

THE ESQUIMAUX.

The foregoing picture will give our readers some idea of the appearance of that singular people, the Esquimaux,—in the cold icy regions where they dwell, humble missionaries,—pious, God-fearing Moravians, have long laboured and been permitted to see the fruit of their labours. The field is indeed