the Kiwanis International, at the noon hour luncheon today, and heard an inspring and instructive address from the pater pro. tem of the Kiwanis clubs of Ontario and Quebec. The function was held in the Shriners' clubrooms, and was among the very pleasing gatherings of the series. Mr. L'Esperance would not be a member of a club which had no ideal work to follow, for Heaven knows, declared the distinguished visitor, "we grovel in the mud too much as it is." He asked the members if they were hewing in line and if their ideals were not degenerating into a luncheon club. Kiwanis, Mr. L'Esperance declared, is a religion impelled from and one of the finest prescriptions a man may take. It is bottled religion, and there were only two paths to follow, one upward and the other downward. Service to your community and your fellow men is the real object of the organization, and if you have not that ideal, said the speaker, hop out; you are in the wrong club.

Fred E. Cornell, the secretary-treasurer, Montreal, was with Mr. L'Esperance, and spoke briefly.
