

AS AN ADVERTISING Medium the REVIEW is unsurpassed in reaching the Catholic population of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.

A. G. Morgan's many years experience in the shoe business means an extensive variety of styles, and durability unequalled.

A. G. MORGAN, 412 MAIN ST. McINTYRE BLOCK

CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

The Norwood bridge is now completed.

Mr. Alex. Elves, of Minnedosa, arrived in the city last evening.

Mr. C. J. O'Connell returned from the World's Fair on Sunday.

Over five thousand people a day are being fed in New York at the Free Bread distribution.

"A Catholic newspaper is a perpetual mission in every parish."—His Holiness Pope Leo XIII.

And now the relations of France and Italy are strained. In cholera times like these they should be boiled and filtered.

A Latin play written two thousand years ago, will form a unique part of the Catholic educational exhibit at the World's Fair to-morrow.

There is no use of Manitobans worrying about the future. Should this country go to grass they would be able to dispose of the hay at a reasonable profit.

The rights of Catholic children—a Christian child has a right to a Christian education. A Catholic child has a right to a Catholic education.—Cardinal Manning.

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Holy College, Worcester, Mass., will be observed between the dates of Nov. 1st and 10th.

Here's a chance for speculation. Buy thermometers in the morning and they'll surely rise by noon.

Mr. E. L. Drewny is making preparations for the immediate erection of a large elevator for the storage of barley at the Redwood Brewery.

If the local merchants would do more local advertising they would probably find more local customers. They should let the community know that they are on earth.

The Rev. Stanislaus La Boque, of St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, has been appointed to the See of Sherbrooke, in the vacancy caused by the death of the late Bishop Racine.

The C. P. R. are now selling return tickets from Winnipeg to the World's Fair at $24.20. This rate will continue till October 31st, good to return until November 15th.

Reports of the ravages of wolves on the western cattle ranges increase as the weather gets colder. It is about time some action was taken by the government to reduce the losses by the pests, says a western exchange.

The Colorado preacher who took the text, "And the streets shall be paved with gold," and lost his pulpit in consequence, should send his common sense around to some fashionable preacher and have an edge put on it.

During the past week many valuable offerings have been received for the bazaar. Among others a magnificent Japanese banner from L. A. McPhillips, of Vancouver, B. C., a large cake and a young colt being donated by friends.

The Rev. Father Poitras, O. M. I., for many years pastor of Mattawa, arrived at St. Mary's, on Sunday, the 8th inst., and is to take the place of the late lamented Father Maisonneuve, as the procurator of the Oblate Fathers of Manitoba. The reverend father will reside at St. Boniface.

The "Chicago Herald" is to be congratulated for its religious congress reports. Seldom do we find a non-Catholic journal reporting correctly Catholic verbiage, as accurately as the "Herald" reported it. Indeed some of our Catholic exchanges have a non-Catholic smack about them.—Facts.

"Superstition is the enemy of man, but bigotry is worse," declared a Hindu representative at Chicago the other day. "Even the Mohammedans," adds the Catholic Columbian, "concern the principles upon which Apatem is based, and scorn the vile spirit which prompts its prospective endeavor."

Mrs. W. B. Scarth and daughter, of Winnipeg, are passengers on the Australian steamer Mowera, which is now reported seven days behind time. It is thought the machinery has broken down, and that the steamer will reach San Francisco by sail.

C. Robinson & Co., of Toronto, who were appointed by the Supreme Court at Ottawa to argue the school case on behalf of the Manitoba Government, are said to have accepted; in that case another adjournment will be asked for, in order to give them time to prepare the argument.

When a man is hungry he never complains that his wife is a poor cook.

A shiftless man loves to talk about his bad luck.

Miss Maggie O'Donoghue, of Stony Mountain, is in the city, on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. H. Barry.

Mrs. W. H. Barry returned on Saturday, after spending a few days with relatives at Selkirk.

Mr. D. Smith, inspector of Dominion Public Works, after an official visit in the west, returned last week.

Mr. Ed. McKewen, who has been suffering from typhoid fever, is now able to be around again.

We never know the value of a friend until we lose him, nor the sweets of fervor until robbed of it by torturing agitation.

Messrs. A. M. Amblard & Co., have purchased the liquor business of Messrs. J. A. Wood & Co., Main street. The stock comprises some very fine vintages.

An Order-in-Council appointing C. H. McIntosh, M. P. for Ottawa, lieutenant-governor of the Northwest, was signed by Lord Aberdeen, on Friday last.

A burglar shot at St. Paul, a highwayman riddled with bullets at Little Falls, train robbers turning up their toes everywhere! Verily the good work goes bravely on.

Judge D. W. Lyon, the well known stipendiary magistrate of Portage la Prairie, died at Milton, Ont., on the 13th inst. Deceased was highly esteemed and had acted in the position of stipendiary magistrate for the last thirteen years.

Put this down in your memorandum book: "The bazaar in aid of the Catholic schools takes place on Nov. 13th." Remember, also, that sympathy is a good thing to give, as well as receive, but in cases of this kind the contents of one's purse is better, and in general more appreciated.

A preacher at Lafayette, Ind., is reported to have about broken up his church the other day by saying in a sermon that "God made the earth in six days and then he rested; then he made man and rested again; then he made woman and since that time neither God nor man has had a rest."

Archbishop Redwood, of Wellington, New Zealand, who attended the Catholic convention in Chicago, is a near friend to Archbishop Ireland, at whose invitation he was present; they were school-fellows, and studied at the same bench together in the south of France. Archbishop Redwood is a gifted orator in both English and French.

Confession is not merely pouring out of the heart by way of confidence—not even the consolation of direct and Christian sympathy, but a firm, courageous avowal of all the weakness of the heart, and an unalterable resolution of amendment in the presence of God and His representative at the Holy Tribunal—whose sins you shall forgive they are forgiven, whose sins you shall retain, they are retained.

The Rev. Father O'Callaghan and Mr. E. Smart, secretary of the Catholic Protection and Rescue Society, of Salford, England, which was started five years ago, and which has found a means to procure a livelihood for about six hundred children, are now in Montreal. They brought out forty-two children by the St. Circassian, whom they have placed in good homes throughout Quebec. The reverend gentleman will soon go to Alberta, to make arrangements for the reception of his young immigrants, as he desires to extend his field.

An over officious individual, clothed with a little authority, ordered the Irish flag to be lowered on Irish Day at the World's Fair, says The Providence Visitor, after the Council of Administration had decided that it might be raised. It would certainly have been an insult to the thousands of Irishmen present had the permission been denied. In that case Irish Day would have been Hamlet without the melancholy Dane.

Two bold, wicked robbers were searching the house. When one told his companion the glimmer "Der is notain' ter take," he remarked, with a sigh, "Save 'Paradise Lost,' an' a cold piece o' That's all I kin find. Confound his ole soul; Their head of dis ranch must have paid for his coal."

Capt. P. D. O'Phelan, late Inspector of U. S. Customs here, left with his family on Monday last for Graceville, Minn., where they will for the present reside. He desires to convey his sincere thanks to the many friends he has had in Winnipeg during the past five years for all their acts of kindness towards himself and family. He wishes to express in an especial manner his gratitude to those who so tangibly and charitably showed their sympathies when the recent sad accident at the C. P. R. shops caused the death of one of his children.

The REVIEW, in the hope of encouraging our bright Catholic school children, will be pleased to receive short essays for publication. This department will be under the supervision of a person who will gladly do all possible to encourage the genius to be found in our schools. The humor of the school is too valuable to be lost, and we will be pleased if the teachers would endeavor to have recorded the humorous answers and the amusing incidents occurring in their classes. There is no doubt it will make interesting reading, and somewhat add to it not enrich the literature of humor.

The managers of the World's Fair and the stockholders are sorely puzzled what to do with the White City by Lake Michigan when the throngs who now visit it daily return to their homes and every thing else. It bids fair to be, in the language of a Chicago paper, a very "big white elephant" on their hands.

It cost some $15,000,000 to construct the buildings and prepare the grounds for the exposition. It is doubtful whether even a small fraction of that amount can be realized from the sale of the buildings, so expensive will be the work of pulling them down and removing the material. What is to be done with the waste and rubbish, is another distressing problem for the managers and stockholders.

A literary and musical soiree is to be held at the St. Boniface College, this (Wednesday) evening, the occasion being the religious jubilee of Rev. Father Hudson, rector of the college. A pleasant evening may be anticipated by those intending to be present.

It is gratifying to notice the good attendance at the devotions during the month of the Rosary. The Holy Father has written a forcible letter on the devotion to the Rosary. It is one of the sources of the supernatural life, of which he is the index, and the happiness of mind to be derived therefrom can only be felt by those who make a simple sacrifice.

"The social customs and amusements of the early days in the Red River settlement and Rupert's Land," a paper read by John MacBeth, president, before the Historical and Scientific Society of Manitoba, on the 24th of January last, has been published in pamphlet form for distribution. It is full of interest not only to the student, but will prove entertaining reading for "old settlers," bring to light many of the little inconveniences then experienced as compared with the present progressive pace of the province.

We have pleasure in intimating to our friends and subscribers that the staff of the Northwest Review has been materially strengthened by the introduction into the firm of a gentleman whose knowledge of newspaper methods and journalistic work has been gained in various countries. The business will now be carried on under the style of E. J. Dermody & Co., and no pains or expense will be spared to place the REVIEW in the forefront of Catholic journalism. Our aim will be as heretofore—to right the wrong, and to place before our readers a newspaper of a pure and elevating character.
