— A correspondent wishes us to call the attention of the proper authorities to the condition of the Bayard Bridge, Wilmot. He says that it is more tuan reckless to wait until a serious accident attracts the notice of the community.

New Paper.—We are in receipt of a handsomely printed, well filled, six-teen-page paper styled the Industrial World, published at Ottawa, In politics it claims to be independent, and says it will loyally endorse any platform having for its object the thorough development of Canada's resources, regardless of politics and politicians. Commercial classes will no doubt large by paronize it. $3 per annum.

We was a most reverse by the first of the property of others—therefore, he was guilty of robbery as well. His commencial classes will no doubt large by paronize it. $3 per annum.
