lankin and McGeoch were the stars of the winners, while Hagerman, Callahan and Orr played a great game for the losers. The teams were:

The last game was the cleanest of the evening. In this contest the Seventh Regiment were defeated by the First Hussars by the score of 3 to 1, but despite the one-sidedness of the score, the losers gave the Hussars a battle all the way, the one-sidedness of the score, the losers gave the Hussars a battle all the way, and only the superior team work of the red and black uniformed players won for them. The score was 5 to 0 at half-time, and this was imposed in the last The Hussars only suffered one penalty, and this was imposed in the last minute of play. The Seventh were only penalized three or four times, and this was mainly for loafing, the heavy ice tiring the players.

Nelles, Thompson and Sinclair starred for the Seventh, while the two McNelles, Thompson and Sinclair starred for the Hussars. Campbell in Phillips, McLean and Wells played a good game for the Hussars. ### PARIS BEAT GUELPH VICS. BY BIG SCORE

Look Like District Winners — London Is Only Team That Is Feared by Paris Fans.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Parls, Jan 15.—The Guelph Victorias were handed a record-beating here this evening when the local Intermediates walked through them at every stage of the game and piled in thirty goals to the Victorias' lone score. It was the most one-sided game ever witnessed in this town, quite a large crowd of local fans turning out.

At no stage of the contest were the visitors in the same class with the home team, and it was a parade to the Guelph team, and it was a parade to the Guelph goal from the opening face-off until the final gong. At half-time the count was 14 to 6, and in the second period 16 more scores were run in. The Guelph goal-keeper was the busiest man on the ice, but the exhibition he gave would not fined him with offers from the pro-thems. ood him with offers from the pro. teams. Local fans believe that the home teams.

Local fans believe that the home team will win the district. The team is a much stronger one than the district winners of last year, and London is the only club that is expected to give them a hard run for the honors. "Toad" Edmunds, of Stratford, officiated, and kept the game comparatively clean.

DRUGMEN DEFEATED CANADIAN EXPRESS

Score Was Four to Three and Game Was Close.

The Na-Dru-Co.'s hockey team defeated the Canadian Express team by the score of 4 to 3 in the Westminster Rink last evening. The game was an interesting one, the Express team leading at half time by the score of 3 to 1. In the last half the Drug men speeded up and won out. Norman Davy, of Regina, was re-feree, while Mr. Arthur Thompson, also of Regina, was oficial timekeeper. Both these gentlemen left today for their home city." The stars of the winners were
