A.Fascinating Historical Romance.

A Tale of the Times of Ezra and Nehemiah. By JAMES M. LUDLOW, D.D., Author of "The Captain of the Janizaries," etc. 301 pp. 16mo. Cloth, Ornamental,

$1.QQ

NEW EDITION NOW BEAD In "A King of Tyre" we live and move

amid old ideas, old superstitions, and an extinct civilization. But this vanished breer of things the author has pierced to the core, and laid bare the human heart that animales it all. When we say that his tale is interesting, that it is satisfying, that it is dramatically conclusive, we give it high praise, yet we give it deliberately, and are convinced that the opinion of all intelligent readers will confirm the verdict .- Churchman, N. Y.

Vivid with the richness of Oriental habits and customs, and the weird accompaniments of pagan worship, this tale of the times after the return of the Hebrews to their own land, will hold the attention of the reader with un-flagging interest. Its development shows marked ability and skill. There is an historical basis to the story which gives it additional attraction.—Living Church, Chicago.

Will enhance the reputation of the author and can be welcomed as not only a novel of absorbing interest, but a faithful study and portraiture of an eventful bistorical period.—

Christian Intelligencer, N.Y.
