

This is a very good likeness of our youngest, as he appeared recently, after having dropped out of his high chair on to the floor, very solid. We rubbed the afflicted parts thoroughly with St. Jacobs Oil, and he was soon put right again, and is now the joy and hope of our lives.

We shouldn't think, however, of being without St. Jacobs Oil in the house, not only on account of the Baby, who frequently receives knocks and scratches, but on account of the Rheumatic aches and pains, which we sometimes have.

We find that St. Jacobs Oil removes all these like magic—in fact, it is thoroughly a Household Remedy, and it is a household word, that St. Jacobs Oil "Conquers Pain."

Never was the accomplishment of verse so general as now. "Weren't we in the luck of it," said Scott to Moore, "to have come before all this talent was at work?"—Epes Sargent.

Build Up.

When the system is run down, a person becomes an easy prey to Consumption or Scrofula. Many valuable lives are saved by using Scott's Emulsion as soon as a decline in health is observed.

The noble Brutus worshipped honor, and in his zeal, mistook her for virtue. In the day of trial he found her a shadow and a name.—Colton.

HIGHLY PRAISED.

Gentlemen,—I have used Hagyard's, Yellow Oil, and have found it unequalled for burns, sprains, scalds, rheumatism, croup and colds. I have recommended it to many friends, and they also speak highly of it.

B. B. B. STOOD THE TEST.

I tried every known remedy I could think of for rheumatism, without giving me any relief, until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, which remedy I can highly recommend to all afflicted as I was.

He who writes himself martyr by his own inscription is like an ill-painter who by writing on a shapeless picture which he hath drawn, is fain to tell passengers what shape it is, which else no one could imagine.—Milton.

Women have led in the progress of the ceramic art since our last great exposition. The Rockwood ware of Cincinnati and the gold china of Miss Healy, of Washington, are the great novelties in their line at Chicago. Miss Healy's process is the cause of much argument and envy by European porcelain-makers.—Harper's Bazar.

THE TRIUMPHANT THREE.

During three years' suffering with dyspepsia, I tried almost every known remedy, but kept getting worse, until I tried B. B. B. I had only used it three days when I felt better: three bottles completely cured me.

Piety is not an end, but a means of attaining the highest degree of culture by perfect peace of mind. Hence it is to be observed that those who make piety an end and aim in itself for the most part become hypocrites.—Goethe.

Saved Her Life.

Mrs. C. J. WOOLDRIDGE, of Wortham, Texas, saved the life of her child by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"One of my children had Croup. The case was attended by our physician, and was supposed to be well under control. One night I was startled by the child's hard breathing, and on going to it found it strangling. It had nearly ceased to breathe. Realizing that the child's alarming condition had become possible in spite of the medicines given, I reasoned that such remedies would be of no avail. Having part of a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, I gave the child three doses, at short intervals, and anxiously waited results. From the moment the Pectoral was given, the child's breathing grew easier, and, in a short time, she was sleeping quietly and breathing naturally. The child is alive and well to-day, and I do not hesitate to say that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved her life."
