

6. Ways and means to promote and strengthen favourable access by the developing countries to processes, equipment, research and expertise related to the development and use of environmentally sound technology.

7. Ways and means to support regional and national programmes of scientific research, dissemination of information and technology development among developing countries, including through the involvement of both public and private enterprises and research facilities, as well as funding for TCDC programmes in this areas.

8. [The easing of the transfer of patents and know-how, including the issues of the period of patent protection.]

[The strengthening of the transfer of patents and know-how, including the examination of the issues of the period of patent protection, taking into account also the on-going work in WIPO.]

9. To agree on incorporating [encourage the incorporation of] the transfer of environmentally sound technologies to developing countries in negotiating an International Code of Conduct on Transfer of Technology.

-----