

official score is "Independents" 1 College 17 and an unknown quantity (or x.) Sad indeed was the sight of Cap't. O'Leary after the battle was fought and lost. His raven locks floated in the evening breeze as though in sympathy with their owner's mournful feelings. The tears rolled down his pale cheeks and it was evident that his hair was becoming white from grief and sorrow. "Oh, hallowed shades of immortal Julius," he cried take pity on thy namesake's sad plight. My ambition was like unto thine. I crossed into countries strange, I came, I saw but alas, I was conquered. These final words were drowned in a sob that would have broken the heart of the most flawless diamond. Arthur has privately informed us that in the future "The Independents" will play hockey on a wooden rink with small, spherical, glass pucks, for which they require no sticks but use only the thumb and forefinger.

Prof.—What is meant by emphasis in reading?

J. Gls-on—Emphasis in reading is the distress laid on a word. The professor remarked that Mr. Gls-on had better hoist the flag of distress.

The senior world declared that Bis Hector would be the champion quarter back for '96. We doubt it, as he is now playing cover-point on the 5th team of the Senior Dep't. Poor Bis, Cap't. Paul Valentine informs us that he was ignominiously ejected on Feb. 8th.

We have decided to award the highest gift at our disposal, the Junior Reporter's chair with all its emoluments to the candidate who gives the most satisfactory answers to the following:—

1. Upon what finger does Saturn wear his ring?
2. What is the birthday of the man in the moon?
3. How many feathers are there in a comet's tail?
4. What is the color of the spots on the sun?

5. What is the length of the longest canal in Mars?

6. How many lbs. of butter are there in the Milky Way?

7. What is the capacity of the Dipper?

8. Where are the winter lodgings of the Bear?

9. Who laid the wires for the Northern Lights?

10. What is the no. of the collar worn by the Dog-Star?

N. B.—Pass candidates will write on any eight questions. Honor men take all ten. The examination will be held in the snow-fort June 15th, 1896.

The Gold Cure has been revised and regenerated into the long lost Elixir of Life. Dose: Two per cent. of the gold coin that leaks out of an air-tight-barrel. Discovered Feb. 11th, 1896. Pat. appl'd for—Dr. Rh—me Com. '96.

The following held first places in their classes for the month of January:—

First Grade { 1. M. Major.
2. E. Laverdure.
3. W. McGee.

Second Grade A. { 1. A. Martin.
2. J. B. Patry.
3. T. Ausant.

Second Grade B. { 1. R. Lapointe.
2. J. Timbers.
3. C. Kavanagh.

Third Grade A. { 1. W. Burke.
2. A. McDonald.
3. J. Slattery.

Third Grade B. { 1. J. Sullivan.
2. S. Pitre.
3. E. Bisson.

Fourth Grade. { 1. J. Coté.
2. G. Kelly.
3. A. McDonald.