

ANNEX "A"

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

- I The responsibilities of the Government of Canada with regard to a specific project shall be defined in the subsidiary arrangement concerning that project in accordance with the principle established between the Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of Burundi.
- II Contracts for the purpose of obtaining goods and services paid for by the Government of Canada and required for projects shall be signed by the Government of Canada or one of its agencies. A subsidiary arrangement may, however, provide that such contracts may be signed by the Government of the Republic of Burundi or one of its agencies in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the said subsidiary arrangement.
- III The Government of Canada shall provide the Government of the Republic of Burundi in a timely manner with the names of the Canadian personnel and their dependents entitled to the rights and privileges set forth in this Agreement or in a subsidiary arrangement.
- IV Unless subsidiary arrangements indicate otherwise, the Government of Canada shall finance the salaries, fees, allowances and other benefits of Canadian personnel.
- V The Government of Canada shall finance the travel expenses of Canadian personnel and their dependents between their normal place of residence and the port of entry and departure in Burundi, including the cost of shipping their personal and household effects and the professional and technical materials required by the said personnel for the execution of their duties.
- VI Unless subsidiary arrangements indicate otherwise, the Government of Canada shall provide Canadian personnel with permanent, furnished accommodation and shall also finance the hotel accommodation expenses of Canadian personnel and their dependents from their arrival in Burundi until they are established in permanent accommodations, and from the time they leave their permanent accommodations until their final departure.
