

Conference and the Conference on Disarmament (CD) should be mutually supportive and mutually complementary.

6. There was also a broad consensus among the States Parties that the President of the Amendment Conference should continue his consultations with the States Parties as well as States not parties to the PTBT and to hold another Special Meeting early in 1994 in order to review developments and assess the situation regarding a comprehensive nuclear test ban and to examine the feasibility of resuming the work of the Amendment Conference later that year. In this connection it was recalled that pursuant to the decision of the Amendment Conference, further work needed to be undertaken especially that with regard to verification of compliance and possible sanctions against non-compliance.
 7. In order to promote universality of a comprehensive test ban, the Special Meeting considered it essential that in pursuing his efforts, the President of the Amendment Conference closely liaise with the Conference on Disarmament and with the five nuclear powers.
 8. The Special Meeting agreed that the elements of consensus emerging from this meeting could be used as the basis for formulating a draft resolution on the Amendment Conference in the forthcoming session of the General Assembly.
