

CRIME AND Acknowledgements IN CANADA

The Committee wishes to extend its gratitude to all witnesses as well as groups and individuals who submitted written briefs. Its work was greatly facilitated by the significant and high quality presentations made during the public hearings in Ottawa, Halifax (November 30–December 1st, 1992) and Vancouver (January 18, 19, 20, 1993).

The Committee also wishes to express its appreciation to the central staff for their excellent work and commitment and for the long hours devoted to this study.

The Committee owes a special debt of gratitude to its advisors for their dedication and great expertise. We especially thank Patricia Begin who provided research support and drafted the Report in collaboration with Philip Rosen and Marilyn Pilon of the Library of Parliament Research Branch.

In particular, we wish to thank the Clerk of the Committee, Richard Dupuis, who ably scheduled the activities and managed the administrative, financial and logistical aspects of the Committee's work. We also appreciate the contribution of Nancy Hall, Assistant Clerk, Lise Tierney, Administrative Support Officer, as well as Georgette Dubeau, Administrative Assistant to the Clerk who has worked faithfully for the Committee since the beginning of its mandate.

Finally, the Committee would like to thank the staff of the Committees Directorate, and all the support services of the House of Commons in particular the Centralized Support and Publications Service (CSPS) for their co-operation and publication of this report. Thanks also to the interpreters and to the translators of the Secretary of State.
