

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE Publisher announces that the present month's issue is the first number of Volume IV and trusts that the success that has attended the Magazine in the first three years of its life, will continue for many years to come. Hereafter the Magazine will be enlarged and improved, and after the first of July, 1902, the Subscription price will be increased to Seventy-five cents a year. All subscriptions paid in before that date will be received at the present rate. The Magazine is not sent to any addresses after the time of subscription has ended.

The Prince Edward Island Magazine is printed each month at its own office, Richmond Street west, Charlottetown, and has no connection with any other publishing company in Charlottetown.

All remittances and communications for this Magazine should be addressed :
