

Jottings by the Way.

Upon leaving London after the Convention, I went out to spend a few days at the old homestead in Lobo. This brought up many recollections of the past, some pleasant, very, and some not so much so.

Spending a couple of days with relatives in the town of Sarnia, I met, one evening, with the Baptists in prayer meeting, and heard their pastor—whose name I have forgotten—who, like myself, had just returned from their convention held, I think, in Strathroy, and was full of convention work, give a brief report of their work as represented there, which was full of interest and in many respects encouraging to them as a denomination.

On Lord's day, the 9th of June, by previous arrangement, I met with the Mosa church in their 'Annual June Meeting,' which was very largely attended. Here we met brethren from Lobo, Aldboro and Plympton. This is one of the beneficial features of these annual gatherings. It brings together brethren from different points, who talk over the work, its needs, and exchange views as to the best way of carrying on the Lord's work.

home of Sister McCully on the "Creek Road," Harwich, where in the evening there had assembled over a hundred brethren and friends to honor and to say good-bye to Bro. Bulgin on the eve of his departure for Hiram College, where he goes to finish up his education for the ministry. Bro. Bulgin has done a splendid work in this section of country, and the brethren fully appreciate it, as was manifest this evening.

We drove out ten miles from Ridgetown to see Sister Bella Sinclair, who is hourly waiting the Master's call to "come up higher." It made us sad to see her wasted form, and glad to find her so cheerful and resigned to the will of the Lord.

I spent a very pleasant evening with the Y. P. S. C. E. in Ridgetown, and gave them a short address. I would like to write up this society, but time will not permit. You told me, Bro. Munro, to write a long article or something to this effect. You wish by this time you had not done so.
