FREIGHTS.

Freights are steady, nominally, at previous rates, but positively no business is passing. In San Francisco, however, there have been one or two charters to arrive at 27s 6d to Cork for orders with the usual options.

Lumber freights from B. C. or Puget Sound are quoted as follows:-Valparaiso for orders. 37s; 6d; Sydney, 27s 6d; Melbourne, Adelaide or Port Pirie; 37s 6d; United Kingdom, calling at Cork for orders, 63s 9d; Shanghai, 36s; Tientsin 55s, nominal, South Africa 60s.

Coal freights from Nanaimo or

Departure Bay to San Francisco, $1.75 to $2; to San Diego or San Pedro, $2.25
to $2.50

The Mount Baker Hotel, at Oak Bay, Victoria, will open for the summer season on May 1, under the management of J. A. Virtue.

The American barkentine Modoc, 452 tons, Capt. Bosch, now at San Francisco, is reported chartered for lumber from British Columbia to Santa Rosalia.

The Pacific cable scheme and Canadian Australian steamship service continue to be the subjects of favorable comment in the Motherland. We are glad of this; their success means a great deal for Canada, particularly for British Columbia, and the more they are popularized by a free and full discussion of their merits the sooner will the utmost possible be accomplished by and for them. In connection with the Anglo-Canadian-Australian steamship service, Liverpool, Milford Haven, Southampton, Swansea, Bristol, Plymouth and Cork are already endeavoring to demonstrate their respective merits as ports of call, and this is an important sign of the interest which is taken in Great Britain.
