

- Iraq Canada joined the UN Special Commission (UNSCOM) in April 1991 to inspect and, if necessary, destroy Iraq's biological and chemical weapons.
- Former Yugoslavia Since March 1992, Canada has contributed one of the largest contingents to the UN forces in the former Yugoslavia. Currently, some 1030 Canadian troops serve with the NATO Peace Implementation Force (IFOR) in Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina. Canadians also serve with the UN Mission in Bosnia and Herzegovina (UNMIBH).
- Cambodia Within the Cambodian Mine Action Centre (CMAC), Canada provides six personnel to train Cambodians in demining techniques and safety standards as well as management and decision-making skills to support de-mining operations.
- Haiti The United Nations Support Mission in Haiti (UNSMIH) was established in June 1996 as a continuation of the United Nations Mission in Haiti (UNMIH) which began in June 1993. Currently, there are approximately 750 Canadian Forces personnel and 100 Canadian police officers in Haiti to help the government professionalize the Haitian national police force and consolidate the stable and democratic environment necessary for economic growth and development.
- Guatemala The United Nations Mission in Guatemala (MINUGUA) checks to see that the Agreement on Human Rights between the Government of Guatemala and the opposing rebel group is carried out. MINUGUA also co-operates with and helps strengthen institutions working for the protection of human rights in the country; and it verifies aspects of the Agreement on Identity and Human Rights of the Indigenous People.
