CAPTAIN LOU SCHOLES.

SCHOLES.

Lou Scholes is another of the old gang that cannot keep away from the sporting end of life. Once a good amateur boxer, Mr. Scholes holds a yet greater distinction of being the only Canadian to capture the famous "Diamond Sculls." He was one of the most outstanding scullers Canada ever had. Sports of all kinds find him present as a judge, or in other official capacity. He is in the hotel business in Toronto.

Brantford Cordage Certain Not To Leave Intercounty

Will Play Either Senior Or Intermediate, But Not In Southern League

BRANTFORD, April 17.—Contrary to the dispatches from Stratford, Brantford Cordage has not entered into a solemn pact with the Stratford Bards in holding out against being forced to join the Southern League. The Brants are standing on their own case, on its merits, and will not even send a representative to meet the O. B. A. A. subcommittee to-morrow night. But—the Brantford Cordage will not play in the Southern Counties League. This is definitely announced by the management. If the club is not allowed to take its promotion to the senior ranks of the Intercounty it will take back its last year place in the intermediate ranks. From its organization it has been in the Intercounty League, and will play in no other even should the O. B. A. A. committee rule that it must play in the Southern League.

Objection is taken here to the very biased position taken by, and activities of, George E. Martin, of London, O. B. A. A. Western Ontario representative.

It is recalled that last year, at the time of the semi-finals, Martin showed so little interest that he did not even know that such games were needed and it was almost impossible to reach him by letter, telephone or telegraph. But no London team was concerned then—only the same Brantford team that to-day he is endeavoring to force out of the league of which it has always belonged, under the specious argument that although an intermediate club last year, operating in opposition to the senior club in the Southern League, it is actually the heir and assigns of all the liabilities of that senior club. But while argument continues the Brantford Cordage management is also sawing wood.

WORKOUT TO-DAY.

The players signed by the team, and as well a number of local lads of merit who want to catch a place, will line up at Agricultural Park to-morrow for a regulars vs. yannigans game, the first of the season. The coach, Clarence Wagner, former Canadian League star, declares that every player will get a chance. However, the official list of signed men is: Catchers, Haines and Summerhayes; pitchers, Smith, Beemer, Cotter, Wood, Wilson and Jacobi; infielders, Davies, Dickie, Languay, Forbes, Land, Scott, McKenzie; outfielders, Wentworth, Powers, Butter, Currie, McKinnon. Baseball throughout Western Ontario is at a standstill because of the effort of London and St. Thomas to force their way into the Intercounty League, where they are not wanted. The Trolley League has been organized, with the Brantford East Ward Orioles, Paris Gyrocks, Simcoe and Port Dover teams entered, and affiliated with the O. B. A. A.

WESTERN TEAMS TAKE THE LEAD

Giants and Senators Gaining After Slow Start.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Western teams held undisputed possession of first place in the two major league races to-day, with the champion Giants and Senators of the east gaining ground after their slow starts.

The Cincinnati Reds, who galloped off to an unexpected three-game winning streak with the opening game, slid back into a tie for fourth with the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

Their string was broken in an 11-inning game with the Cardinals, but the box score does not give the real explanation of the reversal.

After three sterling mound exhibitions by Donohue, Rixey and Luque, the Reds were unable to call upon one of the stars of their twirling staff, whose record gave indication that they would have improved their chances of maintaining the streak in his 1924 form. Carl Mays, the submarine hurler, who won 20 games for Cincinnati last year, is still unavailable because of a sore arm, and the three moundsmen who endeavored to fill the vacancy yesterday were hit at crucial periods for 11 timely safeties.

The Cubs outbatted the Pirates to win at 9 to 6, Hartnett and Miller leading in the attack. The former posted his fourth home run of the campaign, while Miller led the players of both leagues for the day with four bingles in as many turns at the plate.

A sensational pitching duel, during which the Cleveland Indians produced another winner in Shaute, pushed the Speaker entry past the faltering Athletics into the American League pace-making berth. Shaute duplicated Uhle's performances of the day before in limiting the Browns to four hits, Cleveland winning the game on a single tally in the opening frame, 1 to 0.

With Boston leading at 4 to 3 in the fifth, the game was called, and the Athletics were defeated by the weather man.

The Senators again pushed back the Yankees 6 to 1, with a home run in the fourth by Judge, which cleared the sacks.

Detroit and Chicago split their series at two games each, Dauss pitching the Tigers to a 9-to-3 triumph in spite of the fact that he allowed 11 hits.

The New York Giants tied the idle Brooklyn team for third place in the National when Wayland came through with the second shutout game of the season, in the senior circuit.

SASKATCHEWAN VOTING TO BE LATE IN JUNE

WINNIPEG, Man., April 18.—D. H. McDonald, independent member of the Saskatchewan Legislature for South Qu'Appelle, who passed through here en route west yesterday, said that he had information "that the provincial election in Saskatchewan will take place on June 15 and 20." He expressed the opinion that election would leave the Dunning Government without a working majority.

PROBE QUAKE EFFECT ON DEPTH OF ST. LAWRENCE

MONTREAL, April 17.—(Canadian Press Dispatch).—The French language newspaper, La Presse, to-day carries a despatch from Quebec saying that a party of engineers will shortly make an inspection of the bed of the St. Lawrence River to determine whether or not the recent earthquake disturbances, which had their center in the Saguenay district, have had any effect upon the depth of the river.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, April 18. — Danny Kramer, Philadelphia, scored his second knockout here in three weeks last night when he stopped Phil Verde, Rochester, N. Y., featherweight, in the fourth round of a scheduled 12-round bout. Verde was floored three times before counted out.

Fish and Game

Warden and Sportsman

We have from time to time written of the great responsibility resting on game wardens. Let us look at the matter from the other side. The duties of the average game warden to-day are extremely difficult. He has an enormous area to cover. The lawless minority fights him at every turn and leaves nothing undone to make futile his efforts at law enforcement.

What is the honest sportsman's attitude? Does he help the game warden in his duties or does he stand idly by leaving that official an almost superhuman task to perform?

There exists in this country more than in any other nation on the face of the globe, with the possible exception of England, a vast distaste for "tattlers." That is as it should be. We who write this grew up with the feeling. You who read it did also. But intentional violations of the fish and game law fall in a category which makes reporting them a thing entirely apart from the ordinary "tale bearing." When a man wilfully breaks the fish and game law she is robbing us just about as directly as a burglar would. If he shoots a female deer, for instance, in violation of the law, he is robbing us of 1,510 future chances to shoot a buck. If he catches short bass or trout he is removing from the waters, where the act occurred, many thousand of potential fish which we might have enjoyed at a later date.

Yet a great number of sportsmen, even if they personally see this wilful violation, hesitate to report it because they feel that it is not a manly thing to do. If a thug holds us up and takes our watch and money we would leave no stone unturned to see him apprehended. What is the difference between this and stealing our chances to enjoy good, honest sport?

HIS MAJESTY'S RUNNYMEDE WINS NEWMARKET HANDICAP

LONDON, April 17.—His majesty's stable captured its first win of the season, when Runnymede, the bay colt by Hurry On-Saints' Mead, won the Brandon three-year-old handicap at Newmarket to-day. Runnymede, carrying top weight, was an easy winner by two lengths. His victory was loudly cheered and W. Jarvis, his majesty's new trainer, was heartily congratulated on his success.

GREB BEATS WILSON AGAIN.

BOSTON, April 17.—Harry Greb, of Pittsburg, middleweight boxing champion, scored his third victory over Johnny Wilson, former titleholder, when he won by a wide margin from Wilson in a 10-round bout here to-night. They boxed at catch weights, Greb weighing 163½ and Wilson 164½.

Alf. Skinner, of Scotland, won from Tom McKiernan, of New York, in the fourth round of a scheduled eight-round preliminary when the referee stopped the bout.

Tommy Freeman, of Hot Springs, Ark., won a decision over Bennie Ross, of Buffalo, in the eight-round semi-final.

Rookies Galore For London Seniors

Infield and Outfield Material In Another Indoor Workout

While the baseball grouping situation is unsettled as far as London seniors are concerned, more than 20 players were in attendance at the indoor workout held last evening. The local amateurs have not allowed the enthusiasm to die out, in spite of the fact that the league matters have been uncertain for the past month, and when the amateur season opens London will have a strong team ready to place on the field.

There are plenty of recruits for the infield and outfield, while the hurling staff has practically been selected. The hurlers have been working out for the past month, and when Manager Ted Braund orders his squad to commence outdoor training the four pitchers will be well prepared to begin more strenuous work.

The seniors will be a hard-hitting outfit, according to all indications. The London Orients compiled the best team hitting average in the Southern League last season, and this year several new swatters are included on the line-up.

Buster Baker and Shag Arnott are heavy sluggers. The London team will not likely play exhibition games before the opening of the season.

KITCHENER TO PLAY TECUMSEHS FOUR TILTS

KITCHENER, April 17. — Manager Knotty Lee has mailed transportation to 14 players with orders for them to report for training here on Monday. Active training will be commenced on Tuesday. Lee has several strings cut for other players, but he is dealing only with players who have a very fair chance of making the grade.

He has arranged for half a dozen exhibition games, three here and three away. The first will be on April 25 with Niagara University here, while the second will be on the 26th at Niagara. London will be here on April 29 and 30, while the locals will play in London on May 1 and 2.

TO USE COLISEUM FOR ARTIFICIAL ICE ARENA

TORONTO, April 17.—When Percy Quinn, of Montreal; E. J. Livingstone and J. A. C. Cameron, K. C., of Toronto, met Finance Commissioner Ross, Parks Commissioner Chamber and Assistant City Solicitor Colquhon here this afternoon, an agreement was reached for the use of the coliseum at the Canadian National Exhibition grounds for winter sports. It was stated that the agreement was for 10 years and that by its provisions the city will receive 20 per cent. of the receipts, or $10,000 the first year, whichever is the greater, $15,000 for the second year, $25,000 for the third year and $30,000 a year thereafter. The city will provide cloakrooms and dressing room accommodation and the sports promoters will instal an ice plant.

Spring Tonic for Golfers

As Prescribed By Wilfred Reid

One of the big faults in iron club play is holding the club too loosely. When a difficult approach shot must be made, tighten up your fingers in their grip on the club. That is where the control comes from.

It is not a bad practice to put the right hand over a little bit, which gives the fingers a better grip. As I have said, control is the big thing to be had in iron play, whether the shot is a long one or not.

Many amateurs have a weakness with the mashie and it has been my observation that a diffidence about taking a strangle hold on the club is responsible for most of it.

A firm grip is necessary because the club may strike the ground hard enough to twist the club in the hands. And the feet may be a little farther apart than usual, the left foot some 15 inches in advance of the right.

The weight should be distributed nearly equally with perhaps slightly more on the right foot than on the left.

ECHO PLACE TENNIS CLUB.

BRANTFORD, April 17.—The Echo Place Tennis Club has reorganized with the following officers: President, W. H. Mowat; vice-president, Mrs. E. Hall; secretary, Miss R. Batty; treasurer, J. Howden; social committee, Miss T. Brilinger; convener of grounds committee, S. Bowden. Plans are under way for the opening on May 24.

Baseball has changed a whole lot since Aunt Sara used to wear long lace gloves, but we not that Old Sol is still a big favorite with the bright young men who write for the papers.
